Here's How

Write a limerick about Old Dutch on the back of a label and send it to us. We will pay $5 for each one we publish.

As a cleanser no other can beat her, She makes a home so much neater, "Old Dutch" is her name, World wide is her fame And housewives with joy always greet her.

Written by Marion B. Dow, St. Stephen, N.B.

And that's more truth than poetry. Old Dutch actually goes further and lasts longer, saves work and money, polishes as it cleans, and cleans quicker without scratching. There's a reason for the superiority of Old Dutch—it's the only cleanser made with pure seismotte, a scratchless cleaning and polishing material of volcanic origin that is absolutely different in its cleaning action than anything else and therefore, in the results it gives. Brighten up your home with Old Dutch and learn for yourself why it's the largest selling cleanser in the world.

P.E.I. FAVORS WINTER FAIR—Prince Edward Island will lend its full support to the Maritime Winter Fair in 1935, was the statement made by a prominent livestock breeder and exhibitor from Charlottetown, who was in Amherst today on business. The exhibitor declared that Island breeders to a man favored the continuation of the Winter fair in 1932 and 1933, but the withdrawal of grants in other sources had prevented action. While the statement today is naturally not official it indicates that Prince Edward Island exhibitors want to see the Maritime Winter Fair restored.—Amherst News.

CONCERT AT SANATORIUM—The patients at the Sanatorium were treated to a concert Tuesday night by Miss Kathleen Hornby and a few senior pupils, assisted by Miss Mary Sinclair, who contributed two humorous readings and Miss Winifred Moran who sang two popular numbers. Miss Thelma Bura played the accompaniments. Following is the programme: Melody of Old Songs—Orchestra; Reading—Betty at the Baseball Game—Mary Sinclair; Song—Little Man You've Had a Busy Day—Winifred Moran; Sunset Land—Orchestra; Violin Solo—A Dream—Kathleen Hornby; Reading—Nora Has Her Picture Took—Mary Sinclair; The Glow-Worm—Orchestra; Song—Sylvia—Winifred Moran; Old Favorites—Orchestra. Orchestra members: First Violins—Nelle Hermans, Justin Jordan, Pauline Irlam, Betty Bruce, Ralph Rayner, Clifford Jenkins, Caroline Kenny, Helen Farquharson, Edith Macdonald; Second Violins—Winifred Moran, Billy Rogers; Cello, Jim Hornby.

CATHOLIC POETRY UNIT—Membership in the Catholic Poetry Unit has shown a gratifying increase since the first meeting in September, and promises to outgrow the organizer's most sanguine expectations. The third meeting, held November 4th, proved beyond doubt that this group is rich in poetic talent, and that all are interested in some form of creative work. The poems submitted anonymously, and read aloud by a member selected by the chairman, disclosed exceptional ability and a fine discrimination in theme. The group has not yet arrived at the helpful stage of constructive criticism. This will come later when the constraint of newness yields to the free and easy exchange of ideas necessary to successful literary units. The most important feature of the evening's program was the reading of a paper by Mr. William Reddin, B.A. His subject was "The Application of Poetry to Every Day Life"; his points were enhanced by apt and, frequently, humorous quotations. His reactions to, and his impressions of New York were new and interesting, and his reading of Reddin's poem, "Pan in Wall Street" with its many mythological refer-

NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it. "For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."—Mrs. Louise Johnson (address furnished upon request).

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes. Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green packages. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." A dainty lunch was served by the ladies present after which Mrs. T. R. Cullen was called to the chair, and several speeches were made by those present, including Mr. H. H. Cox, Mr. R. R. Webster, Mrs. George Cobb, all testifying to Miss Dingwell's worth, in the districts where she taught school, and in the community where she lived. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and song after which all departed for their homes, wishing the happy young couple many years of happiness and prosperity.—(Patriot please copy).

ENJOYABLE SHOWER AT MIDGELL—On Friday evening, Oct. 26th, upwards of one hundred guests from Marie, Midgell and surrounding districts, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bowley to tender a shower to Miss George H. Dingwell, in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. J. C. MacBeth of Forest Hill, P. E. I. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with autumn foliage and pink and white and yellow and white streamers. Upon the arrival of the "bride-to-be" and while the Wedding March was being played by Mrs. Russell Webster, she was escorted to a beautifully decorated chair, over which hung a large wedding bell. Immediately after came a miniature bridal procession consisting of little Theresa Johnston and Reginald Hooper as bride and groom with little Mildred Webster and Irene Hooper attendants, while Jean Webster and Grace Dingwell followed immediately after, carrying a nicely trimmed basket, laden with valuable and useful gifts of silver, china, linen and glassware. Mrs. T. R. Cullen assisted by Mrs. A. J. Webster opened the parcels while Mrs. W. F. Bowley read the many well wishing and humorous verses. Although taken by surprise, Miss Dingwell in a few well chosen words thanked the people after

Spent $4,000 On Wedding

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—How an elderly couple, proprietors of Snack Room on Mack avenue, spent their life-long saving of 4,444 to give their only daughter the finest of weddings in fulfillment of a promise made at her birth, was revealed today for the first time. The names were not made public in deference to the wishes of the principals. It was some six months ago, the couple neatly but simply dressed, presented themselves at Detroit's largest hotel and asked for the catering manager. They piled him with questions for nearly an hour and finally gave him directions for the wedding which was to be held a week later. Some 500 guests attended the reception while 200 relatives and intimate friends sat down to breakfast, which consisted of the most expensive plate served by the hotel, the walls and ceiling of the crystal ballroom where the wedding ceremony took place were hung thickly with a string orchestra was in attendance. The following day the elderly couple again appeared and asked for the catering manager, who presented a bill for $4,000. From a thick envelope the man counted out the money, in bills mostly of small denomination. It was when the photographer who had taken pictures of the affair sought out the couple that their circumstances were revealed. The address given him turned out to be a tiny lunch room equipped with a counter and four stools. Behind the counter stood the elderly couple. They then explained how they had promised themselves at their daughter's birth to give her an elaborate wedding, even though

MIND DERANGEMENTS TRACED TO BODY ILLS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Tests indicating that many mental derangements are caused by functional disorders of the body have been announced at Boston Psychopathic Hospital. Psychiatrists at the hospital are working on a hypothesis that some misbehaviors of heart, lungs, digestive tract, glands or other organs may affect the mind; and that correction of the physiological ills may lead to mental cures. That an excess or deficiency in the body of oxygen, carbon dioxide or other gases may be one of the factors contributing to certain mental disabilities has been indicated. Incoherent patients have
