Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, July 21—(AP)—One minute ago:—
Mel Ott tells scribes travelling with the Giants that Bobo Newsom had been waived out of the national league before that Brooklyn rookie even started umpire Hinko, who worked the Dodgers-White Sox exhibition at Cooperstown, N. Y., makes the most of his opportunity. His chest protector carries an add for a local taxi company. Carrying the idea to its extreme, a ump in Brooklyn could advertise "see Memphis." Clark Shaughnessy, Jr. the sports scribe, reveals that Clark Shaughnessy, the football coach is writing a book - which won't reveal any secrets of the "T" formation. George Chip, the old-time middleweight champ now a watchman at a tire plant near New Castle, Pa., walks a dozen miles a day and entertains himself en route by laughing at folks who can't get along on a gallon and a half of gas a week. George never owned a car.

Navy petty officer John Clark relays this one to the "thoroughbred record" from an army buddy who just returned from Africa. Seems a month's supply of racing sheets were included in a batch of magazines sent there. So the boys conceived the idea of selecting one day's sheet, studying the form of charts and then selecting a horse apiece to back. The third extract, the next day's paper from the pile and learn whose nag had won the race. A lot of soldiers had never seen a horse race, but it didn't take them long to learn all about the racing form.
