OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

LAID TO REST—On Wednesday morning, July 28, 1937, a large concourse of friends and relatives followed the remains of the late James Tierney of New Haven, to their last resting place in St. Ann's cemetery Lot 65. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. George Bradley, S. J., who also performed the services at the grave.

TROUBLE IN PLANT—Slight trouble in the plant of the Maritime Electric last night left sections of the city in darkness for a short time shortly before 11 o'clock last night. Employees were prompt in making adjustments and most lights were on in a few minutes. The Prince Street circuit was out for the greatest length of time, for about 15 minutes.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE—While painting Mr. C. H. Chandler's house on Saturday, Mr. Harry Harley had a narrow escape when the ladder slipped on which he was working near the roof of the building. Mr. Harley fell a distance of about thirty-five feet, landing on top of a bush near the front door-step which effectively broke his fall. Except for a bad shaking up, he was uninjured.

LAID TO REST—The funeral of Regina Haughey was held from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Howard Molyneaux, Friday morning to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. H. I. Fleming, C. SS. R. The pall bearers were six nephews of deceased, namely: Elmer McKenna, Leonard McKenna, Leo Molyneaux, James Molyneaux, Morris Molyneaux, Jerome Haughey. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father Moreau, C. SS. R.

RETURNS HOME — The Rev. J. S. Sherren, rector of St. George's Falmouth, N.S., and his wife, who have been spending their vacation with the formers relatives in Crapaud and Charlottetown returned today accompanied by his mother who will be the welcome guest of the Rev. J. McMann and his mother at the Rectory, Misquash, N.B. Before returning home she intends spending some time with her son at the Rectory in Falmouth, N.S. Her many friends wish her a pleasant visit and safe return.

WARN MOTORISTS — Mounted Police warned about 100 motorists Saturday on the Malpeque Road against driving too fast past men engaged in repair work on the road The highway traffic act, Inspector Fripps pointed out, states that motor vehicles are not to exceed 15 miles per hour when passing men at work repairing or maintaining a road. Motorists on the Malpeque Road were passing men at work at speeds upwards of fifty miles per hour, Police said. Such speeds constituted a grave danger to men at work.

There passed peacefully away at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal on June 19, 1937, after a short illness Marcella Winnifred Curley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curley, Elmwood, Lot 65, at the youthful age of ninteen.

She will be much missed by all her friends but especially by her dear ones at home to whom there is nothing left but tender memories of her amiable and loving character and the hope of reunion in Heaven.

Besides her parents, she leaves two sisters Mary and Annie and one brother, Amos at home, all of whom are most grateful for the Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets and kindly sympathy offered by those who helped to make their bereavement easied to bear.

The funeral was held June 22nd, to St. Annes Church Lot 5, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Reverend L. Herrell who ment easier to bear.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Cyril Eagan; Linus McQuillan; Emmett McCloskey; Jimmie Berrigan; Maurice McQuaid and Joe McQuaid.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION—A. V. Ainsworth and A. L. MacPherson, delegates to the District Rotary Convention at St. Stephens, N. B., that included the Maritimes and part of Maine, have returned to Charlottetown from the mainland.

ON VISIT TO CHARLOTTETOWN—Mrs. H. A. Coleman, Norma and Margaret Coleman, Ohio, accompanied by Mrs. L. H. Deacon, Saskatchewan, motored to Charlottetown coming through the New England States, and by way of Toronto and Montreal, they are the guests of Mrs. Harding Dewar for a month.

MARRIAGE POSTPONED—The marriage of Miss Helen Mellish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mellish, Montague to Mr. Sinclair McCann, Halifax, recently announced to take place on Aug. 3rd, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the illness of Mr. McCann who has entered a hospital in the above city for a very urgent operation.

WELCOME VISITORS—Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Christopher arrived in Charlottetown Saturday night, and are receiving the welcome of their many friends. The Doctor never fails to be present at the Provincial Exhibition, as he takes a keen interest in harness racing, for he says "he has seldom witnessed keener competition" than in Charlottetown. We wish them a very pleasant vacation.

ARRESTED ON BREAKING AND ENTERING CHARGE — A local man was placed under arrest and will appear in court today on a charge of breaking and entering and theft Chief of Police Birtwistle said last night. Police said the arrest had been made in connection with a break at McDonald and Rowe's paint shop. Entrance was gained by removing a pane of glass from a window. The break was made early yesterday afternoon. A man, whose name police did not divulge, informed them that someone had entered the shop, Chief Birtwistle said, and Constable B. McEachern made the arrest. Several cans of paint and varnish had been taken.

TUESDAY

BARN DESTROYED—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a large barn owned by Mr. Frank Weeks, Fredericton last night. The blaze was discovered about 10.30. Neighbors quickly gathered and prevented flames spreading to other buildings. The season's hay crop was in the destroyed building. No estimate of the amount of loss could be secured last night. It is not known whether there was any insurance.

CAR AT STANDSTILL—Mr. E. Corish, Southport, driver of the car when four-year-old Ulric Dawson, Jr., was injured on Grafton Street last week stated yesterday that his car was practically at a standstill when the child was injured. The boy ran into the car, the driver stated.

A very successful Achievement Day was held at Woodvale School on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 28th.

Ten girls who had completed the work prescribed for the year, attended the Achievement Day Exercises and joined in the competition of making a patch.

The work judged was all of a high standard and proved the interest taken on the part of both pupils and leader. Much credit is due Miss Leone Mosher, a former Club member, for the enthusiastic leadership given this Club.

After judging the work Miss Haszard, of the Women's Institute Department, presented the certificates and commented on the splendid work accomplished.

Following the presentation of certificates each sucessful member was awarded a money prize by Miss Mosher. At the close of the meeting ice cream and cake ware served to members and visitors present.

Following are the names of the girls in order of merit:

Seniors: Gladys Vincent, Doris Profit, Eleanor Profit, Edna Trainor, Elizabeth Currie.

Juniors: Hilda Currie, Patricia Profit, Eleanor Trainor, Frances Trainor, Gerda Currie.

Tragedy struck at Stanhope Beach yesterday when Shirley Hooper, 10, and Rosalie Hooper, 8, daughters of Lt.-Col. J. Parker Hooper and Mrs. Hooper, Charlottetown, were drowned while surf bathing on Stanhope Beach. Dr. I. J. Yeo, who was at Stanhope Beach Inn nearby, used all means of resuscitation at his command for almost an hour before he pronounced life extinct. A third child, Verna Vail, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vail, Charlottetown, and playmate of the two little victims was rescued from a probable similar fate by Mr. Randolph Carruthers and Miss Eleanor Cooke who observed the child was in difficulties as they went along the beach about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They took her from the water in an unconscious condition and carried her into the Stanhope Beach Inn where Dr. Yeo immediately took charge of her. She revived after about half an hour.

Lt. Col. Hooper, informed that the Vail child was taken from the water in an unconscious condition exclaimed that his two little daughters had been with her a short time before. He rushed immediately to the beach seeking his children and was joined in his frantic search by many other men and women. After a short time Miss Margaret McMillan of Charlottetown saw the body of Rosalie in about three feet of water. Shortly after the body of Shirley was recovered.

They were taken to the hotel where Dr. Yeo, assisted by Dr. Johnston of Boston and His Worship Mayor Turner of Charlottetown did everything in their power to revive them.

Dr. Yeo, in his capacity of coroner said an inquest was not necessary.

There were no eye witnesses to the accident and it is not known what happened. Otucries could not easily be heard above the sound of surf and wind.

Shirley and Rosalie had accompanied their father and two older sisters to the north shore beach yesterday. Mrs. Hooper and son Temple are in North Sydney. They are expected to arrive home tonight.

The deep sympathy of the whole Province goes to Lt. Col. and Mrs. Hooper in their great bereavement.

Verna Vail, recovering from the effects of her harrowing experience remained at Stanhope Beach Inn last night.

RECOVERS FROM HARROWING EXPERIENCE—Verna Vail, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vail, Charlottetown, had almost completely recovered yesterday from the effects of near drowning at Stanhope Beach, Sunday. She was seen to be in difficulties and rescued by Miss Eleanor Cooke and Mr. Randolph Carruthers. Her two playmates, Shirley and Rosalie Hooper, were drowned.

GIRLS' CLUB ACHIEVEMENT DAY AT KNUTSFORD—The members of Knutsford Girls' Sewing Club met in the school at 9 a. m. on Wednesday, July 28th for Achievement Day Exercises. Six little girls who had successfully completed the year's work had their work displayed. Miss Haszard of the Women's Institute Department judged the work and congratulated the club members and leader Mrs. Wm. Dyment on the splendid work of the club. Following are the names of the girls in order of merit: 1 Loraine MacNeill, 2 Marguerite Woodside, 3 Glen MacNeill, 4 Evelyn Gay, 5 Jean MacNeill, 6 Lila Adams.

A committee to interview Provincial Exhibition officials with a view to making certain that poultry coops at the Provincial Fair grounds were thoroughly disinfected was appointed at the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Edward Island Poultry Association last night. Mr. Ira Douglas, secretary of the organization and Mr. Peter Coles were named members of the committee. Speakers at the meeting stressed the necessity of making sure there was not a repetition of the attack of roup which carried off a number of birds following last year's fair. Poultry men expressed belief that the disease spread from birds shown at the fair.

Plans for the organization's annual poultry show were discussed. The show was not held this year because of fear roup might spread in poultry flocks, officials said.

If proper precautions were taken that danger had passed, they believed, and plans are under way for a show next winter.

Announcement was made at the meeting that a printed set of association by-laws would be available at the next regular meeting. A drive for increased membership would be undertaken shortly it was decided.

The president, Mr. Albert Carr, presided.

Prince Edward Island was again subjected to a clear sky and warm weather yesterday after a brief over-night storm brought relief to a parched country-side.

An easterly gale that increased throughout the night swept over the Province Sunday breaking a three-weeks drought that had enabled farmers to take in their hay but had caused them anxious moments over their crops.

The strong wind that broke branches of trees and beat down small bushes throughout the Island caused some damage to craft in Charlottetown harbor.

Dr. A. B. Reid's open motorboat, a 27-foot craft with a five-foot beam, had suffered the worst damage, it was reported, having become a total wreck.

The craft was anchored at Rocky Point, in Charlottetown Harbor, when the storm struck and she broke loose, running up on the rocks 400 yards away.

Mr. Hal Burke's cabin cruiser "Restless" received damage to her right side at Pownal Wharf and Mr. Mack Irwin's "Roamer" had her rudder slightly damaged. George Nicholson's motorboat was stove in on the lee side, just above her waterline and other craft reporting slight damage included Mr. James Currie's boat and Mr. Norman Saunder's 40-foot schooner.

WEDNESDAY

ARRIVE FOR FUNERAL — Mrs. J. D. MacBeath of Moncton arrived in the city Monday and her sister, Mrs. Harry Cameron, of Montreal, arrived last night. They are sisters of Col. J. Parker Hooper and aunts of Shirley and Rosalie Hooper, victims of the deplorable drowning accident at Stanhope Beach last Sunday.

HOLIDAYING AT CAVENDISH.—Mr E. W. Spurr, Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, New Glasgow, N. S., and his sister, Mrs. J. T. Muir, Dundee, Scotland, have been holidaying at Cavendish for the past ten days and visiting many old friends on the Island. Mr. Spurr's daughter, Winnifred, and her friend Mary Doull, daughter of Hon. Justice John Doull of Halifax, arrived today via Pictou. They will be on the Instruction Staff of the C. G. I. T. Camp at Marshfield, being conducted by the Charlottetown Baptist Church.

BRILLIANT STUDENT — Winning second place on the Matriculation Pass List with a total of 648 and leading in English and Latin, is Alta Prowse, of Brackley School. Miss Prowse is only 13 years of age and has a brilliant record in her school work. Her many friends wish her success in her future educational career.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS — The monthly meeting of the Charlottetown School Board was held Monday. Sister Marie Doucette and Sister Roselle Arsenault of Rochford Square School resigned, Sister Hilda MacEachern and Sister Mary O. MacInnis were appointed in their places respectively. It was reported that the boilers in the four schools had been inspected and found satisfactory. It was decided to reopen the schools after vacation on Tuesday, September 7th. The use of the Assembly Hall in Queen Square School was granted to the Charlottetown Hospital for the Nurses' Graduation on September 1st.

VACATIONING ON THE ISLAND—Mr. and Mrs. F. Stanley Sellick, and family of Stratford, Conn., are vacationing during the month of August on the Island, the guests of Mr. Sellick's brother, E. W. Sellick of Brackley. Rev. Mr. Sellick is minister of the First Congregational Church of Stratford, Conn., one of the oldest churches in the State, organized in 1639. The second minister of the church was chairman of the committee of clergymen who organized Yale University. The third minister Dr. Timothy Cutler became President of Yale in 1719. Mr. Sellick is a graduate of Yale Divinity School and has been in Stratford 10 years. He is the church's 22nd minister.

BELFAST-BELLE RIVER—Rev. W. B. MacPhail, recently inducted into the congregation of Belfast-Belle River United Church, has made a fine impression. He is a native of York Point, P.E.I. On Sunday, July 18th, a special service was held in the United Church at Eldon, when a splendid sermon was delivered by the pastor. At this service the congregation had the pleasure of hearing the "Cherry Valley Quartette", Mrs. Weir, Mrs. Mutch, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. MacRae, with Mrs. Ballem as accompanist. The church was filled with worshippers who greatly appreciated and enjoyed the singing of the quartette. The people are grateful to them, and hope to hear again the popular quartette in the near future. "Will ye nae come back again" is the earnest wish of many.

BALLUM—YEO — A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized, at the Manse at Tyne Valley the Rev. Edwin White officiating, on Wednesday June 23rd at five o'clock, when Miss Beatrice Yeo, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Yeo of Harmony was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Berton Ballum, third son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ballum of Mount Pleasant. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Gladys Yeo, and the groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Clayton Ballum. The bride looked winsome attired in a blue suit with white accessories. After the marriage ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents. The dining room was daintly decorated in pink and white. A sumptuous wedding supper was served to upwards of four hundred guests The numerous and costly gifts goes to show the popularity of the young couple. The groom is an employee of the C. N. R. and will reside in Mount Pleasant. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and prosperous wedded life.

When Ray Keenan, popular proprietor of "Ray's" magazine and candy store on Grafton St., left town last Friday on his holidays, there were few who realized an impending marriage. The Guardian is now pleased to announce, however, the solemnization of a quiet but pretty wedding at the West End Baptist Church Manse, Preston St., Halifax, by Rev. Gordon S. Vincent, on Friday, July 30, when Miss Mabel Burdett, R. N., popular and pretty young nurse of this city and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burdett, Dundas, P. E. I., became the bride of R. C. Keenan, better known to his legion of friends throughout the Island, as "Ray." Mr. Keenan is the son of the late Roderick Keenan and Mrs. Keenan of Murray River.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a suit of lovely turquoise blue California beach cloth, becomingly trimmed with white accessories.

It is understood the couple will take up residence in Charlottetown immediately following a motor tour of the Maritime Provinces.

REGATTA TODAY — Three of six yachts that set out from Shediac, N. B., to compete in the regatta at Summerside yesterday arrived in the harbor last night. They were the Anne, Dawn and Dan Tatch. Four sailing boats from Summerside, two from Borden and one from Charlottetown will participate in the races.

THURSDAY

TENNIS PICNIC—Sixty club members and guests attended the annual picnic of the Holy Redeemer Tennis Club held at Seaside Inn, Stanhope, yesterday. Swimming and a softball game provided amusement during the afternoon. Following a delicious supper a dance was held. The outing was voted a complete success.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse in Kensington, by the Rev. George Somers, when Miss Edna Christine Paynter, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Paynter of Clinton, became the bride of Mr. Francis Ivan Paynter, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paynter of Long River. The bride looked very becoming in a dress of blue crepe with matching hat and accessories.

After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous supper was served to the relatives of both parties. The happy young couple will reside in Long River where Mr. Paynter is a prosperous farmer.

Previous to her marriage, the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents. She received many beautiful gifts testifying to the esteem in which the young bride was held by her many friends.

Funeral services for 10-year-old Shirley Hooper and her 8-year-old sister, Rosalie, victims of Sunday's tragic drowning accident at Stanhope Beach, were held yesterday afternoon.

The private service was held at their late residence with Rev. H. D. Raymond officiating, after which the remains were removed to St. Paul's Church for the public service at two o'clock which was conducted by Rev. H. D. Raymond, who also officiated at the grave. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

The pallbearers for Rosalie were Gordon Duffey, Clarence MacInnis, Gordon DeBlois, Arnold Callbeck, Norman Anderson and Jack MacBeth.

The pallbearers for Shirley were Stephen Reddin, James Campbell, Ira Stewart, Wilbur Andrew, Brent Hooper and Louis Smith.

The services were very largely attended and the large number of flowers sent testified to the sincere sympathy for the sorely bereaved family.

A summer wedding which attracted much interest in social circles took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, in Trinity United Church when Miss Dora Louise Mutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mutch, Charlottetown was united in marriage to Mr. James Ollis MacLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. MacLean of Stellarton, Nova Scotia. Reverend A. E. MacKenzie officiated.

The church was decorated with garden flowers and ferns. During the singing of the Register Miss Pearl Burns sang "Because".

The bride who was given in marriage by her father entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus and looked charming in a princess gown of white lace over taffeta and a tulle veil. She carried a large bouquet of briarcliff roses.

Miss Beryl Harding of St. John, bridesmaid was attired in a dress of fuschia chiffon with velvet trimmings and turban to match. Her bouquet consisted of sweet peas.

The groomsman was Mr. Donald Baker of Kensington. Mr. William McNeil and Mr. Wendall Worth of Charlottetown were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of orchid lace and corsage of sweet peas being the floral decorations, and a large leghorn hat.

The groom's mother was gowned in black and white chiffon, with white accessories.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at the home of the bride amidst beautiful garden flowers, after which the bride and groom left by car on a trip through the Maritime Provinces.

Mrs. MacLean's going away costume was a navy sharkskin suit with coral accessories.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. MacLean, Stellarton, Mrs. Gould of New York, Mr. and Mrs. R. McLeod, Sydney, Miss Ethel Malcolm, Pictou, N. S., Mr. W. D. Sweetwood, New York, Mr. A. McShane, New York, Mr. John Place, New York Miss Adele West, Winnipeg, Mrs. Annie Bryenton and her daughter, Freda, of Amherst.

Among the numerous lovely gifts the bride and groom received, was one from the Mount Allison Ladies College.

Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will reside in Stellarton where Mr. MacLean is Sales Manager of the Acadia Coal Co.

The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacLean much happiness in the future.

Burn a handsome clock. (Mr. and Mrs. Mahar were residents of Charlottetown until twelve years ago, when they moved to Roxbury, Mass. We wish them many happy wedding anniversaries).—Roxbury Citizen.

On June 17th, there passed away peacefully in the Charlottetown Hospital, a resident of Vernon in the person of Edward J. Fraser, at the age of sixty-three.

His death came as a great shock to his friends and neighbors of Vernon and the surrounding districts, for he had gone to the Hospital on Sunday, June 13th, and died on Thursday evening June 17, from a heart attack.

While in the Hospital he was quite conscious up to the hour of his death, and received the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

Mr. Fraser was not in good health for the past two years yet he was able to be around and took an interest in all things pertaining to life. He was a very intelligent man in many ways and had an exceptionally good memory.

There are left to survive: his wife, Mrs. Sadie Fraser; six sons, Russell, New York, Alan, of Boston, Mass., Harold, of Fort Augustus, Earl, Newman and Edison at home; two daughters, Mrs. Gerald McQuaid, of Vernon, and Mrs. Chas Murphy, of Vernon; also his step-mother, Mrs. Edward Fraser. There are also two brothers Judge A. L. Fraser, of Souris, and A. A. Fraser, Vernon; and one sister, Mrs. McIsaac, of New Jersey, U. S. A.

He was predeceased by one brother, Dr. A. J. Fraser, Montague and one sister, Mrs. Beauchman, Boston, Mass.

Although the weather was unfavorable his funeral was largely attended to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, on Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. D. McGuigan.

Pall bearers were: Mr. Milton Furness; Mr. Martin Redmond; Mr. Joseph Murphy; Mr. Wm Jenkins; Mr. A. Sullivan and Mr. Trueman Jenkins.

May his soul rest in peace.

The marriage of Violet Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson of Summerside to Mr. Ellis C. Reck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Reck of Watertown, Mass. was solemnized quietly on Wednesday, August 4th, at one-thirty p.m. in Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, the Rev. A. E. McKenzie officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Rosamond Richardson as maid of honor, and Miss Bea McNeill as bridesmaid. She wore a French model of white satin and lace made in princess style with long sleeves, with white picture hat and carried a bouquet of tea roses and maiden hair fern. The maid of honor wore a gown of pink chiffon over taffeta with a row of small pink buttons extending from neck to hemline in front of dress. The bridesmaid's dress was of white chiffon with colored embroidery over white taffeta. Both wore picture hats matching their frocks and carried arm bouquets of shaded sweet peas. Mrs. Richardson, mother of the bride, wore cream chiffon velvet en train with large white hat. Mrs. Reck, mother of the groom, wore a dress of nile green taffeta, with corsage bouquet of silver flowers and white Leghorn hat.

Mr. Anthony Williams of Charlottetown was best man for Mr. Reck. Mr. Stewart Williams was at the organ. During the signing of the register, a violin solo was played by Miss Doryse McNeill.

Following the wedding luncheon, which was held at the Canadian National Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Reck left on a motor trip through the Maritime Provinces, before taking up their residence in the United States, the bride traveling in a cream suit with topcoat, hat and accessories to match. Mrs. Reck is a graduate in Expression, of the Halifax Ladies College, Halifax.

MOTOR TRAFFIC INCREASES —Figures on the tourist traffic in Prince Edward Island were released by the traffic department of the Canadian National Railways yesterday, showing a total of 3,605 cars with licenses other than from this province crossed from Tormentine, N. B., to Borden, P. E. I., in May, June and July. The figures for the same three months last year reached only 3,350. The figures for Borden to Tormentine were also up, going from 2,923 last year to 3,129 for the past three months of 1937. In May and June there were 40 fewer cars this year, but July returned a gain over last year's figures of 245 cars. The Tormentine to Borden figures show a slight loss in May but a gain in June of 53 cars and in July of 215.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon in St. David's United Church, Georgetown, when Miss Marion Maida Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Douglas, Georgetown, was united in marriage to Mr. Rodney Bruce, son of Mr. John Bruce and the late Mrs. Bruce, Brooklyn, P. E. Island. Rev. John Stirling officiated.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was charmingly attired in parchment colored lace jacket dress, with Milan straw hat and shoes to match. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses.

Miss Jean Macdonald, cousin of the bride was bidesmaid. She wore a dress of green point d'esprit over taffeta, a large leghorn hat with green velvet streamers, white shoes and gloves. Her bouquet was of mixed flowers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of King's blue lace with matching accessories.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Willard Bruce of Brooklyn. Mr. Gordon Douglas, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ian Stirling, Georgetown, were the ushers.

The Guardian joins their many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce best wishes for much happiness.
