MARRIAGE OF INTEREST—A marriage of interest to residents of Montague and vicinity was solemnized at the United Church on Saturday when Blanche Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hume, Brooklyn, was united in marriage to Mr. Malcolm Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beaton, Flat River. The bride was dressed in a gray gabardine suit with pink accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. Anne Hume, Charlottetown, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a wine suit with gray accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom was supported by his brother Ernest of Halifax. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a delicious supper was served to the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom. The dining room was decorated with pink and white streamers, and the table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake made by Mrs. Stanley MacLeod. After the reception the bride and groom left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. The happy young couple will take up residence in Montague where they are both members of the staff of Benham's. Prior to their marriage they were given a shower by the Almonte Young Peoples Union of the Montague United Church, and other friends from whom they received many lovely and useful gifts. They were also tendered showers at Flat River and Brooklyn. Their many friends wish the young couple many happy years of wedded life.

"FIGHTING FOOLS" STARS GORCEY

Racketeers menace the prize ring until they are opposed by the Bowery Boys in Monogram's new comedy drama, "Fighting Fools," starring Leo Gorcey and due today at the Empire Theatre, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Billy Benedict, David Gorcey and Benny Bartlett are again seen as the adventurous Bowery Boys.

Others in the cast are Frankie Darro, Lyle Talbot, Bert Conway, Evelyn Eaton, Bernard Gorcey, Teddy Infuhr, Ben Weiden, Dorothy Vaughan, Sam Hayes and Bill Cardigan. Reginald LeBorg directed the Jan Grippo production. Edmond Seward, Gerald Schmitzer and Bert Lawrence wrote the original screenplay.

Danny Kaye sports the pearl-button suit and cap that was worn by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Matthews, England's "Pearly King and Queen," in London. The Hollywood comic became an honorary member of East London's "royal" costermongers.

Mr. Ferdie Batchelder of Charlottetown was the guest of his mother, Mrs. John Batchelder over the weekend.

Mr. Amos Lavander who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lavander during the past few weeks left Monday on return to the U.S.A.

Mr. Larry Scully of Souris was a recent visitor to Georgetown.

Rev. S. J. and Mrs. Boyce were visitors to the City on Monday.

Catches of lobsters on Monday and Tuesday were small for a weekend haul. The catches so far this season have been below those of other seasons and the next week should show if they are to hold even at the small figure. Any serious falling off might force a suspension of packing operations.

Friends of Mrs. Sophia Bourdault, one of Georgetown's Grand Old Ladies, who has been seriously ill at her home here, will learn with pleasure that the condition is now steadily improving.

Mr. Albert Hobbs and Mr. William Hobbs Jr., left during the week to commence their duties with the R.C.A.F. in Ontario. The two brothers, both veterans of Canada's wartime Air Force, take with them the well wishes of a host of friends for a successful career in Canada's peacetime R. C. A. F.

Maurice DeLory, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeLory, Water Street, who during the past year has been a student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, has joined the University Naval Training Division of the Royal Canadian Navy for Officer Training. Maurice has joined the aircraft carrier Magificent which on Tuesday sailed from Halifax on a 23 day training cruise, which includes a five-day call at Boston. While attending Prince of Wales College, Maurice was an outstanding member of the Air Force Cadets and held a Sergeant's rank.
