ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Rev. L. H. McLean M. A. of Nova Scotia preaches in Zion Church to-morrow.

Rev. G. P. Raymond will preach in the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening Dec. 8th.

Every one who promised anything for the Temperance tea will kindly send donations to Armou's before three o'clock.

A young man passing through the Queen Square yesterday afternoon was attacked by a vicious dog and bitten on the leg. The injury was not serious but might have been.

The City of London returned to Hick-ey's, Haggarty's and Hayden's wharves yesterday at 1 p. m. with 80 passengers and a full load of supplies for the merchants of East River ports.

LARGO Bros. desire through The Guardian to state that the reported cruelty to a horse while being clipped several days ago did not occur at their stables as some have been led to suppose.

On account of the very disagreeable weather yesterday the attendance in the market was small. The sleighing on the country roads was excellent in the morning but the rain during the day took away much of the snow.

At the Police Court "Whitecap" Mahar arrested on a warrant for making a disturbance at the Salvation Army was fined $20 or 30 days and Lawrence Hennessey, drunk and incapable was given $10 or 60 days. Both took the days.

The City of London goes to Crapaud today at 8 a. m. if the weather clears sufficient to make out the range lights at entrance to Victoria Harbor. The outside buoys have been taken up there and makes navigation more difficult in thick weather.

ALLAN P. McLean's Murray Harbor writes that the injury received to his hand on the Murray Harbor Railway several days ago was not as serious as reported. One finger was broken and hand bruised but amputation will not be necessary.

The Guardian has received from Mr. Moran, Principal of Union Commercial College, a pamphlet entitled, "Stenography—What it is—What it does," by Benn Pitman. Anyone who is interested in shorthand should have a copy, and can secure it free at the Union Com. College. Send or call for one.

The second of the series of meetings for men on "Life Questions and their Answers" will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Sunday afternoon at 3.45 o'clock. Rev. W. W. Lodge will speak on "What are Christianity's claims in relation to home and Church?" All men should hear this address. The music will be led by a choir of boys.

EARLY next week "the two Macs" will place on display their elegant line of perfumes for the holiday trade. This display they claim will surpass in value and extent any they have previously shown. Every package will be of this year's import. The odors include the very latest from such centers as New York, Paris and London and bear the trade mark of the world's greatest perfumers Pivet, Roger & Gallet, and Seely & Colgate. The packages are extremely pretty, many been distinctly new. Not the least attractive feature will be the prices which will be placed very little above cost. We advise the public to keep the "Mac" in mind for Xmas perfumes.

The steamer Turbin which has been in the harbor for some days past has orders to proceed to Cardiff in ballast.

THERE was no foreign mail yesterday the Northumberland not crossing to Point du Chene because of the snow storm.

Miss Temple's Art Sale continued this afternoon from two until six. China, pictures, oil and water color and novelties in Pyrography.

The Manufacturers Life Insurance Co. of Toronto are issuing a very useful commercial and strategic calendar map of the British Empire. They have The Guardian's thanks for a copy.

A PUBLIC Temperance Meeting will be held on Tuesday evening in Wright's Hall under the auspices of the Sons of Temperance. An excellent program of speeches by practical temperance men is being arranged and another good meeting is assured. Chair taken at 8 o'clock sharp.

The marriage of R. G. Bell of Pennsylvania and Miss Olive McDonald daughter of John McDonald, Crapaud took place at Cliffdale, Mass., Nov. 20. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Slatery. The bride wore a travelling suit of dark grey and a picture hat and was assisted by her sister Miss Lena McDonald. After the ceremony with the best wishes of their many friends the happy couple left for Pennsylvania where they will reside in the future.

Rev. Edwin Smith, of Kensington, delivered his very instructive and interesting lecture, "From Ocean to Ocean," in the Orange Hall at Victoria West last Tuesday night. For an hour and a half the lecturer held the closest attention of his audience, as he described, by the aid of stereoscopic views, the beautiful fields, lakes, forests, mountains and rivers of Western Canada. This is the first time Mr. Smith has lectured in our village and we hope he may pay us another visit in the near future.

HEDLEY ANDERSON who was injured some time ago on the bridge caisson was able to be out again yesterday. Mr. Anderson was badly injured about the head and had his heel badly bruised. He was climbing on a ladder to the top of the caisson and when on the utmost rung reached to catch one of the protruding bolts on the top. The supposed bolt proved to be a screw-bar which gave way and he fell to the bottom of the caisson a distance of thirty feet alighting on the concrete flooring, and it is wonderful that he escaped with no greater injury. Mr. Anderson was at one time employed a but or maker in the creamery conducted in the Welsh and Owen building.

Prof. Caven's lecture on "Tam O'Shanter in Prince of Wales College last evening brought out a good audience, notwithstanding very unfavorable weather; and those who were present enjoyed a rich literary treat. The learned lecturer was warmly received on rising to speak, and was very frequently applauded as he proceeded with his clever and captivating exposition of what many think to be the masterpiece of Burns' productions. Prof. Caven entered fully into the spirit of the poem, of which he holds a high estimate, which was no doubt the estimate of nearly all who were present. The vote of thanks moved and seconded by two members of P. of Caven's former class was heartily supported by Senator Ferguson, Hon. D. A. MacKinnon and a number of others. Prof. Caven's many friends were gratified to learn that he may at a not distant day appear on the lecture platform.
