—BARN BURNED.—In some unaccountable way the barn of Mr. R. Callicut of Halliburton caught on fire a short time ago and was burned to the ground. It so happened that Mr. Callicut had only one load of hay in the barn, which was bad enough during these days.—W.

—SCHOOL TEACHERS SCARCE.—Up to the present the outlook for teachers around O'Leary is not very encouraging. So far none are engaged for Millburn, Springfield, Greenhill, Halliburton and Glenwood. Knutsford also requires another teacher for the primary classes.—W.

—ON AUTO TOUR.—The Rev. V. Smith with Mrs. Smith and their two children arrived at Maddock on Sunday morning by auto from Waterbury, Ven. U. S. A. on a visit to Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Josiah Brooks and her brother W. E. Brooks. On their tour from the States they called on the Rev. and Mrs. E. Ramsay, N. —PROPOSED STEAMER SERVICE.—The Gulf of St. Lawrence Shipping and Trading Co., owning a number of steamers are negotiating with the Summerside Board of Trade in the matter of inaugurating a steamer service between Montreal, Quebec, P. E. Island, Cape Breton, etc. We understand says the Agriculturist that this firm buys produce, taking it to Quebec, and bringing back other merchandise. It is probable arrangements will be made to have Summerside made one of the ports of call.

—PATRIOTIC CONCERT.—A patriotic concert under the direction of three little girls—Misses Helen Peters, Florence Morris and Reta Huestis, was put on in Mr. Peter's barn Summerside on Saturday afternoon and was a great success, the following taking part in dialogues, recitations, singing, dancing etc. Hester Cushing, Evelyn Sinclair, Ollie Saunders, Jean Morris, besides the Directors. The sum of $5.00 was realized which the young ladies handed over to the Red Cross.—L.

—WOUNDED.—The following message was received by Mrs. Emma Gay, Summerside on Saturday:—"Sincerely regret to inform you No. 712759 Pte. Gay enlisted with the 105th Battalion in Summerside and went over to England in May 1917, seven months later he went over to France with the 26th Battalion and has taken part in some of the fiercest fighting.—L.

—ESTEEMED LADY DEAD.—It is with deep regret the death is chronicled of Mrs. Isabella Fortune, widow of the late Mr. Wm. T. Hunt which occurred at her residence in St. Eleanors on Friday morning. The deceased lady was 78 years of age, a native of Rothesay, Scotland, and came to the island in the year 1863 where she has since resided. She leaves to mourn three daughters, Mrs. Geo. Spink of Grand Forks, B. C., Mrs. F. M. Webster of Brooklyn, N. S.; and Miss Georgina at home; also three sons, Mr. Wm. Hunt, Mgr. of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Windsor, N. S.; Rev. —SERIOUS OFFENCE.—On Saturday evening while a resident of Springfield was coming home from O'Leary, he came across logs placed in the road with the result that a nasty accident was just escaped.
