Continuity of Service

Oftentimes the settlement of an estate extends over a period of several years. In the case of the trust outliving the individual acting as Executor, it is at once apparent that the latter's successor is at a distinct disadvantage in that he is not conversant with the details of the estate.

This Company, appointed as your Executor is thoroughly equipped to administer your estate, and will follow the minutest detail. Our organization is such that the best possible results can be obtained.

The record of this Company's successes in the handling of estate and trust funds should be sufficient inducement for you to entrust your affairs to its careful management.
