

THE CHIEF CHARM OF LOVELY WOMAN

Soft, Clear, Smooth Skin Comes With The Use Of "FRUIT-A-LIVES".

NORAH WATSON, 86 Drayton Ave., Toronto, Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin, glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disfiguring Rash, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using "Fruit-a-lives" for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without "Fruit-a-lives".

A SPLENDID GIFT.—Mr. James D. Lawson, an elder in Zion church, Charlottetown (P. E. I.), has recently made a gift of $1,000 to the work of the Trinidad mission. The money will be used towards the erection of a new chapel in connection with Naparima College, San Fernando, Trinidad, known as the "James D. Lawson Memorial Church."

GONE OVERSEAS.—Another Brackley Point boy, Hugh John McLure, left with the 104th reinforcements, to do his bit for his king and country. His many friends wish him a God-speed return and hope to welcome him back when this cruel war is over. All honour to those boys who are lending a hand in this world's greatest conflict.—Com.

CONCERNING PRODUCE.—Profiting by the example set by the town Council of North Sydney, the civic rulers in Halifax have amended their charter by eliminating from the bye laws the clause which entails a charge upon owners of vessels who bring produce from P. E. Island and sell same at the wharves. While the change may not mean with the approval of some merchants, it will prove a great benefit to the ordinary produce-holder, who will get the benefit of the middleman's profits.—North Sydney Herald. North Sydney and Halifax are but following the example of Pictou. We always had sense enough here to see that putting a tax on vessels carrying produce from the island was simply putting a tax on ourselves. In taxes of this kind it is the consumer who always pays the shot.

THE BEAVERS AT 48 ROAD.—The site of the beaver colony at 48 Road is well worth visiting at the present time, as the work of the animals during the past season can now be plainly seen. The beavers have evidently abandoned their winter home, a large conical house built of sticks and twigs, covered with mud and sods, and measuring seven feet in height from the centre of the base to the open, and have betaken themselves to their summer haunts. The entrance to the house which is under water faces the left bank of the stream, and is carefully covered over with a network of twigs, the bed of the stream being here artificially deepened by the beavers to give free access to their dwelling. The main dam, which is built about thirty yards from the road, formed of large sticks, sods, stones, and mud, must be at least sixty feet in length from end to end, and its width at the top is such that two men can easily cross it walking abreast. The engineering skill of the beavers is shown in the fact that when the current is strongest the dam is built straight across the stream, but is semi-circular in form, with the convexity up the stream in order to resist the force of the current. The second dam is much less elaborately built and zig zags across the stream, taking advantage of natural aids, such as clumps of alders, stumps, etc. Many large trees, chiefly poplar, some of which are four inches in diameter have been cut down by the beavers presumably for the sake of their chief food, and several of them have been cut into short lengths, evidently for use in the dams. The banks of the stream in several places have been stripped of the soil, and many tunnels are to be seen showing where the beavers obtained the sand and clay used in their work. All of which goes to show that the national animal of Canada is no "slacker" and whatsoever he findeth to do he doeth with his might.

LARGE CATTLE SHIPMENTS.—This has been a great week for Victoria, the little village by the sea on Wednesday, last. Mr. E. T. Saunders, representing the firm of Messrs Saunders, Newsome & Co., of Charlottetown, arrived, and very soon cattle commenced to pour in with the expectation that the S. S. Harland would make her regular trip of Thursday morning. Towards the close of Wednesday Mr. Frank L. Drake another cattle buyer and representing The Island Cold Storage Co., also of Charlottetown, put in an appearance with fifty-eight head of cattle for his people making in all over one hundred head of cattle waiting for shipment to the metropolis of the province. This was a sight not very often seen on this section of the Island and in all waiting for a steamer. The recent accident to the "Harland" made it necessary that the cattle be held here until Friday evening, when the "Harland" arrived, and have the shipment made and a return trip taking the balance on Friday. It has been said by men of years' experience that this was the finest lot of cattle ever moved on P. E. Island. The amount of money paid out by the two buyers represented a little over twelve thousand dollars, while the residents were all very sorry that Mr. Saunders and Mr. Drake had to remain over so long in their little village, their loss was in a great measure Victoria's gain. Mr. Saunders possesses a magnificent tenor voice and spent much of his leisure time while waiting for the "Harland" at the home of Mr. Abner Howlatt, whose wife is an accomplished musician, and who accompanied Mr. Saunders in his vocal selections. At times the street opposite the Howlatt home was crowded with listeners and each selection by the gifted singer brought rounds of applause. Mr. Drake was very agreeable, and left quite an impression on the people. The popular merchant, Mr. Calvin Howlatt did the weighing of the cattle to the satisfaction of both parties which was no small job. The residents will look forward with much pleasure to the coming again to Victoria of these two representative meat buyers who made the farmers happy and proved themselves gentlemen of the highest order in their square dealings.

O. O. F. and A. F. and A. M.

LARGE FUNERAL.—One of the most impressive funerals seen in Charlottetown for some time was that of the late Mr. Ernest J. Toombs on Saturday afternoon. The coffin placed upon a salvage corps wagon, beautifully decorated with wreaths and flowers and appropriate drapery, was drawn by the firemen in uniform, deceased being an esteemed member of the Fire Department. The pall bearers were Messrs Frank Hennessey, Reginald McMillan, Fred Large, Angus McEachern, Wallace Scantlebury and Ernest McTague. Rev. E. G. Fulton and Rev. F. H. Littlejohns conducted the services. Quite a large number of citizens attended the funeral.

A well-known and respected resident of Charlottetown has passed away in the person of Mr. George J. Smith, himself, after an illness of several months. Notwithstanding all that loving hands and tender care could do, it was found that the manly which had gained such hold on his constitution could not be subdued, and he gradually grew weaker, until Saturday night when his spirit passed to the Great Beyond. There are left to mourn three sons, Frank, in England, who holds an important position in the Royal Naval; Russell, serving his country in France, and Horace, in the United States; also four daughters. The funeral takes place at 9.30 o'clock this morning from his late residence, Boston Street to St. Peter's Cemetery. The pall bearers are Messrs J. P. Nicholson, Sammie Lowe, John McLeod, W. L. Cotton, John Dalziel, John T. Crockett.

On Sunday, May 20th, the people of Wellington were shocked to hear the sad news of the death of Mr. Patrick Walsh an old and respected resident of that place after an illness of only a few hours, being in his usual spirits the previous night. Deceased was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland and came to this country with his parents in the year 1842, settling in Wellington. He married Julia A. McLeod of Indian River who predeceased him fifteen years ago. Mr. Walsh was of a jovial disposition and will be greatly missed by his many friends in Wellington where he carried on farming for a number of years living on the old homestead with his daughter where his death took place at the ripe age of 81. The Pastor Rev. John A. Macdonald administered to him the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was always a consistent member. He leaves to mourn five sons and two daughters, Edward, John and David of Brockton, Mass; Patrick with the Colors in England and Leo in New York; Mrs. George Eldridge of Brockton and Mrs. Joseph E. MacNeill on the old homestead also one sister Elizabeth Walsh of Summerside. The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 23rd to the church of the Immaculate Conception where Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. McDonald, after which his remains were conveyed to their last resting place followed by a large concourse of friends and laid beside those of his wife, there to await the Resurrection morn. The pall bearers were Messrs Colin McDonald; Frank Barry, Alphonse O'Connell, David Cameron, Anthony Penbrooke and John D. Cameron. May he rest in peace.—X.

WELL MERITED PROMOTION.—The friends of Mr. Malcolm Matheson, who is well known in Prince County, and who has served on the P. E. I. Ry., for a number of years, as section foreman at North Wiltshire, will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted to the position of trackmaster for the eastern and southern division of the P. E. I. Railway, succeeding Mr. Benjamin McEachern of Hopefield, who has retired after spending two score years of faithful service. H.

Mrs. A. G. Lewis, Cardigan Bridge, has received word that her brother, Pte. P. J. McCormack, who enlisted with the 158th Battalion, "Duke of Connaught's Own," in Vancouver, B. C., was wounded in the leg with shrapnel, on May 7th, and admitted to the 4th Hospital, England. He has been in the trenches since Dec. and was through the battle of Vimy Ridge, where he had the experience of being knocked down many times by shell explosions, without being wounded. Pte. McCormack is the youngest son of the late Mr. John McCormack, who was Customs Officer at Cardigan for many years.

Three passed away at Millville, P. E. Island, on Sabbath, May 27th, 1915, Richard Muttlow, an aged and respected citizen, deceased was in his eighty fifth year and for some time had been laid aside from the active duties of life. He leaves one son, Thomas, of Millville, and two daughters, Lucy at home and Mrs. James Llewelling, of Gasperaux, P. E. Island. One sister, Easter, also survives him. Mr. Muttlow was brought to a knowledge of his Saviour in early life under the ministry of the late Rev. Donald McDonald, and was ordained an elder in the Church of Scotland. The funeral took place on Tuesday, 29th. Rev. Ewen McDougall conducted the services. A large number of people followed the remains to Birch Hill cemetery, where interment was made.

The following letters from Red Cross information bureau and the hospital chaplain were received by Mrs. Brenton M. Horne, 56th Canadian Infantry, slightly improved awaiting operation. Will send further information when received. Officer, I. C. Records. May 2 1915. Dear Mrs. Horne.—I beg to inform you that Corp. Brenton M. Horne, 56th Canadian Infantry, was seen May 1st. Our visitor reports she found him very restless and complaining of queer sensations and aches in his right arm. His wounds are healing. The cause of the feelings he has may be caused by that, I hope to tell you next time that he is easier. Everything that can be done to make him feel better and happier is being done. I will report all news I get. Yours Truly, CONSTANCE SCOTT

Patrick Murphy died at his home in Kensington on May 25th, at the advanced age of 98 years. Mr. Murphy had been in failing health for some time, but he sustained the burden of disease with heroic fortitude and merited up his life in true Christian sacrifice. He was attended in his closing hours by his pastor, Rev. M. G. Gillis, who administered the last sacraments of the Catholic church, and prepared his soul to meet the Eternal Judge. Mr. Murphy lived a useful, industrious life, performing his part as best he knew in his endeavour to do the will of God. He leaves many friends who will cherish his memory. His wife, nee Agnes Whelan, predeceased him some years ago. The surviving members of the family are: Mrs. Daniel Goodwin and Mrs. Thomas Dunphy, Kensington; Mrs. Agnes McDonald, Amherst, N. S.; and John Murphy, Glendale. The funeral was held on May 27th to the St. Mary's Church, Indian River; and was representation of the many friends that Mr. Murphy had in his native province. The good that men do lives after them.—Com.

WEDNESDAY. SUCCESSFUL ISLANDERS AT MILLVILLE.—The posted reports of the second year medical examination at McGill, G. R. Brown, son of Mr. E. R. Brown, Charlottetown, takes honours in Pharmacy, Histology and Organic Chemistry. He passed in all subjects, J. A. McDougall, of P. E. Island and O. C. Trainor, Charlottetown, passed in all subjects, the latter with honours in Pharmacy.

ISLANDER WINS D. S. O.—In the Canadian Military Gazette, of May 8th among the appointments, promotions, retirements, and confirmations of rank the name of Lieut. James Parker Hooper, of Charlottetown, appears under the heading "Awarded the Distinguished Service Order." The D. S. O. is a distinction next in rank to the Victoria Cross, which even in a war of such colossal dimensions as the present has been won by comparatively few. Lieutenant Hooper is certainly to be congratulated on the distinction he has won for himself and his province.

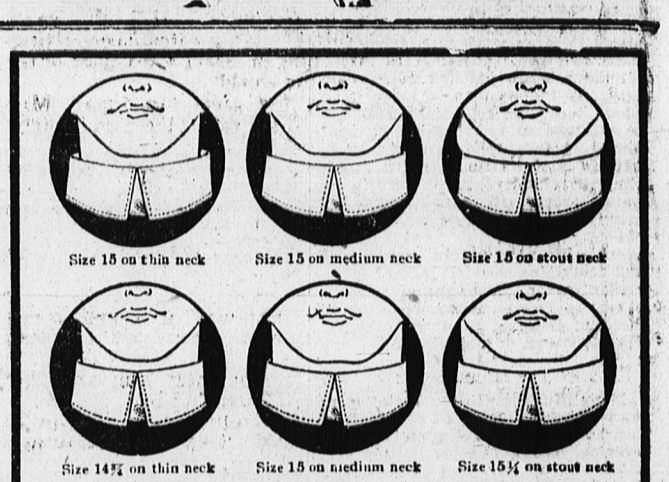

WEDDING BELLS.—At the home of Joseph White, Beach Point, P. E. I., on the 31st ult., their youngest daughter, Daisy, was united in marriage to Fletcher John Jordan, son of Mr. Luther Jordan, of the same place. Both young people are very popular in their home community, the bride having been the organist of the Baptist Church; also active in Sabbath School and church work. The groom graduated from Rochester Theological Seminary at its closing this year, and goes to the State of Nebraska, where he has accepted a Baptist pastorate. The immediate friends and relatives were invited to the wedding ceremony being performed by Rev. W. E. Carpenter, the ring service being used.

The South King's Teachers' Association held its second meeting in the hall of Murray River on Friday, June 1st. The meeting opened at 2 o'clock. The President, Principal Shaw, presided, and A. L. McLean acted as secretary pro tem. A large number of school children from Murray River and adjoining districts occupied one side of the hall. In his opening remarks Mr. Shaw referred to the plan of holding three meetings instead of one; for the successful meeting at Souris; and to the one to be held at Montague on Friday next; to the death of the Teachers' Magazine and to the effect of the present war on our schools.

Professor McLarty of P. W. C. spoke at considerable length on Rural Science work. He interrogated the children and teachers and although somewhat hesitant on the new subject some clever answers were elicited, and some strong truths driven home by the speaker. Rural science is not the "awful stuff" some people imagine. It is but an inkling of what is going on in nature's world, all around us, and we blissfully unconscious. Teachers and pupils should learn to observe, reason and express. Rural Science lifts up the farm life to a higher plane. Inspector Adams asked the teachers about the number of bushels of potatoes shipped from this province this spring. Nothing doing, answer, 200,000 bushels. Mr. Landrigan is a great supporter of libraries for our schools and has a large number of books for inspection. He can tell just the kind of book will suit your pupils and also how to use them. Mr. Bolger does not favor the multiplicity of story books in the school room. Inspector Adams suggested that this association be named the Southern Branch of the Eastern Teachers' Association, and that the members be on its executive. He encouraged the reading of books to a certain extent, the teachers to take responsibility of the pupils, visit homes, advise and encourage pupils and parents. Mr. Cair also favored the library project.

Vacations were the subject of some comment, and were wisely left to the decision of this annual meeting. The following are the officers appointed: President, Amie G. Smith, Vice President, P. J. Bolger, Secy-Treas., W. L. McLean, Christine McPherson, Ethel Johnston. The evening session opened at 9 p. m., and was largely attended. Robert Whitney, Jr., in the chair, made an eloquent tribute to our educationists. The address of Dr. Robertson, re-education, was a treat, as well as was also that of Judge Fitzgerald on National Service, and Prof. McLarty on Rural Science. Rev. A. Sutherland in the absence of H. M. McKinnon spoke briefly on Education and the Church. The bagpipe and violin selections by the Messrs Stewart, were excellent (encored). Miss Arlette Adams' recitation, "Lest We Forget" was superb; and Miss Annie Lemon's solo, "Bonnie Prince Charlie," took the audience to a finish, and was encored. Votes of thanks were tendered the S. King's Association, and the citizens of Murray River for this good cheer. The meetings closed by singing the National Anthem. W. L. McLEAN, Secy, Pro-Tem.
