ISLANDER RETURNS — Pte William Burmise of Summerside, P. E. I., who left here last summer with the 26th Battalion, returned to St. John in Saturday having been given an honorable discharge because of illness says the St. John Evening News. He crossed on the steamer "Metagama," with other wounded and sick Canadians, and among others he said, was one from the west who had his eyes put out in a German prison camp before he had been exchanged.

STUDENTS GIFT FUND — In answer to inquiries from the rural district asking if the "Students' Gift Fund" is still open, and stating there is money for same if so, the committee assures them the Fund is still open . One hundred dollars is now required to meet full cost of the first Kitchen, the order for which has been placed trusting the Students will make a special effort to quickly hand in the amount. Afterwards there is no more Kitchen to be provided by the Studentts. As between thirty and forty per cent of them are doing excellent workk in giving the first Kitchen, it is but reasonable to suppose the remainder of the Island Students will gladly do their "bit" by subscribing the amount needed for the second. It is known at the Militia Dept. that the Students are endeavoring to supply two Kitchens for Island Soldiers so it is hoped they will show the Dominion they can make good the effort.

CARVELL BROS received word that the steamer Senlac would arrive in Charlottetown some time Friday. 5733-12-6M11.

S. Harland which ran up to Hadens' wharf from Charlottetown every Friday during the open navigation did not call there last Friday or will not, your correspondent is informed, for the remainder of the season, owing to not being able to dock there on account of an obstruction being in the way. The loss of the boat not calling will be keenly felt by her many patrons here and particularly at this season of the year, when the bulk of shipping is to be done.—S.

WEDDING BELLS.—The Methodist Church of Milford, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday, Nov. 25th, when the pastor, Rev. Walter Whitney, united in marriage Winnie Mae MacFarlane, of Marshfield, P. E. I., and Frank Baxter Bovyer, of Mt. Stewart, P. E. I. The bride was unattended and looked nice in a suit of white silk crepe de chene with lace and chiffon trimmings and wore an embroidered veil with wreath of lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her going away suit was of brown broadcloth with fur trimmings and velvet hat to match, with canary colored roses. After the ceremony the party drove in autos to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Temple, cousins of the bride, where a number of invited guests received the newly wedded couple, after which they sat down to a sumptuous supper served in the hostess' usual good style. The presents were very choice, among them some small cheques; also a beautiful silk seal coat, the groom's gift to the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Bovyer intend spending their honeymoon in Kingston, Ont., the guests of Prof. Lester W. Gill, of Queen's University, uncle of the bride. They will reside in Milford, Mass., where the groom holds a good position.

BY JOVE!

said a well educated man the other day when he was asked this question:—"Why, when you have a cold, a cough or bronchitis (troubles, you will note, of throat and chest) do you persist in pouring cough syrups, lung tonics and the like into your stomach, which is perfectly sound?"

Ever think of it? The stomach and the lungs are not connected, otherwise food swallowed would choke you. Lung and throat troubles were never yet cured by dosing the stomach. To cure coughs, colds and bronchitis, you must breathe the cure. Peps provide the rational treatment for these ailments. Peps are tablets made up of pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing. Try a 50c. box of Peps for your cold, your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All druggists and stores or Peps Co., Toronto, will supply

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF ISLANDER'S LIFE

The following interesting letter is from Private Peter A. Hughes to his mother.

My Dear Mother—I received your letters of the 18th Oct. while I was in the trenches and had no chance to answer until now. I am well but we have had considerable bad weather together with heavy bombardments. We lost twenty-eight the last time in, but I think we are going to be more settled now. I was sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Norman J. McDonald. She was one of the women of Grand Tracadie I liked well. I shall never forget her kindness to me on many occasions. I feel I have lost a good friend. Be sure to extend my sympathy I can do no more. You told me how the Courts men were so interested in sending me tobacco and cigarettes, I have always felt, and I think I have sometimes said that there were not better hearted men in the country than they are. I only hope that the time wont be long when I shall be able to thank them personally. There is one thing here is a surety and that is that in our present position when a thoughtful kindness is done for one it is appreciated a thousand fold, and a man is not worthy of the name of man if he will not endeavor some time or other to return the kindness in that proportion. Thank them for me, and no fear but I shall remember. Well there is no news much that I can send. It is about the same as usual—the daily risks, the heavy shell fire, the happiness at escape, etc. I dropped a card from the trenches the other day after a very remarkable escape. I always drop a card after any close call. I was in charge of a body of men, and we wanted to get to our living quarters for dinner. We had to pass an open space with cover here and there, and our friends across spied us and gave us the most interesting half hour we had for some time. Of course it depended on me to look out for the men in my charge and happily we came through without a touch. The captain was very pleased and told me so. At one time to hunt suitable ground to creep in I had to get in an old trench up to my armpits in water and mud and wade about a hundred yards.

I Shall go on pass on the 18th. Intend to go and see Will and then go to Dublin. I don't know whether I can go to Carlow or not, but the time is short only seven days. Shall write again before I go or at least a card as I will be in the trenches when my leave comes due but shall write a series of letters from across the Channel.

One of my best friends from Chilliwack was wounded by a sniper yesterday. His name is Fletcher. I am sending you a card with the pictures of the crowd of us who came from Chilliwack in the first contingent, I have numbers over each of their heads and what has happened to each of them on the back of the card. You can see we suffered severely. Frank Kelly was around to see me this morning. He always comes to see me as soon as I come out of the trenches. He never has to face the music as we have. The second last time I was in I was several times out reconnoitering. It is a nerve racking job, but I shall explain more fully what it amounts to when I write from the old country.

I have a few things I shall send in a parcel home when I go on pass they are not much but slight souvenirs of here. I shall be able to give brother Will the articles you wished me to give him and I am also going to try to get him in my platoon where I can see him regularly. I get magazines and books regularly from my friends the nurses at Boulogne.

Well give my best love to all the family and my kindest regards to my friends. The orderly corporal is calling for the mail and I must close. Best love from your loving son,

PETER A. HUGHES,

Why Be "Blue"? Don't be "blue." Perhaps the fact that you are inclined to feel "off color" should make you happy—Why?—Because it may be a worth while hint to take better care of yourself. 'Blues" are apt to come from a neglected wardrobe and are often caused by wearing cheap ready-made clothes from the Cotton Belt while you are living in the Woollen Belt.

Your wardrobe can only be strengthened by Real British Woollens when you deal with the English & Scotch Woolen Co.
