Police Quell Disturbance As Bruins Take Bruising Game From Maroons 6-3

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, Dec. 29.—The battling Bruins of Boston were a long stride forward tonight in their drive to catch the leaders of the United States section by winning a 6-3 decision over Montreal Maroons in a scrappy National Hockey League game here last night that saw Maroons lose ground to Toronto, first place holders in the Canadian section.

Three fast and clever Boston breakaway plays in the third period for goals by Cooney Welland, Charlie Sands and Bill Cowley spelled victory for Boston in a game that always threatened to develop into a free-for-all and was only kept in check by 16 penalties including two 10-minute banishments.

Beaten three times in the first period, by Hooley Smith and Rus Blinco, who scored twice, goalie Tiny Thompson played shutout hockey for two periods of torrid Montreal attacks to earn major honors in one of the fastest games here this year. Thompson reached heights while a weakened Boston defence, with Babe Siebert off for 10 minutes, let Maroons crowd in on him for almost certain goals.

The game had drama on and off the ice. In the second period two referees' decisions went against Maroons, once when a Boston goal was allowed over the decision of the goal judge and again when Maroons netted the puck but a goal was not allowed due to interference.

In the interval an angry crowd milled around the officials' room in protest. A short lived fight broke out in which an usher lost a tooth and referee Bill Stewart offered to take on the disputants one by one. A stalwart band of police took control of the situation. The referees were escorted from the rink by police at the end of the game for protection.

The tying goal in the second period, by Paul Runge, struck the left side and rebounded. The goal judge ruled it had hit the post and did not turn on his light but referee Billy Bell, who was on top of the play, saw it as striking inside the post and centred the puck.

Boston's first goal in the third period came while Teddy Graham was off. Clapper broke fast and sent the puck across to Welland. With no Maroon close to him the little centre raced in to beat Billy Beveridge on a rising shot.

Then Boston scored during a period of five-man hockey while Smith and Jenkins were off. Sands and Runge worked the puck into position for Sands to rife it home. After the visitors weathered a storm with Siebert and Max Kaminsky off together for tripping the final goal was scored by Cowley on a play with Jenkins who shot and Cowley lifted home the rebound.

Just before the game ended Stew Evans boarded Cowley heavily. He fell with a sickening thud and was aided from the rink. Later it was reported the young centre had strained his shoulder and been shaken up.

Conny Smythe's big hockey machine did everything but win the Stanley Cup. And the Leafs made their farewell with appropriate gestures, trouncing New York Rangers 9-3 in a National Hockey League engagement here last night.

In the open going as Rangers like it, the N. H. L. champions produced a vastly superior shooting department, featuring the sensational newcomers to stardom, Buzz Boll and Bill Thoms, and the League's hardest-driving wingmen, Harvey Jackson and Charlie Conacher.

The newly-risen combination of Boll and Thoms, shooting towards the top of the scoring scramble, stood out in Toronto's one-sided victory over Rangers along with goalie Hainsworth. Boll scored three goals, all on passes from Thoms, and Thoms contributed an assist to another goal.

But it was Hainsworth who kept Rangers from piling up a score on their own behalf in the wide-open contest. Lester Patrick's bluehirts missed a dozen or more good scoring chances because the veteran netman made brilliant blocks. Down at the other end, Dave Kerr also put on a fine show but his protection was far less effective.

The Leafs took a 2-0 lead in the first period on goals by the "kids," Harvey Jackson and Conacher. Happy Day and Ott Heller were serving penalties when the Busher unleashed a low backhand drive from 20 feet out that Kerr failed to see. Little more than a minute later Conacher circled the New York cage and poked in the second goal as he came around.

Boll and Thoms opened their campaign at the start of the second stanza, combining for a pretty goal in 32 seconds after Thoms had poked the puck away from Frank Boucher at centre. Ching Johnson batted in the first Ranger goal from a scramble a minute and a half later, but around mid-session the Leafs got two more.

Both plays were started by Andy Blair. The Lanky defenceman passed to Thoms who passed to Red Horner in the goalmouth for the first. Blair shook Conacher loose for the second, big Charlie feeding Harvey Jackson for the tally. In the last minute of the period Cecil Dillon made the score 5-2.

The third stanza was 39 seconds old when Thoms passed out from the side of the goal to Boll who slipped the puck into the corner of the net. Right back came this brilliant pair to score again. Boll lining a short-range shot past Kerr on Thoms' pass.

After Butch Keeling had scored for Rangers on a double pass from Charlie Mason and Heller, the Leafs finished with two more. Happy Day got one after pushing the puck away from Earl Seibert and Art Jackson banged in the other.

HALIFAX, Dec. 29.—Eddie Wentstob, Calgary's "fighting cowboy," returned to Canada Saturday night from England where he bested some of the British Empire's best heavyweights.

The Canadian had fights against Eddie Phillips, claimant to the British Empire crown; Ambrose Palmer, Australian heavyweight champion; Ben Ford, billed as the South African title-holder; and Ernie Selig, German light-heavyweight titlist who is touring the United States.

Asked why he left Great Britain, Wentstob said "the climate doesn't agree with me."

"But for that, I'd still be over there," the Canadian fighter asserted. "I never hope to meet a finer bunch of sportsmen."

"As for the fighters—everyone is a clever boxer, but I don't think they have the stamina."

DETROIT, Dec. 29.—Boston's improved Bruins defeated Detroit Red Wings 4-3 here tonight before 10,000 fans. Bill Cowley, former Halifax Wolverine, scored an overtime-period goal to decide the fast National Hockey League game.

The tussle was a thrilling exhibition of wide-open hockey. The Bruins gave Manager Jack Adams no need to repeat his complaint of last week that most teams played defensive hockey here. Frank Patrick's Boston band went at it fire and tongs and the Detroit skaters answered them in kind.

The winning goal play was started by Peg O'Neill, who reeled right wing and assisted as he crossed to Cowley. When Cowley, a young Ottawa, beat goalie Norm Smith cleanly he made it a gala night for players from the Canadian capital. Two of Detroit's earlier goals were supplied by Ottavians, Ebbie Goodfellow and chubby Hee Kilrea.

Boston's first line of Welland, Clapper and Beattie were responsible for the first three Bruin scores. Clapper opened the scoring in the first period, with Barry tying the score in the second only to have Welland put Boston out in front again. Clapper bagged his second goal early in the third stanza, with the elder Kilrea and Goodfellow then scoring to prolong the game.

Lewis and Graham drew majors for trading a few harmless punches in the opening period.

Lineup—
Boston: Goal, Thompson; defence, Jenkins, Selbert; forwards, Welland, Clapper, Beattie; subs, Sands, Motter, O'Neill, Kaminsky, Duguid, Cowley, Runge, Graham, Davie.
Detroit: Goal, Smith; defence, Young, McDonald; forwards, W. Kilrea, Kelly, H. Kilrea; subs, Howe, Barry, Sorrell, Annie, Brunette, Goodfellow, Bowman, Lewis.
Officials: W. J. Stewart and Eduard Lalonde.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Joe L. S. the un-urried puncher from Detroit whose unbroken series of triumphs in 1935 lifted boxing from the depths, was placed at the head of the world's heavy-weight list today in the annual rankings published by "The Ring" boxing magazine.

Louis not only was rated above Champion Jimmy Braddock but was given credit for a large share of the year's outstanding performances as well as for providing the impetus that put the sport back on a "big time" basis.

Only one champion other than Braddock failed to win top ranking in the selections made by Nat Fleischer and Eddie Borden, editors of "The Ring," on the basis of a poll to which 131 sports writers contributed. Small Montana, Filipino flyweight who won the title from Midget Wolgast, was placed second to Benny Lynch of Scotland in his class although the two were grouped together at the top on the ranking.

In their respective classes the Canadians Jimmy McLarnin, Frank Battaglia and Al McCoy are ranked in group two.

The ratings separate the boxers on various divisions into groups then lists them within these groups in the order of their comparative rankings. The performers in each group are rated close together in ability and in many cases as being equal.

Louis stands all alone in group one of the heavyweights while Braddock is given sole possession of group two.

The third group of heavyweights is composed of Max Schmeling of Germany and Primo Carnera of Italy, both former champions, who are considered about equal.

The leading rankings in other divisions:
Light heavyweight: Group one, John Henry Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz., and Maxie Rosenbloom, New York. Group two, Jock McAvoy, England; Al McCoy, Montreal and Boston; Bob Olin, New York; and Ambrose Palmer, Australia.
Middleweight: Group one, Marcel Thill, France; Group two, Freddy Steig, Tacoma, Wash.; Lou Brown, Illard, Worcester, Mass.; Babe Risko, Syracuse, N. S., recognized as champion in the United States and Frank Battaglia, Winnipeg.
Welterweight: Group one, Barney Ross, Chicago; group two, Bap Van Klaveren, Holland; Jack Carroll, Australia; and Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver.
Lightweight: Group one, Tony Canzoneri, Group two, Lou Ambrose, Herkimer, N. Y., Wesley Ramey, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Frank Kilek, San Francisco.
Featherweight: Group one, Freddy Miller, Cincinnati; group two, Maurice Holtzer, France; Baby Arizmendi, Mexico; and Henry Armstrong, Los Angeles.
Bantamweight: Group one, Balcazar Sanchell, Spain; Sixto Escobar, Puerto Rico; and Lou Escalera, New York.
Flyweight: Group one, Benny Lynch, Scotland, and Small Montana, Philippines. Group two, Jackie Brown, England; Joe Mendola, Philippines; Valentin Anglemann, France; Tuffy Pierpont, Oakland, Calif.; and Maurice Huguenin, France.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—New York Americans went into a tie for second place in the International division of the National Hockey League tonight when they downed the hapless Montreal Canadiens 5-1 on the ice of Madison Square Garden.

A gathering of 12,000 saw the fast-passing Amerks penetrate the less experienced Canadiens' defences almost at will. The flying Frenchmen were guilty of numerous offside and time and again, when they sent five men up the ice, an American player skated away with the puck.

Art Chapman opened the scoring for the Americans after a combination play with Sweeney Schriner and Red Dutton at 14:15 of the first period. In the second period Americans scored two more, by Dutton and Hal Cotton, but Canadiens managed to sandwich one in between when Pete Lepine advanced the disc into scoring territory and then passed to LeRoy Goldsworthy for the visitors only tally.

The third period was something of a parade for the Amerks. After some listless playing in the early stages when they seemed to be willing to hang back on their lead, Joe Jerva passed to Schriner in mid ice and the latter outtraced the entire Canadiens team which was on the attack at the time, and whistled one in shoulder high. The same play was re-enacted a short time later with Nels Stewart taking Jerva's role and Dutton running it home for his second score of the game.

Dutton's first score was made on a deliberate shot from the boards with Canadiens players ganged near the goal. He took aim and sent the rubber in clean,

Winnipeg Score 5-4 Win Over Olympic Team

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
WINNIPEG, Dec. 29.—Port Arthur's augmented Bear Cats, Canada's Olympic representatives, left here for home today following their even break in a two-game exhibition series here with Winnipeg, lone Manitoba entrant in the Manitoba-Thunder Bay senior hockey league.

In a high-geared battle, Bear Cats waged an uphill fight all the way before going down to a 5-4 defeat last night as Winnipeg turned back a furious last minute assault. The Olympic team took the first encounter Thursday night 1-0.

Winnipeg took the lead in the first period on goals by Burr Keenan and Dan Cheyne, but their lead was short-lived. Port Arthur tied the count in the first four minutes of the second period, getting their first goal while Hugh Sutherland, Winnipeg defenceman, rested in the penalty box and the tying counter on a power play. Alex Sinclair, Port Arthur pivot and Ernie Mosher, Halifax centreman, were the marksmen.

Keeping on the offensive, Winnipeg ran in three more goals before the Maple Leaf players again found the twine behind Jerry O'Brien in a first-period goal. Joe Shack, Romeo Rivers and Jackie Jackson were the scorers.

Ralph St. Germain, Montreal centre, who made his first appearance with the Olympic team, made a solo rush and poked out a corner for his goal. The final Port Arthur counter came in the last minute of play. Bill Thompson, Port Arthur right winger, pulled goalie O'Brien out of a position and flipped the rubber over his outstretched body into the net.

Art Chapman opened the scoring for the Americans after a combination play with Sweeney Schriner and Red Dutton at 14:15 of the first period. In the second period Americans scored two more, by Dutton and Hal Cotton, but Canadiens managed to sandwich one in between when Pete Lepine advanced the disc into scoring territory and then passed to LeRoy Goldsworthy for the visitors only tally.

The third period was something of a parade for the Amerks. After some listless playing in the early stages when they seemed to be willing to hang back on their lead, Joe Jerva passed to Schriner in mid ice and the latter outtraced the entire Canadiens team which was on the attack at the time, and whistled one in shoulder high. The same play was re-enacted a short time later with Nels Stewart taking Jerva's role and Dutton running it home for his second score of the game.

Dutton's first score was made on a deliberate shot from the boards with Canadiens players ganged near the goal. He took aim and sent the rubber in clean,

Winnipeg Score 5-4 Win Over Olympic Team

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
WINNIPEG, Dec. 29.—Port Arthur's augmented Bear Cats, Canada's Olympic representatives, left here for home today following their even break in a two-game exhibition series here with Winnipeg, lone Manitoba entrant in the Manitoba-Thunder Bay senior hockey league.

In a high-geared battle, Bear Cats waged an uphill fight all the way before going down to a 5-4 defeat last night as Winnipeg turned back a furious last minute assault. The Olympic team took the first encounter Thursday night 1-0.

Winnipeg took the lead in the first period on goals by Burr Keenan and Dan Cheyne, but their lead was short-lived. Port Arthur tied the count in the first four minutes of the second period, getting their first goal while Hugh Sutherland, Winnipeg defenceman, rested in the penalty box and the tying counter on a power play. Alex Sinclair, Port Arthur pivot and Ernie Mosher, Halifax centreman, were the marksmen.

Keeping on the offensive, Winnipeg ran in three more goals before the Maple Leaf players again found the twine behind Jerry O'Brien in a first-period goal. Joe Shack, Romeo Rivers and Jackie Jackson were the scorers.

Ralph St. Germain, Montreal centre, who made his first appearance with the Olympic team, made a solo rush and poked out a corner for his goal. The final Port Arthur counter came in the last minute of play. Bill Thompson, Port
