War-25 Years Ago Today

SEPT. 16, 1917-French army raided towns in Wurtemberg and Rhenish Prussia. Austrians air-raided Venice, but four counterattacks on the Bainsizza Plateau failed. Threatened revolt of Russian Cossacks checked, and Gen. Kaledin resigned his leadership to Premier A. Kerensky.

Minard's kills pain

LONDON - (CP) - It has been pointed out that the letters S.O.S. in the American Army here do not indicate a "desperate need for help" but the Service of Supply-ask to the Army Service Corps in the British forces.

Minard's kills pain

The 24,269-tonal transport Wakefield, which burned at sea Sept. 3, is shown above shortly after it was converted from a luxury liner to wartime service. Formerly the $10,000,000 liner Manhattan, the Wakefield was returning to the United States after crossing the Atlantic with troops when fire of undetermined origin broke out. Approximately 1600 passengers and crew members were rescued by convoying warships. The ship has been salvaged and towed to an American port. (Official Navy Photo from NEA Telephoto)
