Barn and Silo Roofed with Brantford Asphalt Roofing.

Resists Fire, Sheds Water, Wears Long

Flying sparks and embers from a burning building often cause roofs near by to catch fire, especially in a dry, hot season. Under like conditions, roofs covered with

are in no danger from flying embers, because any that fall on Brantford Asphalt Roofing die out harmlessly. Build a bonfire on a roof of Brantford Asphalt Roofing and the fire will not spread and the boards underneath the roofing will be protected in a surprising manner.

If a fire starts in the interior of a building Brantford Asphalt Roofing acts as a retardant and keeps the fire from spreading. Fire chiefs and insurance companies endorse its use in the most congested cities.

Brantford Asphalt Roofing does not absorb water, but sheds the heaviest rain with ease. Acid proof and alkali proof. Reliable, durable, economical. Three weights—60 lb., 70 lb., 80 lb. per square.

Brantford Rubber Roofing

is the same quality as Brantford Asphalt, but has a smooth, rubbery surface instead of the sand. It is particularly suitable for verandah decks and floor coverings. Three weights—40 lb., 50 lb., and 60 lb. per square.

Leatheroid Roofing

FRIDAY

LIGHTING NEW CATHEDRAL.—The work of installing the electric lights in the interior of St. Dunstan's Cathedral is now in progress. It will be illuminated by about 300 lights of about 60 candle power which will add a wondrous beauty to the interior of this magnificent edifice. The fixtures for the lights were made here by Mr. L. Nocent and are splendid examples of masterly workmanship. There will be sixteen lights on each fixture. There are eleven large fixtures in all. There are six feet deep and from 4 1/2 to 5 feet in width and are each suspended from a chain. They are made in gold leaf finish. There will also be two large lights at the entrance to the Cathedral.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.—A very enjoyable evening was spent in Malpeque Hall on Thursday night, May 1st, the occasion being the opening of a large and spacious room belonging to the Malpeque Women's Institute, also a supper given to the gentlemen friends who voluntarily assisted in finishing this room. The evening passed quickly with music and songs, the songs being of "ye olden time" which were much enjoyed by all. Then came supper, gotten up as only Malpeque ladies can, after which songs were started again much to the delight of all. The National Anthem brought this very enjoyable evening to a close, every one expressing the wish that such evenings could be repeated in the near future.

ROTARY LUNCHEON.—The weekly Rotary luncheon took place yesterday at the Davies, Mr. Ed. Helm presiding. Mr. J. W. Malcom, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, who was a visitor, favored the gathering with a capital Scotch song and was heartily encored. Other visitors were Dr. McDonald, M. L. A., Mr. Appleton of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Gordon Ives, Montague, Mr. F. T. Warkis, Mr. J. W. Jones. Mayor Wright was the speaker for the occasion and gave a very interesting description of his recent trip in connection with the Red Triangle from Halifax to Vancouver. He was very pronounced in his appreciation of the effort given by the Y. M. C. A. to the returned boys. They were untrusting in their efforts to convince the boys that they were with them not only in the front line trenches, but to the very last through the reconstruction period. It was a common expression among the soldiers, "Here 'Here come the good old 'Y,' with us first, last and always. It was only those who never saw France who did the kicking. Throughout the whole trip to Edmonton Mayor Wright stated that every man of the troop train crew included, acted the gentleman. Not one making a mis-step. His Worship made the trip from Edmonton to the coast on business and pleasure at his own expense. The first stop was at Banff, where he was entertained by a former citizen, Mr. Ewen Stewart. They visited the National Park, C. P. R. Hotel, Sulphur Springs and Military Hospital. Words he said, would be inadequate to describe the beauty of these wonderful summer resorts. The fact that 4,600 tourists took advantage of the hot spring baths in 1918 gives some idea of the popularity of the place. The most interesting part of the Rockies, Golden Mouth of Kicking Horse Pass, Mount Stephen, Mount McDonald and Mount Cathedral, (over 3,000 feet above sea level) the beauties of Lake Louise and Field have to be seen to be appreciated. Field and Hector tunnel are triumphs of engineering skill, reducing the grades from 5.10 to 2.30. Hell's Gate and Fraser Canon would hold one spell-bound. The north Thompson with its blue waters and the Fraser's muddy flow where they converged were exceptionally picturesque. Mayor Wright had the pleasure of meeting very many Islanders in all the principal cities of the West which seemed to bring the East and West very closely together.

Mary Jane Wood (nee Judson), widow of the late Howard Wood of Bay Fortune (Red House), and formerly of Alexandra, Lot 49, died on the 13th day of April, at the home of her daughter, Beatrice, Mrs. Wallace Dingwell, who nursed her in her final illness, and whose loving care made her ending earthly days as comfortable as was possible.

She was the last surviving member of the family of the late William Judson, of Alexandra,—11 in number. Born in 1838 on the Judson homestead in Alexandra, her husband and family moved to Red House, where she spent most of the remaining years of her life. Visited the United States several times. She with her husband, became a member of the Alexandra Baptist church 42 years ago, and in which cemetery her remains were laid to rest on the 16th of April, 1919.

Her artistic ideas as well as utility were exemplified in knitting and many were the premiums won at various county and provincial exhibitions. She was very busy and anxious, and had a large number of relatives including grandsons in military service during the war.

A natural nurse her services were in requisition where pain and sorrow laid a heavy load, and her kindly expression and genial personality were a mental tonic to the suffering in the sick room.

Her immediate family were: Etta, (Mrs. Herbert Dingwell) in New Bedford; J. J. Wallace, on the old homestead; George, Red House, Fortune; Mary Beatrice (Mrs. Wallace Dingwell) in Bay Fortune; Melvin, in Farmington; Susie (Mrs. Frank McKee) East Boston, Mass.; Lee in New York; all living.

"She went about doing good."

Mr. Flaiger was born in Charlottetown where he resided until twenty years ago when he removed with his wife (Miss Mason) and family to Pictou. He was a quiet unassuming man of excellent character and had many friends here who will regret to learn of his demise. His widow and family of four daughters and two sons are left to cherish his memory. His aged mother is still living here with her son Charles Flaiger, Mrs. D. A. Bruce is a sister and Mr. Thomas Flaiger of Medicine Hat, Alta., is a brother of the deceased. To the bereaved family and relatives is extended sincere sympathy.

On Thursday morning, May 1st, after a brief illness of pneumonia, Frances Louise Pigott, beloved wife of Harry W. Davison, of St. Peter's Harbor fell asleep in Jesus. Mrs. Davison was born at Savage Harbor on August 5th, 1884, the second daughter of Mr. Frederick Pigott of that place. She was a graduate of the Butler Hospital in Providence, R. I., and held a certificate from the Nursing and Child's Hospital, New York. She will be greatly missed and deeply mourned not only in the home, but by a large circle of friends for her kindly ministrations to those in sickness and trouble will long be remembered. Her untimely death has saddened the community. The respect in which she was held and the sympathy felt for her sorrowing husband and family friends was shown by the large number who attended the funeral services which were conducted by the Rev. J. H. Bell, of St. Peter's. Besides the Convention Committee to include Prothonotary, and other officials of the Provincial Liberal opposition.
