IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM EASTER

On October 4th the remarkably long life of Mrs. Wm. Easter came to its close. Ninety-two years were given her to live, until the last year it was a record of steady good health and vigor.

About a year ago Mrs. Easter unfortunately fell and broke her hip, which resulted in her confinement to bed until death kindly released her from suffering.

Almost all her life Mrs. Easter had been a devoted member of the former Methodist Church at North Wiltshire. She simply revelled in the privileges and duties of her church life. Of her it could truly be said, "I love the courts of the Lord's house," her religion made her so happy, kindly, helpful. Rarley indeed did she miss a service and her home was a home for the ministers for many years.

She became the wife of Wm. Easter in the year 1859 and happily they lived together until death took her partner in 1914.

As a mother she excelled, for in loving labour, wise guidance and noble example she gave herself as only a Christian mother can.

Of her family there now remain: S. S. Easter, Eckville, Alberta; W. H. Easter, St. Vincent, Minnesota; F. F. Easter, Davidson, Sask.; E. N. Easter, North Wiltshire, P. E. I.; Mrs. Charles Rogerson, Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. Edward Skaling, Whitmere, Mass.; Mrs. John Dupee, Medford, Mass.; Mrs. Harry Rogerson, Whitman, Mass.

The largely attended funeral service was held in North Wiltshire Church on October 6th, conducted by Rev. C. N. Brown of Charlottetown, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. Boothroyd. The pall bearers were nephews of the deceased: John Howard, Chester Howard, Lloyd Howard, Charles McDuff, Robert Duncan and William Boisner.

Interment was made in North Wiltshire Cemetery.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN PENNSYLVANIA

An official bulletin of the Department of Labor and Industry of the State of Pennsylvania estimates the totally unemployed in Pennsylvania in May, 1932, at 1,131,930, being 30.4 per cent of the number of gainful workers in the State, as shown by the census of April, 1930. Since the population of Pennsylvania at the census of 1930 was about 7 per cent less than that of Canada at the census of 1931, it is seen that the unemployment situation is very much worse in Pennsylvania than in Canada.

—WEDDING BELLS—One of the most interesting events of the season was the marriage on November 8th at Indian River Church of Miss Annie Murphy, of Clermont, to Mr. Neil J. McLellan, of Grand River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. F. McDonald, the Nuptial Mass played by Mrs. Hubert Gillis and sung by Mr. Frank Murphy. The bride, attended by her sister, Miss Lauretta Murphy, was beautifully gowned in beige lace over satin. The groomsman was Mr. John Gillis, cousin of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was an exquisite necklace of pearls and brilliants to the bridesmaid, a gold necklace, and to the groomsman, gold cuff links. After the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Murphy, to the immediate relatives, among whom were, Rev. R. F. McDonald, of Indian River and Rev. W. V. McDonald, of Hope River. With heartiest congratulations from all present, Mr. and Mrs. McLellan left for a motor trip to Halifax and other Maritime points, and on their return, will make their home in Grand River.

THE YEARLING SALE AT N.Y.

Two hundred and thirty yearlings have been coisigned to the New York sale which will be held Thanksgiving Day week by Walnut Hall, Calumet, Hanover, Village, and Breezely Farms. The Breezely group includes the first offering by that good race horse Full Worthy and a bunch by The Laurel Hall whose get started off with a rush in 1929 when Walter Dear had almost everything his own way in the futurities.

All but one of the Village Farm lot are by Signal Peter and Abbedale, now the outstanding sire of early and extreme speed at the pace. This year he led all others with 2:10 performers, two or three of them being of the two minute variety.

The Hanover lot contains youngsters by Dillon Axworthy, Guy McKinney, Sandy Flash, Peter Volo, The Laurel Hall and Belwin out of performers or speed producers. During the past season Dillon Axworthy resumed his place in the front rank of sires of early and extreme speed, his new two minute performer Zombro Hanover being the leading money wnning pacer of the year. Guy McKinney was credited with the winner of the Reading Futurity after a record breaking race for three year old trotters and Sandy Flash showed that he is passing on the wininng habit of the Bertha family to his get.

In 1932 the Calumet Farm products were in the money from the mile rink meetings to the bushes. At present Peter the Brewer is recognized as the leader among the younger sons of Peter the Great. Those who have seen his yearlings led at Lexington consider the fillies out of Luella Princeton and Ophelia as the best. Truax also has a pair that stand out. One is a filly out of Sumatra and the other a colt out of Justissima, the two best mares at Calumet Farm. They have had winners each year since their get apeared on the turf.

There is also a trio by Belwin out of May W., Silky Worthy, and Mrs. Harvester that have trotted fast in lead work. Calumet Eager is one that will have a number of visitors. She is out of Dellcisco, the dam of the new two year old champion half-mile track trotter Calumet Deco 2:07 3-4.

There are eighteen tops among the hundred yearlings at the Walnut Hall Farm. That will not make them the best when it comes to racing; still it helps the bidder when he is looking for racing material of the type of Protector or Quite Sure.

The Volomite filly Princess Peg is one of the leaders and she has a right to be as she is out of the dam of Protector and Marchioness. Postmaster by the same sire out of Denesia 2:05, sister to Rochelle Maid 2:04 1-4 and Sakura 2:05 1-2 which raced for so many years in he colors of the late John Dillon, is also in this group. This pair are among the first yearlings by Volomite and on his showing as a race horse everybody will be pulling for them when the bell rings.

The last crop by Guy Axworthy include Pilgrim, a brother to Guy Fletcher and Invader, the Flavia, a sister to Guy Day, Mutchmore and the two year old filly Dorothy which won a number of races in Ohio this year. San Francisco is represented by a brother to Fireglow and a filly out of Etta Volo 2:04 1-2, a sister to Peter Maltby 2:06, a two year old star in his day.

Silver Fox Trims Beautiful Coal

PARIS, Nov. 17—It is cold enough today to devote this discussion entirely to fur, the thicker and fluffier the better. Let's start then, with silver fox, applied to a winter coat in the Revillon manner.

This well known Parisian furrier starts off with a black cloth coat, moulds it neatly to the figure, omitting a belt of any kind and placing the button that fastens it rather high on the left side, giving it an Empire suggestion. The sleeves are straight and narrow. The collar is the focal point, which is why the rest of the coat is so utterly and completely simple. The shape of it is pelerine—capish—with wide bands of fox bordering in both at the neck and all the way around the lower edge. The fur meets in a point in front, the upper and lower hems meeting. Of course, this part of the coat is removable and may be worn over the smart black frock underneath. The frock is a heavy silk with a diagonal satin stripe through it, and is trimmed with real crystal buttons that have one "pie-piece" section of brilliant jet.
