

Woman's Realm Social and Personal Fashions Literature

We Are Sorry

WAR'S necessities have limited the supply of Jell-O—and the demand exceeds the supply. Naturally, there are times when grocers are out of Jell-O. If you have been disappointed, we are sorry. But Jell-O is still being produced, and you will be able to enjoy it from time to time.

JELL-O Brand

A PRODUCT OF GENERAL FOODS

Living & Leisure The Woman's Realm

It shall be my blood to bear the Name Supreme Lightly appealed to on each trifling theme; Maintain your rank—profanity despise, To swear, is neither brave, polite, nor wise.—Wm. Cowper.

BE HONEST IN HAIR STYLING

"All that the average man asks is that a woman be honest with herself in hair styling. If she has the youthfulness of a long, shouder bob, well and good. If she hasn't then let her be sensible about it. These words of advice on hair-style are from Wally Westmore, director of makeup at Paramount.

WITH GREEN COSTUME

Green costumes take emerald, jade, chrysochroase, cat's eyes, green tourmaline, peridot and pearls. Gold is particularly good with green—amethysts, rubies and garnets are also good with green.

NURSES' UNIFORM

In hospital hospitals a revolution in nurses' uniforms is taking place. The traditional starched collars, cuffs, belts and caps are to be replaced by short-sleeved one-piece dresses with soft turn-down collars.

FULLER'S EARTH TO CLEAN CARPET

From wartime England comes a word of warning about the carpet—which incidentally does its share in keeping the requirements down.

ANIMAL TOAST

To encourage youngsters to eat all their soup, try topping the bowls with toast cut in animal shapes.

KEEP KNITTING NEEDLES FLYING

The slogan 'keep 'em flying' applies to knitting needles as well as to war planes. The more care and speed you put into your knitting, the better and longer-lasting garment comes off your needles.

SPANGLED BOW ON SROU'S EVENING GOWN

NEW YORK.—With the short dinner dress one usually wants something on the head, a tiny hat, a flower, or bow or some such as part of the past.

MOTHER CAN TAKE IT, TOO

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

MOTHER CAN TAKE IT, TOO

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

A Morning Smile

to market one wet day. Large pools of water had formed in the roadway between the farm and the town. On the return journey he met an old friend.

Santa Rides Again—A MESSAGE

DEAR JUNE AND TED: THE OLD WALL RIGHT AWAY GRANDFATHER RABBIT

Dorothy Dix Says—

Wife Cold; Young Father May Find Army Answer to Problem

Army Will Give Him New Viewpoint on Life, Restores Self Respect

DEAR MISS DIX: My wife and I married when we were very young. We had a common background, common interests and a whole lot of wonderful common experiences, but because of our extreme youth we made horrible mistakes. It took me a long time to get adult, and although our finances were not too bad they didn't help any.

We have been married six years now and have two adorable little girls. Right after the birth of our second daughter, two and a half years ago, my wife just went cold, lost all of her affection for me, against her will because she admired and respected me and wanted our marriage to succeed. But despite everything my original feeling for her has not faded.

She is willing to go on as we are, indefinitely, for the sake of the children and others concerned. I am willing to do anything to keep things together, but am having a devil of a time because my pride and self-respect are knocked into a cocked hat, and because the unnatural relationship in which we stand to each other is something you cannot tie into everyday life.

What should we do? Is she right about thinking it would be impossible for her to ever love me again, or is this just a temporary phase with her? Do you think we should attempt to go on with each other as long as we can for the sake of the children, or separate at once? Or should we remain together until such time as the army takes me and then separate, or what?

ANSWER: If I were you, I should lay my problem on the lap of the war god and leave him to solve it for me. Absence, distance, the many experiences that you are destined to go through, the stories that other soldiers will tell you in the silence of lonely nights when men bare their souls to each other, will make you see your problem from many different angles than the way you contemplate it now.

Many things that seem important to you now will seem trivial enough when you stand face to face with danger and death. You may come to feel that even the love of a woman is not worth worrying over when the fate of the world is at stake. The petty irritations that keep your nerves raw you will forget when you are removed from them and have bigger things to think about.

Time is the great solver of all problems. It is the great healer. Give it a chance. Perhaps, when your wife realizes that you have definitely gone out of her life, she will find out that her love for you is not dead, but has only been drugged into unconsciousness by the dull monotony of domestic life and will awaken stronger and more vital than ever.

So my advice to you is for you to tell your wife that you want to do nothing about altering your relationship before you go into the army. Do not on any account get a divorce, for the children's sake even more for your own. Let them still think of you and talk of you as their Daddy who has gone out to fight for his country and of whom they can be proud, instead of having to hang their heads over having a father whom their mother divorced for some reason they don't understand.

And of one thing you may be sure—going into the army will restore your self-respect. No man who risks his life for his country but is a hero who has a right to be proud of himself.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have fallen in love with a sailor. I was just bowled over the first time I saw him and knew he was the only one for me. I have dated him about six times and have grown to like him so much that I just have to know how he feels about me. Sometimes he doesn't call me up for about two or three weeks and that is what gets me, not knowing where he is and whom he is dating during that time.

Now what I've GOT to know is: Does he love me? Is he fooling me? He says he loves me, but how can you tell when a boy is telling the truth? He says like some other girl better than he does me and I don't believe I could stand it. So how can I find out who he likes the best? Would you wait until he mentions it? Or shall I tell him how much I love him?

ANSWER: Well, Mary Ann, did you ever hear that a sailor has a sweetheart in every port? Hold that thought for a little while before you go all out for your job. Sailors have ever had a way with women, but they have also had a way of kissing and sailing away. And that was the last a girl ever heard of them. So don't set your little heart too much upon this good-looking lad.

There is no foolproof way of telling whether a chap means it when he swears to you that you are the only girl in the world for him. Maybe it is true. Most likely it is a lie. But I should be quite suspicious of any lad who, knowing his time was short in port, didn't call up his alleged Lady Love for two or three weeks at a time. That doesn't assay very boy love-making and indicates that there are others.

Certainly you should wait until the state of his affections before you tell him that you are breaking your heart over him. Remember that the harder a girl is to get, the more interested a boy is in getting her.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

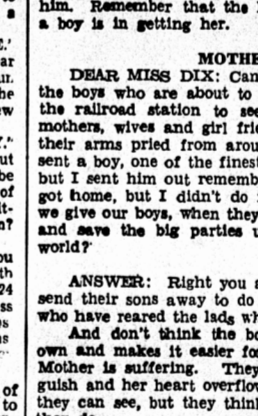

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE

One cup dried figs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 cups sliced preserved orange peel, 2 cups candied cherries, 2 teaspoons allspice, 1 cup fruit nectar (apricot, peach-nectarine, plum or peach), 1 cup brown sugar (packed), 10 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons flavouring, 4 cups seedless raisins, 2 cups uncooked

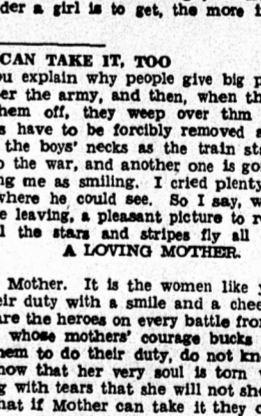

TO RELIEVE COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

DOES MORE because it helps 2 ways— 1. Relieves the cold 2. Relaxes the body

A LOVELY GIFT FOR A CHILD

DESIGN NO. 770

There can be no easier way for children to learn the prayer than in picture form. Hot iron transfer pattern No. 770 measures 8 by 10 inches with complete instructions.

To order pattern: Write, or send above picture with your name and address with 15 cents in coin or stamps to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, New Brunswick.

NAME _____ CITY _____ STREET ADDRESS _____ PROVINCE _____

MRS. WHITE WAS RIGHT...

LIPTON'S NOODLE SOUP MIX IS THE QUICK SOUP WITH THE REAL CHICKEN-Y FLAVOUR

A PRODUCT OF LIPTON'S The Packers of LIPTON'S FULL-FLAVOURED (Small Leaf) TEA

Needlecraft For The Home

It's good clothes insurance to see that your wardrobe includes a good suit, and it's good economy to make it yourself and put your investment in fabric.

Style No. 3109 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 64-inch fabric.

The farmer turned and looked over his shoulder. Then he said, coolly, "Eumpli! That accounts for the splash!"

IN PETIC MOOD The Army recently received a raw recruit of education and culture. On his first day at camp he was utterly exhausted. After several hours of drilling, "At ease," finally ordered the officer.

"How wonderful is death," muttered the recruit. "The officer turned like a flash. 'Who said that?' he demanded. 'The culprit smiled wily and replied: 'Shelley, I believe, sir.'"

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.

DEAR MISS DIX: Mother can explain why people give big parties to the boys who are about to enter the army, and then, when they go to the railroad station to see them off, they weep over them and the mothers, wives and girl friends have to be forcibly removed and have their arms pried from around the boys' necks as the train starts?

I sent a boy, one of the finest, to the war, and another one is going soon, but I sent him out remembering me as smiling. I cried plenty when I got home, but I didn't do it where he could see. So I say, why don't you give our boys, when they are leaving, a pleasant picture to remember and save the big parties until the stars and stripes fly all over the world?

ANSWER: Right you are, Mother. It is the women like you, who send their sons away to do their duty with a smile and a cheery word, who have reared the lads who are the heroes on every battle front today. And don't think the boys, whose mothers' courage bucks up their own and makes it easier for them to do their duty, do not know what Mother is suffering. They know that her very soul is torn with anguish and her heart overflowing with tears that she will not shed where they can see, but they think that if Mother can take it they can. And they do.