Bloggers Are Rounded Up For Double Murder

BRANTOWN, Ky., Aug. 5.—Members of an alleged bootlegging ring are being rounded up for their part in the double murder Monday morning of Rev. W. A. Moss, an evangelist, and Mrs. Jerome Johnson, a singer, during the progress of a revival service. Late yesterday three youths, alleged to be members of a group of moonshiners who feared and hated the revival activities, were jailed in Morgantown after being run down by a car which had scoured nearby ever since the shooting.

At the tennis courts this afternoon tea will be served by Miss Margaret Phillips, Miss D. Holman, Miss M. MacMillan. On Wednesday afternoon a great many visitors were entertained at the courts and on this pleasant occasion those serving were Miss Jessie Fullerton, Miss J. Tait, Miss M. Weeks, Mrs. A. W. Peterson, Miss Mary Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. MacDonald, 137 Upper Prince Street, have as their welcome guests Mr. Edgar Robertson, Miss Jean Robertson, Miss Laurie McAllister of Moncton, Miss Irene Ross of Montague and Mrs. Watson Logan of Boston.

Lieut. Col. Dr. S. R. Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins entertained at dinner on Monday evening for the four Montreal doctors who are here holding the Hospital Clinic and several other friends, at the lovely home on Brighton Road.

Mrs. F. P. Taylor is summering at the Cox Hotel, Souris.

The Canadian Teachers Federation which so successfully convened here this week ended yesterday and today regretful farewells will be said. The sessions were all very largely attended and much useful business transacted. The social side of the Confederation included teas at the Golf and Tennis Courts, auto drives, river sails, a dance given by His Honor the Governor and Mrs. Heartz, dinner and lunch at the Victoria, dinner at Beach Grove Inn and yesterday's drive to Cavendish where luncheon was served to the delighted visitors. The weather was deal all week and the strangers were charmed with the exquisite scenery and soft sea breezes of the Garden Province.

Four of the youngest ladies summering at Holland Cove conceived the idea of doing something good and useful during their holiday. Accordingly they arranged a bazaar, stocked it with articles of their own handiwork, decorated it with flowers, ferns and spruces of their own gathering and extended a general invitation to the people of the colony. The invitation was accepted; everybody came to the bazaar. The little ladies looked very sweet in their bright Indian costumes and there were willing purchasers for all the wares offered for sale. The proceeds amounted to $17.00 which was handed to Miss Audrey De Blois to assist in her Kangra Mission. Miss DeBlois gratefully acknowledged the gift and complimented the little donors on the success of their missionary enterprise. The little ladies were Miss Buddy Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Miles; Miss Constance Hyndman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hyndman, Charlottetown and the Misses Alice and Elizabeth Morrison of Keane, N. H., who are spending the summer with their parents at Holland Cove.

Miss Jacqueline MacDonald has returned from a delightful month's holiday to Boston.

Mrs. A. G. Putnam and family of Sackville, are summering at Eldon.

Dr. and Mrs. McGillivray of Montreal are on their annual visit to the city and seaside resorts at Brackley Beach where they are being cordially welcomed.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. P. MacNeil of Borden entertained at afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Margaret Strang and daughter Jean of Sydney, N. S.

Mrs. A. A. Bartlett is among the Beach Grove Inn guests this week.
