50th Wedding Anniversary

An event of importance, which took place fifty years ago, was happily recollected by the participants, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hiltz, Kensington, when they were entertained in honour of their 50th wedding anniversary by the Kensington Presbyterian Church choir and other friends.

Immediately after choir practice, on Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heath Caseley, Mr. Edson Rayner, who had been appointed to act as chairman, addressed Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz, and in a few appropriate remarks acquainted them with the intentions of the assembled company. While the pair were being seated by Mr. Tyndal Semple, "Here Comes the Bride" was played by Mrs. Ervin Jay.

An address, expressing the sentiments of those present, and certainly the sentiments of many one of the host of friends of this highly esteemed couple, was read by Rev. J. A. McGowan.

A gift of money was made by Mrs. Elmer Bernard, on behalf of the members of the choir and other friends. A beautifully decorated bride's cake, made by Mrs. Horace Paynter, was also presented.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz, though taken completely by surprise, each adequately expressed appreciation.

"We are growing old together," was sung as a duet, by Miss Marion Lockhart, and Mr. Parmenas Phillips, and a solo by Mr. Tyndal Semple, was encored. A singsong was led by Mrs. George Ramsay.

Ice cream and cake was served by Mrs. Caseley, and the bride's cake was cut by the "bride and groom" in traditional manner, in remembrance of their wedding day. The chairman moved a vote of thanks to the host and hostess, coupled with a word of sympathy for them, in the near tragedy, involving their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Caseley. This was seconded by Mrs. James Jardine.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz, the former Jennie Dunning, were married on a "very cold night", February 1st, 1899, by the Rev. F. G. Whitman, at Margate Methodist Parsonage.

Following is the address:—
To Mr and Mrs. Alexander Hiltz:—
We, friends and members of the Presbyterian Church Choir, take the opportunity to extend to you both our heartfelt and most sincere congratulations, on your attainment to the fiftieth anniversary of your marriage. Since taking upon yourselves, the vows of fifty years ago on February 1st of this year, 1949, you have set an example to others, by your unswerving loyalty and integrity to each other. We would fail in our duty, if we did not speak of your outstanding work in the church.

You, Mrs. Hiltz, have always been closely associated with your Master's work. You have witnessed a good confession of your faith. You have been and are a valuable member and office bearer, of the Women's Missionary Society, and a faithful member of the Ladies Aid Society. We remember you also as a loyal herald of God, in the choir.

And you, Sandy, have been a faithful servant of the Lord, first, as an Elder, in Geddie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Springbrook, and then for almost thirty years in this congregation. You have given of your means and time, liberally, to the work of the Kingdom. We do not forget your unflinching contribution, to the praise of God, in his Sanctuary. We could always depend on you in the choir, as one who would willingly and cheerfully do your part. We are not unmindful of your place in the affairs in the Sunday School and day school, as well as in community welfare, to which you have made a fine contribution.

Your home has always been a model of hospitality, where all were given a sincere welcome, friends and strangers alike being treated with kindness and liberality. It is not only your unflinching hospitality, but your reasonable attitude, in all the varied affairs of the church life and community life, that has impressed us most, and made our associations most pleasant, nor can we forget your desire and readiness to be of help to any one, who needed it, not through any sense of duty. You have both been good neighbours.

We present you with this small gift, as a token of our esteem, respect and appreciation, and with it goes our heartfelt wish and prayer, that God may spare you, and give you grace and strength to enjoy many more years of happy married life.

On behalf of friends, and members of Presbyterian Church Choir.

bike, when the next turf season rolls around.

A large number enjoyed the card party in the Parish Hall on Wednesday night.

Mrs. LeGuff had as her recent guest her mother, Mrs. Howard Arsenault, of Summerside.

The many friends of Mr. Patrick Shea, Montrose, will regret to hear that he has been in the Western Hospital the past week with pneumonia.

Local fishermen here are hoping for an extension of the smelt fishing season, as catches so far have been very poor. Prices received (this season have not been as good as last year.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Margaret Redmond and son Gerald on the death of a daughter, and sister, Mrs. Walter Hogan, who died recently in New York City.

Mr. Glen Matthews had the misfortune of breaking his left wrist while playing hockey. Sorely misled by his team, Glen anticipates another swing at the puck before the season closes.

Mrs. Eleanor Boylan and two children, Wayne and Jean, who spent a delightful holiday with Mrs. Boylan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Murphy of this town, left recently for their home in Windsor, Ontario.

Mrs. James Keefe was hostess at her home on Church Street Friday evening, at a two table bridge in honor of Mrs. Hazan, wife of Capt. Hazan. Pretty prizes were presented to the winners. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Alberton Regals made a very creditable showing on the home rink Saturday night when they defeated Freetown 8-3. The game, which was played clean and fast proved most pleasing to the record number of fans, whose cheering resounded at no long intervals.

A pantry sale under the auspices of the Alberton sub-division C. W. L. was held in Mr. Alfred Foley's store on Saturday afternoon. The ladies in charge were: Mrs. Michael Ahern, Mrs. M. V. Burke and Mrs. Brydon Smith. The members of the C. W. L. feel very grateful towards those who so generously patronized the sale, and made it such a financial success.

Flying Officer Tony Burliton, who is stationed at Summerside airport, recently called on Mrs. Maurice Perry, Jr., Alberton South. After spending the past five years on P. E. I. Mrs. Perry was invited to meet Flying Officer Burliton who is a native of her home town, Brighton, England, where they were next door neighbours and grew up together.

Friends of Ivan Shea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shea, Montrose, will regret to learn that he has re-entered the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, for further observation. Ivan, who is a pupil at Kinkora Convent is very popular among his school associates and all hope for his speedy recovery and early return to his class studies.

One of the former residents of P. E. I. who has made good in his adopted home, is Mr. W. C. Wells of Union (dock), brother-in-law of Mr. Fred Clark of the same place. Mr. Wells went west in 1904 and over the years had engaged in farming and lumbering, later he took up building and road construction and is now a successful contractor in this line of work.

In discussing the present mild winter, Mr. Fred Clark of Union today, (his correspondent was informed by him of the memorable winter of 1923. During that winter, about March 1st, Mr. Clark went to Charlottetown on business, with the intention of returning the following day. However, it was exactly three weeks before he again reached his home as no trains had operated west from the capital city in that space of time. People in Western Prince County were without any mails for 18 consecutive days.

The Valentine Dance, sponsored by the Catholic Women's League of Alberton was held in the Institute Hall the night of February 14th. The dance was a social and financial success. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the large crowd present enjoyed every number of the program. Music was supplied by the Western Orchestra, composed of Mr. J. Fred White, violin; Mrs. Joseph Larier, piano; Mr. Jack Barrett, guitar; Mr. Raymond A. Hearn at the drums. Dainty refreshments were served at intermission by a committee in charge of Miss Mary Gillis, the chaperones were, Mrs. A. D. O'Brien and Mrs. S. R. Burke.

Howlan and Vicinity

Mr. Jos. S. Gallant of Piusville, was in Howlan and O'Leary on Saturday.

J. Hector Richard, M.L.A., was a train passenger to Charlottetown on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arbing of Woodstock were guests of Mrs. Leo Arsenault Friday.

Mrs. Jean Cahill of Summerside spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Finnan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. T. Gallant of Upper Howlan were in Bloomfield on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Peters and son Wayne of O'Leary spent Sunday afternoon in Howlan.

Miss Doris Gallant visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Finnan on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Gallant spent a few pleasant days with relatives and friends in Summerside.

On Wednesday Margaret Gallant was a passenger by train to Summerside, returning the same evening.

Mrs. Pros. L. Arsenault visited her good friend, Mrs. Peter Blanchard of Carleton last Sunday.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arsenault and their four children of Summerside were visiting in Howlan.

Miss Erma Gallant of Woodstock is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Octave Pirzeau and family of Duvar.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hector Richard were passengers by train to Tignish returning to their home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Gallant and little daughter, Florence of Howlan were visiting in Piusville on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Theophilis Gallant and her daughter Louise of Piusville were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richard and family of Howlan.

A bingo and dance was put on at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hector Richard on Wednesday night and was very much enjoyed by all in attendance.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Jerry Arsenault on Wednesday when eight of her women friends dropped in to spend a social evening.

Master Gene Gallant, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gallant of Woodstock, was rushed to the Prince County Hospital on Saturday morning, Feb. 12th, where he remained same time.

Miss Joan Arsenault, who spent the past two weeks visiting in Charlottetown among her relatives there, returned to her home here on Saturday night after a very pleasant visit.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Gallant and Joe Gallant all motored to Summerside to visit Gene who was a patient in P. C. Hospital.

Word has been officially received from Mr. and Mrs. Jos Arsenault of Parkton, N. B., but formerly Mrs. Richard of Howlan, that her little son, Frankie had died on Feb. 1st, also that her small baby was at the point of death. They have the sympathy of their friends and old neighbors in Howlan.

Mrs. Gabriel Arsenault of Carleton who was a patient in Prince County Hospital, returned to her home on Monday afternoon. Here's hoping she will be better soon. Her sister (Eva) Mrs. Elmer Pineau is now back in the hospital, her condition is not so good as might be. Her friends all wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

On Monday, Feb. 14th, Mrs. Frank J. Gallant of Woodstock commemorated her 84th birthday. Mrs. Gallant enjoys very good health and is up and able to visit and seldom misses going to Mass on Sunday. May she have many more birthdays. Her husband a few years younger is still living and may they enjoy many more years together.

Eusebe Arsenault had a bad loss on Tuesday when his car was completely destroyed by fire. In early summer he had almost had a similar occurrence but he was lucky enough to extinguish the flames before very much damage had been done. However, he had it all done over only to lose it completely. His loss is regretted by his many friends. As the car had been left near St. Anthony's Hall, as Howlan Road was not open, it seems the parish hall was scorched and might have been a complete loss as well if volunteers and the fire department from O'Leary had not been at work.

Darnley

Mrs. James Cousins, Balferspent the weekend in Malpeque the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George MacKay.

Mrs. Chas. Lockhart and daughter George, spent the weekend in Darnley the guest of Mrs. Colin Donald, who has been ill. All trust to see her out again soon.

Rev. James Cross conducted prayer meeting in Darnley Hall on Thursday evening. A nice gathering assembled. Members of the Mission Band were present and took part in the program.

A card party was sponsored in Darnley Hall by the Darnley W.I. on Friday evening, Feb. 18. Several tables of progressive auction were in play. Highest score for evening being held by Miss Merle Crozier and Mr. Lyle Crozier. Congratulations going to Mrs. Morley Crozier and Mrs. George MacKay. Lunch was served by members of W.I. Proceeds for the Jubilee Endowment Fund.

A Valentine card party was held in Sea View Hall on Friday evening. Seven tables of progressive auction were in play. First Ladies prize, Mrs. Lorne Campbell. First Gent's prize, Mr. Horace Stewart. Consolation prizes, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cousins. Refreshments were served and a nice sum realized. A bazaar was also held and added greatly to proceeds. This gathering was sponsored by the Sea View W. I.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor, Malpeque, was the scene of a large gathering on Tuesday when a number of friends gathered to honor Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor who had recently become the bride of Mr. William Stevenson of Charlottetown. The drawing room was decorated with pink and white while a gaily decorated seat of honor occupied a place in the bay window of the room. The young couple was attended by Miss Katherine Pierson and Mr. Earle Taylor. They entered the room to the strains of a wedding march played by Mr. Russell MacKenzie and occupied the seat of honor. The gifts were handed by Misses Joyce Brynner and Mary Jorgensen to Mrs. Suberland Cousins and Mrs. Alfred Jorgensen who opened them while Mrs. Gerald Lockhart read the accompanying names and good wishes and Miss Shirley Stewart arranged them on the table. Mr. Stevenson on behalf of his bride and himself thanked the friends for their gifts. The remainder of evening was spent in music and games. A delicious lunch was served. At a late hour goodnights were said after wishing the bride and groom many years of wedded happiness. The bride was a student in training in Prince Edward Island Hospital and had just completed her course. The young couple will reside in Charlottetown.
