Between 1,500 and 2,000 people witnessed great racing under almost ideal conditions at the Summerside track yesterday afternoon. From the very first heat to the final there was excitement and veteran race-goer Fred J. E. Wright said it was the finest afternoon's sport he could remember at the Summerside track. Take the free-for-all for instance in which the track record was lowered in the very first heat, Happy L pacing the oval in 2.07 1-2 to smash the mark of 2.09 set up by Hal McKinney last fall. In the 2.16 Trot and Pace the ex-Maine trotter from the stable of Sullivan and Mawhinney proved that he was equal to the reputation that came with him by winning the first two heats in his class, one of them in 2.11.

The 2.22 Trot and Pace, thought to be a gift race to Lady Hal, 2.12-1-4 provided an upset in the first heat when Lady Hal finished fourth with Winnie Scott first in 2.13 1-4—a new record for Winnie.

The 2.28 Trot and Pace was one of the best on the card with Johnny Egar the eventual winner and sporting a new record of 2.11 1-4

The following is a short summary of each event.

FRIDAY

On Monday July 5th St. David's United Church, Georgetown, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding, when Katherine Jean Dalziel, only daughter of L. W. and Mrs. Shaw became the bride of Flying Officer John Herbert Bigelow, son of Dr. H. E. and Mrs. Bigelow, Sackville, N.B.

Fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church and concious to the last, the death occurred at his home at St. Peter's Bay, May 20th., of J.B. McInnis a very highly esteemed resident in the 45th year of his age.

The deceased youngest son of the late Hon. James D. and Mrs. McInnis had been in ill-health, but up to a short time previous to his death hopes were held for his recovery.

SAD NEWS CONFIRMED — A wire was received here yesterday by Mr. J. J. Trainor of the Post Office Department, confirming the report that his brother Norbett Aloysius Trainor had been drowned in the sinking of the tug Erg in Halifax on Tuesday. The message was received from R.J.R. Nelson, superintendent of the shipyards at Halifax.

CALLS TO MARSHFIELD AND WOOD ISLANDS — At the next meeting of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island on Tuesday at Wood Islands, a call from Marshfield, Mt. Stewart, Brackley and Highfield churches to Rev. Mr. Henry P. Baak will receive consideration. Rev. T. A. A. Duke, Knox College, will be designated to the pastoral charge of Caledonia, Wood Islands, etc., on which occasion Rev. Mr. Creaser, Tyne Valley, will give the charge to the minister, and the Rev. Mr. Carnegy, Summerside, will address the congregation.

LEAVE RELATIVES HERE—Among the victims of the disastrous collision in Halifax Harbor on Tuesday were Messrs. William Bernard Carmichael and his son Douglas B. Carmichael, Mr. Carmichael, sr., was a brother of Mr. John Carmichael, Charlottetown, and uncle of Mr. Murray Carmichael, of The Guardian Staff. He was a veteran of the last war and was for a time attached to the Veterans Guard during this war. Several years ago he was employed as fireman at the old Victoria Hotel here. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. B. MacNamara, Quebec, and another son, Ronald. His son Douglas leaves a wife and two small children in Halifax.

Mrs. George Martin, New Perth, was elected president at the annual meeting yesterday of the P.E.I. Women's Institutes. Other officers for the coming year were chosen as follows:

Hon. President: Mrs. Fred Gates, West Royalty.

Vice president: Mrs. Allan Stewart, Strathgartney.

Secretary, Mrs. Anthony Gaudet, St. Nicholas.

Convenors: Home Economics, Mrs. Hazen Howard, Cornwall; Citizenship, Mrs. Hope Mutch, Southport; Social Welfare, Mrs. Julian Herring, Borden; Agriculture, Mrs. Malcolm McLeod, Lorne Valley; War Services, Mrs. M. J. Doyle, Cavendish;

Official representative to the Federated Women's Institutes: Mrs. Allison MacMillan, Fairview.

The need for a strong national farm organization, representing the farmers of all the Provinces and all farm industries in Canada, was emphasized by Mr. J. J. Trainor, president of the P.E.I. Federation of Agriculture, in his address at the annual meeting of the organization yesterday in Prince of Wales College building.

Mr. Trainor also made a strong appeal to the Women's Institutes to take the initiative in a drive to bring about improved rural conditions.

The election of officers resulted in Mr. Trainor's return as president for the ensuing year. Mr. R. A. Profitt was re-elected vice president and Mr. W. R. Shaw, secretary-treasurer. Executive members are Messrs. Earl Ings, Mt. Herbert, J. W. Boulter, Charlottetown and Lincoln Dewar, New Perth.
