The Best Plumbing is the Cheapest in the End

Amateur plumbing will have few charms for you after you have once indulged in it—what you save at first you'll lose afterwards—lose your temper too.

Why not have our sanitary plumbing system installed in the first place, the first cost should be the last cost, and that very moderate, considering the high quality of our work.

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

—IT PAYS to buy in this Province.
—MORE SICKNESS.—Mr K. F. Waite, Wilmot, was a visitor to Summerside on Wednesday.—H.

—MR. E. P. FOLEY Guardian representative in Alberton will gladly receive subscriptions and advertising matter.

—FLOUR RISING.—Since the price of flour began to advance a number of Summerside citizens are stocking up with a supply to last from six to twelve months.—H.

—SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discontinued promptly on expiry date.

—HORSE NOTES.—Mr Joseph M. Gallant, Abram's Village, recently sold a nice young mare, coming three, to Mr Fidele J. Arsenault, of same place, for which he received a liberal sum.—M.

—MORE SICKNESS.—It was thought that diphtheria was completely routed out of Summerside, but another case was reported on Wednesday. The Board of Health promptly had the house quarantined.—H.

—HAY PRESSING.—The hay press in charge of Mr Sylvain Arsenault, of St. Gilbert's, has been hauled to Philibert Arsenault's and thence to Maxim's Ville. Mr Arsenault has been kept busy since he began, having pressed in the vicinity of 500 tons.—M.

—DEBATING.—The Urban Ville Debating Club held their first meeting on Friday, 8th inst. The attendance was large and no doubt the members this winter. It was decided to hold meetings every fortnight on Friday evening. Mr James Leclere was chosen president and Mr Ceofride Arsenault secretary.—M.

—TELEPHONE LINE.—A telephone communication has been established at Abram's Village, extending from S. E. Gallant's store to Stephen M. Arsenault. The route will be extended no doubt in the near future, and connections made. It is understood several boxes will be taken up if terms are satisfactory.—M.

—BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.—The 11th inst. was the birthday of Mrs Otave Gallant, Abram's Village, and of Mrs Eli E. Arsenault, Urban Ville, her sister, who is four years younger. Both ladies, who are 81 years and 77 years of age, assisted at Mass in the morning, and then, accompanied to the home of the elder, where a sumptuous breakfast awaited them. The day was spent in due celebration of the great anniversary, on whose annual return the aged sisters always returned thanks together.—M.

—DIED AT NORBORO.—The death took place at Norboro, Lot 25, on the 8th inst., of Mr Michael Lawless, in the 86th year of his age. Deceased was the last surviving son of the late Capt. Thomas Lawless, of New London, who was well known in shipping circles half-a-century ago. He leaves a large family in the U.S., with the exception of one son and a daughter. The funeral took place on the 10th inst., at St James' Church and cemetery, Freetown, Rev. Mr. Gillis officiating.

—SAD ACCIDENT.—A very sad accident occurred at the home of Mr. McDonald Gordon, Montrose on Tuesday 12th inst., in which his son Fulton lost an arm. He, with some neighbors was engaged in cutting wood in the yard with a circular saw run by gas-turbines, and a little further back in the line power when in some unaccountable way his hand came into contact with the balance wheel of the saw. In an instant the whole hand and arm was drawn in past the elbow mangle the flesh in several places. Mr. Gordon showed marvellous pluck in extricating himself, walking through the yard and waiting patiently for nearly two hours till the Drs. came. The arm was amputated a few inches from the shoulder and Mr. Gordon is doing as well as can be expected. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Gordon in his great loss, as well as for his wife and aged father.

—HELPFUL MEETING.—On Monday night Jan. 11th, there took place in Mont Carmel Hall one of the most interesting Club Meetings of the season. The Hall was well filled with the most interested farmers of the vicinity eager to tell of his losses and gains, to impart a knowledge of his experience and to receive at the same time results of tests made by his neighbor in the Agricultural field. The first question that underwent due treatment was dairying with its two branches butter and cheese making, and was treated in the form of a debate, however without ascertaining the number of debaters who were for or against the one or the other of the topics. The speakers were Messrs Marcise Gallant, Joseph J. Richard, John Gallant, Andrew J. Arsenault, Joseph V. Arsenault, Phillip Poirier, Stanislas Gallant and Joseph H. Arsenault. There was also another subject partly treated:—The way of feeding hogs and cattle and the question arose: What was the most profitable for a farmer to feed for market a pig or an ox. Excellent ideas were given on both sides without however, coming to any definite conclusion as to the advantages of either sides. At nine o'clock the meeting adjourned.—R.

—MR. J. F. WAITE, Wilmot, was a visitor to Summerside on Wednesday.—H.

—MR. JOHN F. ARSENAULT, Urban Ville, went to Charlottetown to attend the long agricultural course.—M.

—MUCH SYMPATHY is felt with Mr. Pope McMahon who, while driving in the vicinity of Kensington on Sunday last, met with a severe accident.

—MR. VERNON LYNDS, Kensington, (athletic coach) informed the writer that he expects to have a much better hockey team than in previous years.

—MR. JAMES LYNDS, proprietress of the Brunswick House, Kensington, was visiting in Summerside recently, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault.

—MR. AND MRS. PLACIDE GALLANT, of Cape Egmont, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome M. Arsenault of Mont Carmel recently.—R.

—MR. JOSEPH LECLERE, of Summerside, was a visitor in Abram's Village last week, the guest of Mr Edilbert Poirier.—M.
