Saint John Holds Quakers To Draw In Fast Contest

Unassisted Goals In Final Minutes Of Play Rob Beavers Of 4-2 Victory.

(Canadian Press) SAINT JOHN, N. B., Dec. 28.—Playing from here tomorrow for a tour of Europe, Saskatoon Quakers held Saint John Beavers to a 4-2 tie tonight in a rough, fast contest. The Beavers, shut out by Moncton Hawks in the Allan Cup final last year, have been defeated only once on their journey to the eastern seaboard, and that was at Moncton last night, when Hawks again applied the whitewash. Unassisted goals in the last period by Dewey and Scharf, with only six seconds intervening, gave the westerners a tie after Beavers had been leading 4-2. Esabrooks and Sharp shot goals for Saint John in the first period, but Welsh and Dewey knotted the score for Saskatoon in the second, although the period ended 2-2 in favor of Saint John after Sharp scored his second unassisted tally. When Dickson shot another for Beavers early in the last session, things looked rosy for Saint John. The brace by Dewey and Scharf, however, completed the scoring. The first Saint John goal was cleverly executed. Esabrooks and Don Young, the Campbellton youngster trying for a berth with Beavers, penetrated the visiting defense together. Young carried deep, passed to little Stevie and the latter rammed the puck into the net of "Cooney" Wood.

Flashers Speed Sharp's fast rush in a quick break from his own defence put Beavers two up in the first period. The left guard, out of every effort to oppose him and drove the rubber into the twines with a great burst of speed as he rounded the defence. The westerners were ever dangerous in this area and since Charlie Wilson robbed Dewey of goals, Scharf backed out a pass once as two teammates bore down on Wilson and they furnished their chance. The only penalty of the period was to Sharp, who was sent to the back of the local cage by handling the puck. Play was more turbulent and wide open in the middle and end of the Quakers' drive. The penalties for slashing, nicely got back in action and then sliced the Saint John lead to 2-1, when he hammered in a pass from H. Wilson. This was a pretty two-man rush and the play went around Sharp. Dewey Stars It was duplicated less than a

LEVINSKY CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Will Have No Trouble Taking English Heavyweight, Don McCorkindale Is Claim.

(Canadian Press) CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—King Levinsky, Chicago's boastful contender for heavyweight honors, predicts a grave international calamity tomorrow night, when he battles Don McCorkindale, conceded to be the best of English heavyweights in their 10-round battle at the Chicago Stadium. With Max Schmeling, German heavyweight and former titleholder, projected into the situation as a probable opponent for the winner, Levinsky is determined to defeat the Briton. McCorkindale, a corking good boxer, is just as confident of his own ability to whip the Kingfish, and land a match with Schmeling. This is reflected in the fact that he accepted a small percentage as his share of the purse. He is willing to gamble on his ability to outpoint the wild swinging Chicagoan, so he can advance as a contender for heavyweight honors. Levinsky, who floored Jack Sharkey, and then gave him a terrific beating last September, was held a 9 to 5 favorite tonight to out-scramble his English foe. The tall South African will enter the ring at about 195 pounds, with Levinsky scaling 204.

Komonen Chosen Canada's Premier Athlete For 1933

McLarnin Ranked Second In Opinion Of Sports Writers In Can. Press Poll.

(Canadian Press) TORONTO, Dec. 28.—In plain, unadorned achievement, much of it on the sun-scorched byways, far from the roar of the crowds, steel-legged Dave Komonen of Toronto showed the way to every other Canadian athlete in 1933, in the majority opinion of sports writers who participated in the second annual Canadian Press "outstanding athlete" poll. Komonen competed in the big marathon events of two countries and in the insignificant races staged here and there. He was beaten, but not often. He went to Massachusetts for the classic Boston Marathon and finished second. Then he won the United States Marathon championship and the Canadian title. Great Marathoner It was his important triumphs over the best distance runners in North America and his lengthy string of victories in lesser events, on both sides of the border that made the world of sport acclaim him the best marathoner on the continent. Canadian sports writers added their support by naming him Canada's outstanding athlete in 1933. Komonen takes over the sceptre the writers handed C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville of London in 1932. Sandy's victory in the United States Amateur Golf Championship earned him the honor in the first Canadian Press poll. Over such outstanding performers as Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, world's waterweight champion; Bobby Pearce, champion professional sculler; Ab Box, sectional Toronto Argonaut halfback and Torchy Peden, Victoria's red-headed six-day bicycle rider, Komonen won by a safe margin in the balloting. Out of 48 votes, 17 were cast for the sweet-striding Toronto Finn. McLarnin, whose one-round knockout victory over champion Young Corbett at Los Angeles was a climax to the career of the Irish slugger, received 11 votes. Peden, more firmly entrenched than ever as the best six-day biker on this side of the water, was third with four votes. It was no idle gesture the writers made in placing Box on an even footing with Pearce. Injured in Argos' first Big Four game, Box was the latter's last visit as Chief of Staff, both men congratulating the company on the efficient manner in which the unit was carrying on. Commander Beard, Chief of Naval Reserves, on his first visit to the island on an inspection tour found everything satisfactory. Lieut. Connolly also made complimentary remarks on the fine turnout made by the ratings for the Naval Guard on Remembrance Day and on the occasion of the late Lieut.-Governor Dalton's funeral. On the athletic side, the half-company had won the basketball championship of the Holy Name Club and had come within striking distance of the City title being beaten out by the Seaside team in the final game. In closing, he urged closer co-operation between the officers and men and wished one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Due to the unavoidable absence of Lt.-Com. G. H. Burtain from the toast to the King was proposed by Lt. Connolly, the company rising and singing God Save The King. The toast to the R. C. N. V. R. was proposed by Able Seaman Reg. Dillon. He urged the members going to Halifax for annual training to keep up the good name of the half-company and expressed his pleasure at being present at the function. In responding to the above toast Lt. G. C. Scriver outlined the history of the organization. It was founded in London in 1892 when the British Admiralty decided to cut down on active personnel. Sailors were conscripted and the company began activities in Canada in 1923. The Naval Reserve was proven not an idle movement when the Reserves played an important part in the Battle of Zbrugge and held up the advance of the Germans at Ostend. He closed his remarks by stating that he should be proud and honored to be members of the R. C. N. V. R. Sergeant-Major Irlam, the guest of the evening congratulated the company on their efficiency shown in the various tournaments of the year and urged the ratings to keep before the public in order to get their due recognition. ANNUAL DINNER OF R.C.N.V.R.

Forty-two members of the Charlottetown half-company of the R. C. N. V. R. met last evening for their annual dinner in the ward-room of the Naval Reserve building. Edwards, Chief of the Reserves and Commander Hoe, which incidentally was the latter's last visit as Chief of Staff, both men congratulating the company on the efficient manner in which the unit was carrying on. Commander Beard, Chief of Naval Reserves, on his first visit to the island on an inspection tour found everything satisfactory. Lieut. Border Cities Men Plan To Enter "Miss Canada" In Harmsworth Trophy Races

(Canadian Press) WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 28.—Possibility a Canadian boat might take part in the Harmsworth Trophy races in the St. Clair River next year loomed tonight with the announcement a group of unnamed Border cities business men were prepared to finance such a venture. Never in the history of the speedboat classic has a Canadian challenger entered for the trophy now held by Gar Wood, the "Grey Fox" of Algonac. Wood last year defeated Hubert Scott-Paine of England, but was given a stern tussle by the challenger, who is now preparing to return for next year's races with more powerful motors. Would Drive Boat In the event a Canadian boat does enter the 1934 contest, it is not unlikely 20-year-old J. R. Ardiel may be at the wheel. Ardiel, one of the most daring and skillful "sea fiats" drivers in Canada until his retirement two years ago, has a wealth of experience despite his youth, and his daring might well match the super-experience of Gar Wood, according to boating enthusiasts. Peter B. Murray of Windsor today sent the following message to the Secretary of the Yachismen's Association of America: "As secretary to a group of Border Cities businessmen, who wish to enter a boat in the Harmsworth race for 1934, we pray that you will accept our entry, which we shall call 'Miss Canada.' We will use two 20-cylinder air-speed motors, to be designed and built in Canada." A Windsor firm has the contract to build the motors, it was announced, and three builders are submitting designs and tenders for the hull. All-Canadian L. S. Falls, head of the firm, said: "You can say that the engines will be built by us and that they will be of Canadian design and Canadian materials. They will be 20-cylinder air-speed engines and while they are distinctly unusual in design, they are far past the experimental stage, because seven of them have already been built." Ardiel has already been requested to pilot the boat, in the event the entry is accepted, it is understood. The youthful pilot, however, according to authoritative sources, is first awaiting the result of motor and boat-tests before he makes any decision. While he has done no active racing for some time, he has "foiled with boats" as a hobby, the same sources said, and would be ready at any time to take the wheel. Opportunity to drive in the greatest classic of its kind would be eagerly welcomed by the youngster providing he felt he "had an even break" in the matter of boat and equipment. Montague Hockey The Montague Primroses took the R.C.N.V.R. of Charlottetown into camp here on Wednesday evening. The game was exceptionally fast throughout with spots that would even look good to the more advanced hockey players. This is the first game in which T. McEwen has played with the Primroses and according to the way he handled himself will be with this team for the entire season. The R.C.N.V.R.'s have reason to be proud of their hockey team. They are a clean, fast outfit and show excellent sportsmanship. The first period opened with rapid firing on both sides and not until well on in the period did Ken Beer succeed in making a tally for the Primroses on a pass from Martin Currie. In the second period Ken shot another goal for his home team which was followed by Bruce Currie coming in for a tally and in the middle of the period Lowell Poole, the Morens of the Primroses, shot a beauty from centre ice. This made the score 4-2. In the second period Larter and Cox scored for the Navy. In the third period, the Primroses feeling confident that they were set up a defensive game with their stalling tactics which the Navy took advantage of and shot in two more goals, (goals were shot by Dillon), which made a big change on the tally board, 4-5. Note—Bruce Currie scored in the opening of the third period. Primroses—Goal, T. McEwen; defense, W. Waterworth, Pete McCarron; forwards, Ken Beer, L. Poole, M. Currie, E. Currie, McDonald, S. RIVALS WILL MEET IN FINAL

(Associated Press) PINEBURST, N. C., Dec. 28.—George T. Dunlap, Jr., slender wearer of the United States amateur crown, and Dick Wilson of Southern Pines, won their semifinal matches today and prepared for a renewal in the annual mid-winter golf finals tomorrow of a rivalry dating back 10 years. Dunlap advanced to the final round by defeating R. P. Davidson of Washington, D. C., 4 and 3, while Wilson earned the right to meet the champion by overcoming Eric D. Thomson, St. Andrews, N. B., 4 and 3. In their medal play today, Dunlap appeared one stroke better than Wilson, playing out the 18 holes in 72, one over par, while Wilson took 73 strokes. The youngsters have met five times in competition since their junior days and Dunlap has won four times. His one loss to Wilson was in the semi-finals of the annual north and south amateur in 1929, but the Southern Pines player has always been a threat.

Bruins Defeat Canadiens In Final Minute Of Play

(Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Dec. 28.—Moving out of a tie with less than a minute of the game to play, Boston Bruins defeated Montreal Canadiens 4-3 before a crowd of about 5,000 fans here to draw up even with Detroit Red Wings in second position of the American section standing of the National Hockey League. The Bruins drew away to a one goal lead 16 minutes after the start of the first period when Nels Stewart tallied after taking Beattie's pass at the Montreal blue line, rounding the defence and bouncing the puck off the side of Chabot's pads into the net. Babe Siebert, recently sent to Boston from New York Rangers, put the Bruins two ahead four minutes after the start of the second period taking a fast relay inside the Canadian blue line from Harry Oliver and Mary Barry. Two goals behind, Canadiens went on a scoring spurge in the second tallying three goals to tie ahead of Boston. Less than a minute after Siebert's goal for Boston, Pete Lenine, lanky centre, grabbed Sylvio Mantha's pass after the latter had taken relay from Larochelle, and gave Thomson no chance to save. Four minutes later Howie Moranz beat Thompson when he took Jollat's rebound off the backboards squarely in front of the net. Two minutes after that Sylvio Mantha scored after a sustained scoring attack by Canadiens, putting Canadiens ahead when he took a pass from Gagnon, Jollat and Lenine and burning a hard shot into the corner. Then Babe Siebert took advantage of a scramble in front of the Canadiens nets to drive the puck into his second tally of the night. Finally, with but 50 seconds of regulation time left to play, Nels Stewart again beat Chabot on a hard shot from the side after he had taken Lamb's long pass to round the defence. Senators Held Hawks CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—(A.P.)—Bill Beveridge showed 7,000 hockey fans of Chicago a great performance in goal tending tonight as he and his Senator mates held the Black Hawks to a two-all deadlock in a fast but clean game at the Chicago Stadium. The lead alternated twice and went into overtime during which the Senators played for a tie. The leaders of the American division of the National Hockey League started the scoring when: Gottselig passed to Couture who flipped one to Lawick for a wide open shot. Two minutes later Wasnie tied the score on a pass from Cox and then scored. The second period was scoreless, but at the start of the third, Kaminsky swept through the entire Hawk defence, took a sharp rebound and scored. The Hawks drilled right back, peppered the Senator net and then scored. Gottselig to Couture, as Beveridge was on his knees. Only one penalty was called in the game. That was charged against Bowman in the second period for holding. NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—(A.P.)—New York Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs, last season's Stanley Cup finalists, battled to their second tie of the National Hockey League season tonight, finishing with two goals apiece after 70 minutes of fast hockey before a crowd of nearly 15,000. The draw returned the Rangers to last place in the American division as the Boston Bruins won and forged ahead. With the possible exception of their earlier battle here, it was about the fastest and best played game seen in Madison Square Garden this season. The tie was about as fair as any decision, although the Leafs had a 49-39 edge in the shots. Andy Aitkenhead of the Rangers stopping 23 in the third period alone. Cecil Dillon broke his scoring drought in the first period to send the Rangers off ahead on a pretty breakaway play with Murray Murdoch while the blue shirts had a man in the penalty box. Toronto evened it up on a pretty goal by Joe Primeau in the second frame and went ahead in the third when the late Ken Doraty, the playoff hero last season, pined from a three-man pass. A penalty to Busher Hollett, young Toronto defenseman, paved the way for the tying goal and Bun Cogan netted it on a drive from the blueline. Grant Selected As N.S. Outstanding Tennis Ace

(Canadian Press) HALIFAX, Dec. 28.—Douglas Grant, powerful young ace from the South End Club of Halifax, who failed to reach the selected list last year, was ranked number one player tonight by the Nova Scotia Tennis Association. Grant substituted Bevil Piers, youthful veteran of Maritime tournaments who was lodged in second place this year. The long contingent of women was headed by Mrs. Harold Jones of Halifax, followed by Mrs. F. V. Woodbury, also of the Citadel. The players must participate in the Nova Scotia tournament at Bridgewater in August before they will be accepted as candidates for 1934. The rankings: Men—1, Douglas Grant of Halifax; 2, Bevil Piers of Halifax; 3, Peter Aitken of Liverpool; 4, Larry L. Roper of Halifax; 5, Hugh L. MacLennan of Halifax; 6, S. Neate of Halifax; 7, Milton Musgrave of Halifax; 8, Curry Young of Halifax; 9, Jimmy Vought of North Sydney; 10, W. N. Rice of North Sydney. Women—1, Mrs. Harold Jones; 2, Mrs. F. V. Woodbury, both of Halifax; 3, Miss Jean Wright of Bridgewater; 4, Miss Ivy Marshall of Halifax; 5, Miss K. Doyle of Halifax; 6, Miss M. McDougall of New Glasgow; 7, Miss I. Fraser of Sydney; 8, Mrs. H. Roper of Halifax; 9, Miss E. Macneil of Halifax; 10, Mrs. F. Percy of Halifax.

Timely Tips On Sport

The Abbies and Hawks battle tonight—providing the Ferry makes its regular crossing. A desperate stand will be made by the home team who are desirous of breaking the losing streak and redeeming themselves in local light. There is no question that individually many of the players rank as highly as any in the Maritime, and when "clicking" present a formidable band. In an attempt to find the much needed scoring punch Coach Jackson is sending young Frankie Currie up centre, to pivot the Kelly-Nicholson duo. Frankie has displayed some neat work on his defence rushes and yesterday morning in practice exhibited real ability in his new role. It is understood Kuhn will replace McCann in the nets. The Quakers will no doubt carry with them the highest respect for the teams comprising the "Big Four" after suffering two successive reverses—a 5-0 shellacking at the hands of the Hawks and a four all draw with the Beavers.
