THE LADIES' CHALLENGE CUP MATCH.—Excitement ran high Thursday evening when at the close of the Ladies' Challenge Cup Match four competitors had tied, Major Crockett, Capt. Jones, Capt. Stewart and Lieut. Shaw. After each man had fired five rounds Shaw, Crockett and Stewart were still equal, each one making four bulls and a magpie, while Jones retired. Each man was now to fire one shot by turns until the score was decided. In the next shot Lieut. Shaw retired making an inner, while his more fortunate competitors each secured a bull. It looked bad for the Major when in the next two shots he only secured a magpie and an outer, but his rival followed him with the same scoring. The long training and steady nerve of the Major now came to his rescue and in the next shot he made a bull amid cheers from his friends, Capt. Stewart following with an inner. Thus ended the most interesting and exciting match in all the series of the Association matches. Miss Edith Weeks is the fortunate young lady for whom the cup was won.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

COURT WESTMORLAND, NO 1103, CRAPAUD JULY 23th, 1902.

Mrs. Myra Trowsdale.

Dear Madam.—At a regular meeting of the above Court of Independent Order of Foresters of which your late lamented husband, Robert Trowsdale, was an honored member, it was unanimously resolved that the deepest sympathy and condolence of this Court be conveyed to you in the great loss and sad bereavement you have sustained in the death of your husband on the 20th inst. We wish to assure you that Brother Trowsdale held a high place in the confidence and respect of his fellow Foresters for his unassuming modesty, his genial cordiality, his uprightness and integrity as well as his fidelity to the principles of our Order. Your loss is ours also. We mourn with you in your great affliction and sorrow. May your Father of the fatherless, the God of all comfort give you everlasting consolation. May His grace be abundant to cheer and sustain, to support and guide you and yours until the day dawn and the shadow flee away and with the morn those angel faces smile which we have loved long since but lost awhile.

Signed by order of the Court.

Why Do You Submit To a Daily Life of Suffering from a Common Evil?

Paine's Celery Compound

Is an Infallible Cure for Distressing Summer Dyspepsia and All Digestive Trouble.

The tortures and evils of summer dyspepsia are experienced by thousands at the time. The dyspeptic's train of evils may be enumerated as follows: feelings of dizziness, intense headache, distension of the stomach, loss of flesh, difficult breathing, and the heart's action is seriously affected.

All forms of dyspepsia are quickly banished by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. The use of this marvellous medicine allays the inflammation of the nerves centered about the stomach; it opens up the sewers of the body and removes all waste matter; it cleanses the blood and restores digestive power, and promotes bodily strength and activity.

Mrs. J. B. Orr, Lennoxville, P. Q. says: "I have been a very great sufferer from dyspepsia for ten years. At times I would suffer most intensely, notwithstanding great care in dieting and the best medical help I could get. Severe attacks were always attended with very violent headaches, followed by nervousness and sleeplessness. Different physicians exhausted their skill in trying to effect a cure. Finally upon the advice of a friend, I decided to venture an experiment with Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle did me much good, and by the time I had used three bottles I was perfectly restored. I am now free from nervousness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, headache, and all the sufferings that arise from these distressing troubles."
