In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mrs. William R. Cameron, who departed this life May 2nd, 1944.
2nd, 1944.

Gone from us but leaving memories
Death can never take away,
Memories that will ever linger
While upon this earth we stay.
We cannot clasp your hand dear Lulu
Your face we cannot see,
But let this little token,
Tell that we still think of you.

Ever Remembered by Mother.

In Memoriam

In fond and loving memory of Dr. A. B. Stevenson, who passed away May 2nd, 1947.

Tonight the stars are gleaming
On a lonely silent grave
Where sleeps in dreamless slumber
One we loved, but could not save.

May heaven's winds blow softly
O'er that sweet and hallowed spot.
Where one we loved lies sleeping
Who will never be forgot.

Ever Remembered by Wife and Family.

In Memoriam

In fond and loving memory of our dear Son and Brother, Marven Earle Hill, who was drowned at French River on May 2nd, 1947.

You little thought when leaving home
You would no more return
That soon you'd fill a lonely grave
And leave us home to mourn.
We know not how you suffered,
We did not see you die
We only knew you passed away
And never said good-bye.
Peaceful be thy rest dear Marven
It is sweet to breathe your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
So quick, so quiet was the call,
Your sudden death surprised us all.

Ever Remembered by Mother and Father, Sisters and Brothers.

In Memoriam

In sad and loving memory of our darling daughter and sister, Mrs. Reg. Morrison who departed this life May 1st, 1946.

Just when your life was brightest
Just when your years were best
You were called from this world of sorrow
To a home of eternal rest.
Oh what would we give to hear your voice
And see your smile once more
Or hear that familiar footstep
As we did in days of yore.
It's so lonesome here without you
And sad the weary way
For life can never be the same
Since you were called away.
They say time is a healer
And helps us to forget
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.

Sadly Missed and Fondly Remembered by Mother, Dad and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Preston Wallace Harding, who lost his life at New London, May 2nd, 1947.

Though his smile is gone forever
And his voice we cannot hear
We shall never lose sweet memories
Of the one we loved so dear.

Inserted by Father and Sister Mary.

ELMER H. FOSTER

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Friday, March 26th, of Elmer H. Foster, prominent Charlottetown contractor, in his fifty-fourth year. Although not in good health for some time, he continued to carry on his work until his sudden illness several weeks ago.

Born at Dunstaffnage, P. E. I., Mr. Foster came to Charlottetown when a young man where he engaged in the building trade. He later entered into business on his own, and designed and built many fine homes in Charlottetown and surrounding districts, which now stand as monuments to his name.

Several years ago he entered into partnership with Mr. Stanley Bryant, of this City, and carried on in this capacity until his death.

He leaves to mourn his wife, formerly Edith MacKay of Charlottetown; two sons, Eric and Everett; and two daughters, June and Lois, all of Charlottetown; also his mother, Mrs. Amanda Foster of Dunstaffnage; three brothers, Edley of Charlottetown, and Harry and John of Dunstaffnage; five sisters, Ella, Mrs. Russell Pickard of Charlottetown; Pearl, Mrs. John MacCracken of Methune, Mass.; Sylva, Mrs. Harry Ellis of Donaldston; Leah, Mrs. John Bell of Apopka, Florida; and Edith, Mrs. Alexander Walsh, of Dunstaffnage.

The large crowd in attendance, and the many beautiful floral tributes, testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

New Zealand Still Rationing Its Butter

HALIFAX, April 29—(CP)—Although New Zealand is the largest butter exporter in the world, the precious stuff is rationed there to ensure a regular supply to Britain.

James Thorne, High Commissioner to Canada from the Pacific Dominion, told a Maritime Labor Institute convention here yesterday that this policy was typical of New Zealand's "spirit of co-operation" in internal and world affairs.

Speaking at a final session of the Institute's annual meeting, Mr. Thorne also outlined New Zealand's health services to which everyone in the country is entitled.

He said these and other services were supported by taxes, "not higher than those of Canada," derived from revenue from state owned enterprises such as railways, telephones, telegraphs and fire insurance. They were further supported by a high productivity of the main industries.

"Workers have to remember," said Mr. Thorne, "that only by the production of wealth and services can social benefits be made possible and this is the obligation that is on them."

High executive officers of the Canadian Congress of Labor and the American Federation of Labor also spoke at the meeting of the Institute, which studies Maritime labor problems.

Gleanings From Rural District New Glasgow

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Bulman paid a flying visit to the village recently.

A number of bad flue fires have occurred in this vicinity recently. It is a timely warning that all flues should be thoroughly cleaned before the dry season.

The many friends of Herbert Moore, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore, will be pleased to learn he is doing nicely after having an appendix operation in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Mrs. Chester Simpson has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth Bagnall and Mr. Bagnall. She was accompanied on her return by Mrs. Everett Bearisto and little daughter.

An unfortunate accident on Monday night while the wind was blowing high, when Mr. Murray Orr went out to his brooder house to look at the chicks before retiring, to his surprise and utter disappointment, the stove seemed to have exploded and the building was on fire and full of smoke which smothered the little chicks, leaving only fifty out of four hundred and fifty. However, Mr. and Mrs. Orr are thankful it was no worse. And they now have new baby ones to take their place.

The Mayfield Women's Institute held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. James Houston. The president in the chair. Meeting opened in usual form. Roll call answered with the exchange of flower slips by nine members and one visitor. Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted. Correspondence received Treasurer gave a financial report, which was very satisfactory. Cups for school arrived. One box was reported sent to a shut-in. All bills were ordered paid. Secretary ordered to write Mr. Jelly, school supervisor, regarding placing a well and pump in school yard, requesting him to meet with the school board on his next visit. Mrs. Blair Andrew and Mrs. Warfield Orr were appointed to pack box to send to the adopted institute in England. Special collection to be taken for same. Reports from committees were received. New committees appointed were: School, Mrs. Warfield Orr and Mrs. Willard Nicholson. Sick, Mrs. Willard McDonald and Mrs. David Johnston. Lunch, Mrs. David Johnston and Mrs. Thomas Butler. The questionnaire on a modern farm home was filled out. Mrs. McDonald who had carefully planned the review in First Aid, will have charge of same at next meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. Johnston. The singing of the King closed the meeting. Mrs. Houston was pianist. A dainty lunch was served by committee in charge.

Friends were shocked to learn of the passing of Mrs. Cyrus Smith in the early hours of Sunday morning, April 25th. Although she had not been in good health for a little while, no one realized her condition was serious, until on the above mentioned date, her soul went to be with her heavenly Father. Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Nettie Bagnall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bagnall, lived her life in the beautiful old home on the River Clyde. She was a woman that was loved by all for her gentle and kindly manner and Christian fortitude. She united with the Church of Christ while in her youth, and gave of her talent as organist of the New Glasgow Church for a number of years, until, due to an accident which made her a semi-invalid, she was unable to attend. She will be missed especially in the home where her counsel was ever sought, and her loving care went out to its members, which include a sorrowing husband who is in ill-health; her only son Richard, and her daughter-in-law, and three grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Simpson of Ohio, also survives to mourn her passing. The funeral service was held on Tuesday from her late residence, when, despite the bad roads, a large gathering assembled. Rev. Dunbar of Charlottetown conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. W. J. McLeod. At the request of the departed, her cousin, Mrs. Murdock McLeod had charge of the music. Hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Have Thine Own Way". Mr. Murdock McLeod rendered that beautiful solo, "Just Beyond the Sunset." The burial was in charge of Mr. James E. Andrews. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Arch. Johnston, Will Johnston, George Dickieson, Herbert Stevenson, Orville Stead and Lorne Stevenson. Beautiful flowers bore silent testimony of the loved one passed beyond this vale of tears.

Mr. George Andrew spent the week-end at his home.

Mr. Millar Orr was a visitor to the Capital on Monday.

Mr. Arnold Dickieson, P. W. C. student, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickieson.

Mr. Chalmers Laird returned home on Thursday, and bespeaks in glowing terms of the care given him while in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stevenson motored to the City on Saturday and were accompanied on their return by Mr. Edwin Stevenson, who spent the week-end with his family here.

In spite of the stormy weather a number from this district enjoyed the fun parade on Monday night, although for some the fun was spoiled as they were unable to get all the way home that night due to the heavy snow drifts, quite winterish for the last of April.

The New Glasgow folk had the privilege of enjoying the concert put on by Hunter River Young People's Union. The accompanists were Mr. William Murchison and Mr. Merrill Nicholson at the organ while Mr. Harold McDonald accompanied with the guitar, and also Lloyd Cousins. The program was as follows: Opening chorus; solo, by Miss Mary Muttart, (encored); duet, by Lloyd Cousins and Clayton Smith, (encored); playette, "Wooing Of Winnie"; monologue, Miss Mary Muttart, (encored); solo, Miss Eileen Chappell (encored); playette, Malcolm Matheson and Eleanor Nicholson, (encored). The members representing the different countries, each gave a song representing their countries, and at the close all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne, which left a message to the listeners. Mr. Fulton Robertson was the capable chairman, and he also auctioned some pies, and with the sale of fudge the proceeds were very satisfactory which go to the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. W. J. McLeod extended thanks to the players, after which lunch was served to those taking part.—N.

Progress Made On New Labor Code

OTTAWA, April 29 — (CP) — The Commons industrial relations committee set a good pace today in approving clauses of the Government's new labor code. But it bogged down on procedure for certifying Unions as bargaining agents.

Members of the big committee were still debating the issue when they rose for the day.

Before that, the committee had approved eight clauses of the code and made these amendments:

1. Tightened up the provisions against company-dominated Unions.

2. Defined a collective agreement as one dealing with terms or conditions of employment, including rates of pay and hours of work.

The members also received a telegram from the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.) urging it to put "teeth" in the code to deal with companies that "defy the law." This stemmed from the C.S.U.'s dispute with Great Lakes shipping companies that have refused to negotiate contracts with that Union.
