JAMES POWER PASSES AWAY
Miramichi Mourns the Loss
Of an Aged and Highly Respected Resident

Redbank and the whole community was shocked to learn of the death of Mr. James Power, which occurred at his home there Wednesday evening. Deceased was in his usual health and was out around the yard Wednesday morning when about 9 o'clock he suffered a paralytic stroke. Rev. F. C. Ryan was immediately called and administered the last rites of the Catholic Church. About twenty minutes afterwards, Mr. Power sank into a stupor and suddenly passed away about 5.30 o'clock the same evening.

Deceased was 75 years of age and is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Bridget Gillis, two sons and six daughters. The sons are Patrick of Redbank and Lorne of California; and the daughters are Mrs. Charles Vickers of Duluth, Minn., Mrs. Walter McInnis of Saint John, Mrs. Stanley Doran of Redbank, Mrs. Colin McKinnon of Douglastown, Carmel of Saint John, who is at present home on vacation, and Philomin at home. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. John Hayes and one brother, Patrick Power, both of Moira Minn.

Deceased was a native of Prince Edward Island born at New London, and left here as a child in a sailing vessel with his parents for Miramichi. He was a cousin of Mr. Edward Pendergast Kensington, and has many relatives and friends at Hope River.

He was a life-long resident at Redbank and was greatly beloved and highly respected by all. He followed the trade of blacksmith, retiring about five years ago. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and family. The funeral will be held this (Friday) morning at 8 o'clock to St. Thomas Church, Redbank.

LOCKOUT OF 500,000 CAUSED BY QUARREL OVER ONE EMPLOYEE

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 1.—England's cotton industry, already severely depressed, today was threatened with a lockout, closing some 700 mills and throwing a million men out of employment. This huge machinery of coercion will be set in motion on Aug. 11, unless a settlement is reached, because the directors of the Ramsey Mill, near Oldham, refused to discharge a mill hand who was in dispute with his union.

LETTERS OF CONDOLENCE.

James P. Clow, Murray Harbor Nth. Dear Brother—We, your brethren of Dalziel L. O. L., No. 2480, wish to express to you our sincerest sympathy in your recent bereavement in the death of your beloved daughter, Mary, whom God has seen fit in His infinite wisdom, to call to her eternal home. We trust and hope that He who doeth all things for the best, may be your Comforter, and will heal the sorrow that is in your heart, and sustain you while the hours seem so dark. We know you shall miss her, but you have the hope that she has only gone home a little while ahead, and you can look forward to meeting her in a land where trials and sorrow do not exist. We know that mere words written on paper are poor comfort to sorrowing hearts, but we trust that you will accept these as the sincere expression of our sympathy for you in your sad bereavement. Please extend to the rest of your family our sincerest sympathy. Signed on behalf of Dalziel L. O. L., No. 2480, Elmer H. Millar, W.M., Oswald Graham, Rec. Sec. Mr. and Mrs. James P. Clow and family.

Dear Sister and Brother and family—The officers and members of the Murray Harbor North Institute desire to convey to you our sincere sympathy in the great loss you have sustained in the death of your dear daughter and sister, Mary. We feel that our words are very inadequate to comfort you, but we know that you can find comfort in the blessed Master Who said: I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. We trust that He may be your constant Companion through life, for He only can bind up the broken hearted. We know that you will miss the loving face who had a smile for everyone. She had a bashful way but a lovely affectionate manner. But in no place will she be missed so much as in her own home, where she was a kind daughter and sister. Signed on behalf of the Murray Harbor North Institute, Mrs. Irving Millar, Secy.

Mt. Stewart Notes

I suppose Pollyanna would find a reason to be glad it is raining, but now with haying going ahead it is rather hard for the farmers to find one. Pollyanna's a good standard, but a rather hard one sometimes.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Albert Mitchell accidentally fell last Saturday and is now under the doctor's care.

A good crop of cherries is reported, but the apples are not so plentiful.

Mrs. M. Duffy, New York, is spending some time with her brother, Mr. H. F. Feehan, and daughter, Miss Anna.

A narrowly averted accident happened when Mr. John McKay, French driver to Charlottetown when down by Scotchfort when the hood suddenly returned, smashing the hood so badly it was necessary to remove it. Luckily Mr. McKay escaped unhurt.

Several of our citizens have had their houses repainted, among them Mr. Daniel McWilliams, who also had his roof shingled, and Mr. Mont McKay whose repainting makes that part of Riverside Drive look natty.

We haven't had a visit lately from the Grand Old Man of Fort Augustus, Mr. Peter McNally, aged ninety. Mrs. J. H. Johnston, have left by motor on return to Alberta, after a enjoyable visit.

Mr. E. P. Clark accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Aeneas McKinnon and Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew McKinnon, Pisiquid, motored to Grand River and Lennox Island Sunday.

Hon. Jas. P. McIntyre and brother, Mr. J. J. McIntyre returned Tuesday evening from Frankfort, Va., where they visited their uncle Mr. Joseph McIntyre.

Reverend and Mrs. Robert L. Joffin and little son Frankie left Monday morning for their home in Fort Hawkesbury, N. S., accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Dingwell who went to visit them.

Mr. R. C. Clark has added a large extension to his fox-ranch, so evidently he finds profits in foxes.—F. Sympathy is the safe-guard against selfishness.
