

Citizens of Charlottetown

The National War Savings Committee are making a special appeal to you to contribute to the success of the War Savings Movement on the 27th of May.

A letter and a card will be left at your house and when you have studied the scheme and signed the card for whatever amount you think you can save during the year, it will be called for May 27th is the date.

REMEMBER

This is not Charity. This is a bona fide investment bearing 5 per cent interest and has the resources of the entire Dominion for Security.

MURDOCK MACKINNON,
Chairman

U. G. DAWSON,
Secretary

—FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Hall who passed away at his residence in Summerside on Sunday last, took place on Wednesday afternoon to the Church of Scotland cemetery, Wilmot, and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Hall, Netus Stanlake, Hector McQuarrie, Reuben Dickieson, of Wilmot, and John Campbell and John Ramsay of Summerside. Deceased was born in Summerside 83 years ago, and was very highly respected by all. He started the manufacturing of threshing machines and cleaners in Summerside in a factory on the site where the armory now stands, about 45 years ago, the plant was burned out and the new plant, now occupied by the Hall Manufacturing Co., was erected. He retired from business a year or two ago. He leaves to mourn one daughter, Miss Ella at home, and three sons—Hugh of Philadelphia, W. G. Hall, of Honolulu, and Harold overseas. Three sisters—Mrs. Baxter, of Summerside, Mrs. Alex Melnie of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Fenwick Lefurgey, North Bedouez, and Brewer at home. L.
