O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. Archie Campbell, Calgary, Alta., is a welcome visitor to Brae where he is spending his vacation.

Mr. Donald Gillis of Dorchester, Mass. is visiting his mother Mrs. Naomi Gillis, Springfield, West.

After an enjoyable vacation spent at her home in River Heights, N.S., Miss Myrtle Wilson has returned to her duties as the teacher of the Milo School.

Mrs. Harry Adams, Knutsford, underwent an operation at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on Nov. 7. Her many friends wish her a speedy convalescence.

A very successful "Pot-Luck" supper was held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 8th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Barbour and Mrs. MacFadyen in Brae, sponsored by the Brae United Church Young People's Union.

Services in Alberton and West Point Presbyterian Churches were conducted on Sunday by Rev. D. G. Seaton, while the Minister, Rev. G. B. Cunningham was guest speaker at the anniversary services at Sackville and Port Elgin. Rev. Mr. Seaton and Mrs. Seaton were week-end guests at the Manse in Alberton.

The Springfield West Baptist Women's Missionary Society held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Melvin Ellis, O'Leary, on Nov. 1. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Neil Boulter, president, presided. The theme was "Crusade Evangelism." Mrs. England and Mrs. C. O. Howlett spoke on Bolivian Conference. There was a Circle of Prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Barbour of Brae motored to Dalhousie, N. B., en route to Gaspe. At Dalhousie they encountered heavy snow, necessitating the use of the snow-plow, so they decided they would not venture beyond Dalhousie. They left on Friday and returned on Sunday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. Yeo of Lot 16.

The Mission Circle of O'Leary United Church met at the Manse on Monday night, Nov. 7 with the president, Mrs. Lewis Bernard presiding. There was a large attendance. A paper on Temperance was given by Mrs. Herbert Vatcher and a paper on Stewardship by Mrs. E. W. Turner. The ladies decided to hold a Pot-Luck Supper on Nov. 23rd at the Church. Miss Eva J. MacLennan conducted a fine worship period.

The Women's Missionary Society of Alberton United Church held their annual Thanksgiving service which was conducted by Mrs. A. C. Green who gave a splendid message, assisted by Mrs. Hodgson and Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick. The film, "Western Hands Are Sure", was shown by Henry Clarke, depicting the work of Dr. Archer and his associates at the Mission Hospital at Lamont, Alta. The whole service was very impressive.

Rev. John Jarvie, Sackville, N.B., field secretary for Christian Education of the United Church in the Maritime Conference was the guest speaker at the Rally Day service of the Alberton United Church on Sunday morning. The theme of the service was "He shall have Dominion." The Minister, Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick, presided and a number of Sunday School children took part. Certificates for reciting the Primary Catechism were awarded to Frances Currie and Belle Wilkie.

The O'Leary Athletic Association held its Annual meeting on Wed. night Nov. 9 in the O'Leary Hall. Dr. George Dewar was Chairman and Ralph Oton was secretary. The following officers were elected: hon president—Up-ton Seaman, president—Dr. George Dewar, vice-president—E. W. Turner, secretary-treasurer—Arthur Shelton. Tenders will be called for the operation of the rink and tenders will also be called for janitor of the rink. A number of directors were also appointed.

On Nov. 1 Rev. J. S. Clarke, B. A., general secretary of the Board of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was the special speaker at the Alberton Presbyterian Church. The rally was for all Elders and Sunday School teachers in the western part of P. E. I. The minister, Rev. G. B. Cunningham conducted the worship service with Rev. W. A. Young of the Home Valley as organist. Rev. Mr. Clarke was heard in a splendid message covering all phases of Sunday School work.

Mr. Bramwell Chandler, Charlottetown, of the Dept. of Education, Public Libraries Division, met with the O'Leary Library Committee on Nov. 10th. Capt. Chandler spoke about the aid that the Provincial Government will give to libraries, dollar for dollar up to a maximum of $500. The O'Leary Library, which for many years has been housed in the upstairs of a building owned by the Orange Lodge, will shortly be moved downstairs. Considerable work has been done to make the downstairs suitable. Much credit is due the generosity of the Orange Lodge which has let the library use the upstairs for so many years free and is now prepared to lease the downstairs for a long period of years.

Members of the Committee are Rev. W. G. Dickson, Chairman; Mrs. E. W. Turner, secretary; Dr. George Dewar; Mr. P. N. Pate; and Rev. G. O. H. Hest. The capable and efficient Librarian is Mrs. John McSheeh. The O'Leary Library is centrally located and serves thirty-two

Tignish

Mrs. Alphonse Arsenault, Nail Pond, has gone to Halifax, N.S., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Richard Knox and Mr. Knox.

Friends of Mr. Urbain M. Gaudet will be pleased to know he is recovering from his recent illness and hope he will soon be as well as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Keough and Ralph and Ray Keough, Norway, were visitors to Summerside one day last week.

Mrs. Jordan Ellsworth, Waterford, has gone to Somerville, Mass., to spend a month with her sister, Mrs. B. R. Johnston and Mr. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Handrahan, Norway, went to Charlottetown last Saturday and plan to spend a week with their daughter, Mrs. John Connolly and Mr. Connolly.

Miss Noreen Johnston has returned to her home in Tignish after a pleasant two weeks' visit with her brother, Dr. Roy Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, Greenfield, Massachusetts.

Mr. Lorne Knox motored from Halifax last week and spent five days visiting his father, Mr. James Knox, and his brother, Mr. Leslie Knox and Mrs. Knox, Skinner's Pond.

Mrs. Waldo McCloskey and children, Margaret Ann and Dennis of Chatham, N. B., who are visiting Mrs. McCloskey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cahill, Kildare, spent the past week-end at Tignish, with her sister, Mrs. Gerald Handrahan and Mrs. Handrahan.

Mr. Omer Bernard, Tignish, motored to Charlottetown last week and spent the day with his parents. His Honor Lieutenant-Governor J. A. Bernard and Mrs. Bernard, Mr. Bernard was accompanied on the trip by Mr. Paul Kinch who visited with his sister, Miss Jeanette Kinch.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Richard motored from Lawrence, Mass., arriving in Tignish on Saturday and left on return for Massachusetts Monday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Richard's aunt, Mrs. Joseph A. Gaudet, St. Roch. Mrs. Gaudet plans on spending the next six months in the New England States.

It was with deep regret the residents of Tignish received the sad news of the death of Mrs. James Crawford in Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Crawford was before her marriage Miss Bertille Nelligan, daughter of the late Thomas Nelligan and Jane Donahue of Norway. Mrs. Crawford was a graduate of Prince of Wales College and for a number of years prior to going to the United States was one of the Island's very capable school teachers. She leaves to mourn her husband and four sons and a sister, all residing in Massachusetts, and another sister, Rev. Sister of the Resurrection, Superior of Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown.

The marriage of Mr. Gerald Gallant, Ascension, and Miss Rita Handrahan, Peterville, took place on the morning of November 3rd at an eight o'clock nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. J. A. MacDonald, P.P., in the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish. Their attendants were Mr. Jude Gallant and Miss Jane Handrahan. A dinner was served to the bridal party and their relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Handrahan. In the evening a supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gallant, parents of the groom, after which the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. The newly-weds received many beautiful gifts and expressions of congratulation from their many friends and their Tignish friends join in wishing them many years of happiness.

The Home and School Association of Tignish sponsored a party for the Tignish school children on Halloween night in the St. Mary's Parish Hall. A large crowd of children were in attendance and enjoyed an evening of fun. Apples and candy prizes were given to the winners of the different games, and in addition each child received an apple and a bag of candy as they came in. A film "King of the Turf", was shown as the concluding number for the evening, and this was greatly enjoyed. At 10:30 the youngsters returned to their homes tired but happy, and all of them vowing it was a better way to spend Halloween night than roaming through the village playing pranks. Credit for the success of this party goes to Mr. John Cameron, president of the Home and School Association and to the treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Walsh, who both spent many hours of planning and work before the party was given.

Freetown Notes

Miss Fidessa Reeves of the nursing staff of Prince County Hospital spent the weekend at her home in South Freetown.

The death of Mrs. Benjamin's Condon of Kensington occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Friday, Nov. 4th after a lengthy illness. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Condon and family in their sad bereavement. Friends are invited to learn that Miss Adelle Jardine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jardine, is a patient in the Prince County Hospital having undergone an operation there for appendicitis on Friday. All hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Ambrose Curley and Miss Janie Curley of Freetown were recent visitors to Darnley where they attended a farewell reception for their sister, Mrs. Emma Brennan and family prior to their moving to Kensington where they intend to reside in the future.

Residents of Freetown were shocked to hear of the death of a young boy, 29-year-old London mother, against the death sentence for the "motiveless murder" of a three-year-old girl, was dismissed today. The prosecution said Mrs. Tierney first said in a statement she was present when her husband killed the child with a hammer. After being charged she confessed to the murder, but said her husband made her do it.

OAKVILLE, Ont., Nov. 14 (CP)—Police said that when they arrested Irvine Taplin, 28, a Nova Scotian, yesterday, he was just about to sit down to a meal of beans and pineapple. They charged him with breaking into the summer estate of J. Allen Ross, former president of the Canadian branch of a chewing gum company, and said they found him in the kitchen of the Ross home.

TORONTO, Nov. 14 (CP)—The United Church of Canada has sent a letter to every United Church minister in the Toronto area urging support for the movement to keep Toronto's Sunday free from professional and other forms of commercial sport.
