CAIN-FRASER NUPTIALS. — A very pretty wedding was recently solemnized in St. Joachim's church, Vernon River, when Rev. F. D. McGuigan, P.P., united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mary Agatha, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cain, to Mr. Wm. E. Fraser, of the same place. The bride was charmingly attired in white georgette with the conventional veil with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Sadie, who wore flesh georgette and a picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. John Fraser. After the nuptial mass, the happy couple left the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Perle Carruthers, and motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty breakfast was served. After receiving the best wishes of their many friends, they left for Charlottetown to have dinner at the Queen Hotel, returning in the evening to the groom's home, where a very pleasant time was spent amidst a host of friends. The many and costly presents received by the young couple show to what a high esteem they were held in the community. (Patriot please copy.)

We were called upon with deep sorrow to record the death of Mr. Nathan MacFarlane, who passed away at his residence in Summerside on Monday evening, at the age of 75 years. He was taken seriously ill ten days ago and never rallied. Mr. MacFarlane was a native of Bedeque and first came to Summerside about forty years ago and entered into partnership in the firm of Messrs. Schurman, Clark & Co., (now Messrs. M. F. Schurman & Co.,) his particular duties in connection with the mill being the supervision and work on the firm's many contracts. Later he became, on his own account one of the leading builders and contractors. Honorable and upright in all his dealings, and taking a great interest in political and civic affairs he soon became a leading citizen and held the respect of all the people. He was for four terms an honored and trusted member of the Summerside Town Council, in religion he was a staunch member of the Presbyterian Church and he will be greatly missed in the civil and religious life of the community. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow (nee Martha Ferguson, of Summerfield) and three daughters, the Misses Bertie, Mattie and Enid MacFarlane, all at home, to whom our most sincere sympathy is extended.

On Sunday, August 7th, at the Charlottetown Hospital, the angel of death claimed as its victim Lemuel J. Sigsworth, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sigsworth, of Corraville, P. E. Island. Lemuel was of a quiet, lovable disposition, and will always be remembered by his playmates as an honest, obedient child, whose young soul, as yet unstained by the sins of the world, went forth to the Saviour, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me." The deceased had not been well during the past summer and was removed to the Charlottetown Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. His soul went forth on its journey to eternity fortified by the rites of the Catholic Church, and the Sacrament of Confirmation, administered to him by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary while an inmate of the hospital. He leaves to mourn their loss his sorrowing parents and one brother, Cosmas. His funeral took place on Wednesday August 10th, to Cardigan church, where Rev. DR. ANDERSON'S HORACE CLASS.—A subscriber in the U. S. A. writes how interested he is in reading the Guardian, especially in following the careers of successful Islanders' who have left their native province. When he was at Prince of Wales College Dr. Anderson used to conduct an early winter morning class in Horace, some of the students attending being Messrs. K. J. Martin, G. Robertson, A. Nicholson, A. McPhail, V. Coffin, J. A. Ford, and—Hawthorn, son of Senator H. Hawthorn. It would be interesting he thinks, if the survivors of this class could get in touch with one another, as they must have the common bond of Dr. Anderson's inspiration uniting them.

The death occurred at the City Hospital on Tuesday after an illness of two weeks of Owen Coyle, well known and highly respected member of this community.

The deceased who was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coyle was a man of quiet but extremely friendly disposition. He enjoyed the acquaintance of a large number and his genial companXionship was one of his characteristics.

—BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.— A Truro, N. S., paper gives some prominence to the fact that Mr. Newton Lea of that town, recently celebrated his 85th birthday and reports him hale and hearty, with his faculties practically undimmed. Mr. Lea was the recipient of many congratulations and remembrances. Commenting upon the event the editor of the New Glasgow Eastern Chronicle says::—"The old-timers all have a kindly memory of Newt Lea and especially in the old trotting horse day when he and his great horse "Allright" were invincible. We cull this news item especially for our friend Hector Sutherland, who, with the Editor, are about all that are left of the old guard who knew Lea in his active and enthusiastic days in the racing grounds." Many years ago Mr. Lea carried on an extensive blacksmithing business in Summerside, on the site now occupied by the Enman Drugstore and Godkin's Jewelry Store. He is a brother of Mr. Caleb Lea of Summerside, Mr. John Lea of St. Eleanors and Mr. George Lea at present visiting his nieces, Mrs. D. M. Waugh and Miss Hamilton of Summerside. The late Capt. John A. Nicholson, of Orwell Cove, who recently passed away at his home in Orwell Cove, was in his 77th year. He had been a great sufferer from asthma for many years, resulting fatally in serious heart affection. A master mariner by profession he closed his active career at sea in the Government Fishery Protective Service some sixteen years ago. His wife, formerly Miss Margaret Munro, of Vernon River, died on October 22, 1911. Capt. Nicholson was a faithful attendant at church, while able to do so, and at all times a generous supporter of the work of the church to which he belonged. The surviving members of the family are two daughters and a son, John, who is at home on the farm. Another son, Lieutenant Angus Nicholson, was killed on the Western front, in March, 1918, paying the supreme sacrifice of courage and devotion. Infant Care

Mothers, you can't start too early to establish a child's serene and tranquil disposition. Even an infant can have a happy, fretless state of uninterrupted health. What will help do this? A simple, purely vegetable product as old as you are: plain Castoria.

A few drops of Castoria will settle all uneasiness in a jiffy. Will dispel colic or ward off constipation; and just as surely check diarrhea.

In real sickness, call a physician. But many physicians urge only Castoria for those little childish disorders that need nothing more. You need never be afraid to give pure Castoria. It is safe and perfectly harmless, for it contains no paregoric, no opiates, no dope of any kind. At least, this is true of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria*—and that is the kind doctors tell you always to buy.

Fletcher's Castoria is fine for any child. All children love to take it. Delicious tasting, and as good as it tastes. Just look for the Fletcher signature on the package and you will know you have the genuine and pure Castoria.

* SPECIAL NOTE: With every bottle of genuine Fletcher's Castoria is wrapped a book on "Care and Feeding of Babies" worth its weight in gold to every mother or prospective mother.
