MT. BUCHANAN W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mt. Buchanan W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Robertson on Jan. 10th. Six members and two visitors present. Meeting opened by singing Institute Ode—followed by reading in unison. Members answered the roll call with "Say, Sing, or Pay." Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Committee gave reports and the following new ones appointed: Sick—Mrs. John Morrison and Miss MacDonald. School—Miss MacPherson. It was decided to have the picture of the King and Queen hung in the Schoolroom. Mrs. Nicholson was appointed to get further information on the price of desks for school. Two questionnaires were filled in and "Legislation" and "Child Welfare" to be filled in at next meeting. Humorous readings were given by several of the members. Roll call for next month to be a "Question Box." Place of meeting with Mrs. Peter MacDonald. "Long Long Ago" was sung in closing. Mrs. Robertson served delicious lunch and the usual pleasant social hour followed.

Sea View And Vicinity

January is fast slipping away and so far it has been ideal winter weather. The roads are very busy in the main highways and the motorists report the roads in excellent condition for motoring.

Mr. John W. Pickering received the sad news of the passing of his brother Wallace at his home in Donald, Alberta, at the age of 71 years. The late Mr. Pickering had been afflicted with rheumatism for some time but the end came as a result of a paralytic stroke. He leaves to mourn his passing his widow (nee) Miss Hattie Bernard of Long River and a family of sons and one daughter. The late Mr. Pickering was a member of the Sea View West Virginia and John at Sea View, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to whom the sympathy of this community is extended.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coulson were recent visitors to Wellington, N. B., where they were with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barlow. Many friends will regret to learn of the illness of Mr. Barlow at his home in Wellington.

Miss Ida Adams, Boston, Mass., is spending a pleasant visit with friends in Sea View.

Mr. Edwin Murphy, has returned home after spending a few days in Charlottetown.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert Dixon deeply regret to learn of the serious nature of his illness, following an X-ray treatment in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Mrs. Duncan Sutherland is spending some time in Malpeque the care of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant. Many friends deeply regret to learn that Mrs. Bryant is still confined to her bed through illness, all sincerely trust she will soon improve.

Miss Louise McKay has been suffering with an attack of mumps during the past week.

A host of friends will indeed be pleased to learn that Mr. Leo Brennan has returned to his home in Sea View after a confinement to his bed for some time yet.

Mrs. Wallace Waddell spent the week-end in Sea View. The guest of Mrs. Donald and Mr. Bryant. Our genial and obliging mail carrier, Mr. Harris Blakney was agreeably surprised when a committee in behalf of the box holders of Sea View waited on him and presented him with a well filled purse in appreciation of his faithful and efficient service in all kinds of roads and weather. Mr. Blakney is always on the job ever courteous and obliging to one and all.

The Sea View skating rink is again in full swing for another winter sport and some fast and interesting games have been played. On Wednesday night Malpeque team motored town and played with the Sea View team the score ended with a tie. There was a good crowd in attendance.

Mr. Reginald Hill is returning to Sea View after spending the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hill, Marlin's River, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John Basset and Miss Florence Basset were visitors to Summerside on Tuesday. Miss Jennie Ramsay spent a few days recently with friends in Sea View.

Mr. Robert Cousins is very busy engaged these days in sawing the farmers' supply of hardwood for Malpeque team. He is very busy to get it hauled on the snow. V. what tired after his long trip, but it was not long until he was busy distributing the many gifts from around the Christmas tree, no one being forgotten. When this task was over he set out on his homeward journey. All were delighted with his visit.

Island Minister

A wonderful story. He has gone among the troops and lives just as they live. He left his mission in April and when he went back to the coast in September he had lost over forty of his flock, a day and if they are lucky they will get meat or fish twice a week. Their pay is just one dollar a month and yet they are faithful. I could tell you several stories that he told us but this letter is getting too long.

A very remarkable thing about the Christians in China is their complete change of attitude toward the missionaries. Formerly they were very antagonistic toward the Christians but now they are friendly and want the missionaries to return to their stations. Not only do they want the missionaries to return but they are willing to guarantee their safety. They say that they have come to know that the missionaries are working for the good of China as well as the communist so let us work together. In a certain town the buildings back to them. That is the communist. In the Mission Compound but when the Mission, two ladies, returned the communists gave the buildings back to them. They are looking forward to the day when they shall have enough of the language to be of some small help to this great country in all her need.

Though it took you, some years of sedulous research—Chiffin waved aside what threatened to be a troublesome digression. "You kept out of my way," he said. "The point about Rud, Phoebe, is just what you have said to me. There is nobody in the world to say to him 'Sweetheart, you are right.'"

"And that aches?" "Damnably. It is the fundamental ache. The better you are fed and clothed and gratified, the more that ache for reassuring appreciation takes hold of you. The core of happiness in these things can't be put upon a woman's skin but my own. There is a brutal fastidiousness in my physical make-up anyhow. Let alone that I love you, so that I'm specialized now for you. But before ever I met you I am certain he would have seemed not simply indifferent but repulsive—disgusting."

"I wonder," said Chiffin, "how far you speak for even a majority of women?" "Any woman who answers for the behavior of any woman but herself is a fool," said Phoebe. "But even as what they used to call a Platonic lover?"

"Some women seem capable of monstrous tolerations. You and I are imaginative, sensitive people. We can't stand people who are not good-looking. We are a normal, easy-going couple. There are women without sensory imaginations, without physical pride, gross women, acquisitive women, prize-fight-lovers, women with a sort of blunt, savage brutality of ownership. . . . But go on."

"Will you see now what I mean when I say that Rud is living in an unbroken egotism, all inside himself. A sort of moral poundland plant. Love is the natural force that breaks down egotism, takes you out of your personal self-forgetfulness, but he has never had even a sentimental relationship. He has no intimate life, no life of the affections, as all—and so his egotism now has become inflamed and dreadful."

"But what am I to do about it?" "Help me to do something to break down his loneliness."

"But how?"

other's self-respect. . . . That's the same way of lie. For anyone with a rational imagination, when a man is happy with his woman and a woman is happy with her man and they are happy in their friends, neither of them accuses he doesn't possess the world and the sun and the moon. Am I right?"

"Sweetheart, you are right. Though it took you, some years of sedulous research—Chiffin waved aside what threatened to be a troublesome digression. "You kept out of my way," he said. "The point about Rud, Phoebe, is just what you have said to me. There is nobody in the world to say to him 'Sweetheart, you are right.'"

Probe Power To Lift Arms Embargo Against Spain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(AP)—President Roosevelt told a press conference today that government lawyers had been investigating for a month to determine whether the United States has the legal power to lift the arms embargo against Spain, but gave no indication it would be lifted if such power were found to exist.

An inquiry was made whether the embargo was consistent with traditional American foreign policy. The President, replying, said that reminded him of the legal case that he had made a story he read yesterday advocating a hard and fast policy by the United States to meet all foreign emergencies.

Mr. Roosevelt said that was impossible. When asked whether American policy was not a flexible one, his reply was negative. He added that was didactic.

3 out of 4 WOMEN Prefer CONCENTRATED SUPER SUDS in Sensational "Masked Soap" Test

1,000 Canadian housewives were given different granulated soaps packed in PLAIN boxes, identified only by number. These women were asked to do their washing with these granulated soaps and then to write which soap they liked best—and why! 3 out of every 4 women expressed an overwhelming preference for "3 out of 4," CONCENTRATED SUPER SUDS. These letters tell the story. We quote from a few of hundreds.

- "No. 1 GAVE BETTER SUDS WITH LESS SOAP and held the suds longer. I certainly washed the dirt out of my clothes."
- "NO BOILING OR SCRUBBING WAS NECESSARY when I used No. 1 soap, just the least rub of the fingers to the most soiled spots, and a thorough rinse."
- "MY WOOLLENS WERE SOFT AND FLUFFY after a washing in No. 1 soap. It softens water best and dissolves most quickly, and goes FARTHEST."
- "WASHABLE COLORS STAY BRIGHT AND OAY when washed with No. 1 soap. It rinses out easily. VERY EASY on your hands."
- "No. 1 SOAP IS GRAND FOR DISHS. It leaves them sparkling."

You owe it to yourself to try Concentrated Super Suds, next washday. This superior granulated soap contains MORE SOAP, that's why it gives you MORE SUDS. Safe for your clothes and gentle to your hands. Washes your clothes Hospital-clean. Most germs dangerous to health are killed or removed in the washing process. Very economical! Being concentrated a little goes a long way!
