William, John D., Robert, Everett and Miss Cassie McLeod have received the following letter—Dear Brothers and Sisters: We sincerely regret that since you last met with us it has pleased God in his all wise Providence to take your dear mother to that home on high which he has prepared for those that love him, and we, on behalf of Refuge Division No. 201, S. O. F., desire to express our heartfelt sympathy for you in this your hour of sore bereavement. Although your hearts are filled with grief at the parting, what a joy it is to know that you can all meet again where there shall be no parting where sorrow is unknown and where love and harmony reign forever. It is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that we mourn for her as one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard and we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased. We each and all would gladly help you bear your burden of sorrow but we feel there is so little we can do and we only can direct you to the God of all comfort and consolation—the great burden-bearer, the man of sorrow who is acquainted with grief and who alone can speak peace to the soul and when life's trials are over may we all meet in that heavenly mansion where there shall be no more death, and neither sorrow nor crying neither shall there be any pain. Submitted in L. P. and F.—Committee.

Sterns Is On King Square

It was the custom for ladies to send their coats and skirts abroad to have them cleaned. It was expensive. It was uncertain—There was delay. Now they send them to Sterns' Laundry on King Square. Now it costs very much less—Now there is no delay. Now you are certain to have real satisfaction. We can surprise you as we have surprised hundreds of others—Have you a soiled dress or coat? Is it cotton, linen, woolen, silk or almost any kind of material—well if it is not badly faded or worn out, we can make it look almost like new—Give us a trial and be convinced. Sterns, The Launderer, King Square
