EDITOR COTTON, of the Charlotteown Examiner, was in town last week on his way to the Exhibition. Although he enjoyed the "climb to the top of the hill to see the New Academy, and enjoy the magnificent prospect upon which Pictou looks," he did not enjoy a four hour wait for the 3.15 train to start. Of Pictou he says;—"Pictou is beginning to look up. Its biscuits go further than ever; and the Nova Scotia Boot and Shoe Factory is flourishing under the able management of Mr. McKinnon. But hope and expectation are just now centered upon the smelting works to be erected at the eastern side of the town near the entrance of the harbour."—Pictou Standard.

On the morning of Sept. 27 Mr. William Stewart of Marsfield took suddenly ill. He was attending to the usual duties of the day but was feeling unwell. In the afternoon his condition became worse and at three o'clock Dr. Kelley was sent for and arrived shortly after. His illness was not considered critical until late in the evening when he became so bad that a messenger was again despatched for the doctor but when he arrived Mr Stewart's spirit had taken its departure. The funeral took place on Friday at 10 o'clock and was largely attended. Rev. G. P. Raymond and J. Layton officiated. The interment was made in Marsfield cemetery. A wife and six children are left to mourn a kind husband and affectionate father.

ABOUT two months ago a young man named George Foster, of Milton, about 22 years old, left the Island with the harvest excursion party for the North west. Shortly after he left his family lost trace of him, but thought he had arrived safely at his destination. However, not long ago a notice appeared in the Family Herald stating that a person whose name was thought to be Foster, but who could not tell where he came from, had been taken charge of by the asylum authorities in Montreal because of evidences of insanity. This notice was made known to his people and caused them much alarm. They surmised the person referred to was of their family. Accordingly a brother left for Montreal Tuesday to endeavor to identify the man.—EXAMINER.
