IN MEMORIAM

MR. WM. A. MURPHY

Numerous friends in this city will learn with regret of the death of William A. Murphy, a former resident which occurred in Vancouver on Sunday, Nov. 19th, after an illness lasting since last May.

MR. ANTHONY FLYNN

In the passing of Anthony Flynn, aged 77, whose death occurred at the City Hospital at an early hour yesterday morning, Charlottetown loses one of her oldest and most respected citizens.

He ran west for some time and for some years before his retirement was on the Murray Harbor line. On July 31st, 1919, he retired under the Provisional Fund.

MAY POST GUARD FOR DRURY LANE

MANCHESTER, England, Dec. 5.—(C.P.)—It is suggested that the old-time militia guard at Drury Lane Theatre London, may be instituted again, following the decision of the Comedie Francaise in Paris to revive the old practice of having a platoon of the Municipal Guard, in full uniform, on duty in the theatre—though only for decorative effect.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for Queen's County news of local interest but not containing of a newsy nature may be inserted at a word strictly payable in advance.

FUNERAL TODAY—The funeral of the late Mr. Duncan McKenzie, Rose Valley, will take place Wednesday at one o'clock from his late residence.

CASES ADJUDGED—A Customs case and a prohibition case appearing before Magistrate Donald MacKinnon yesterday were both adjourned until December 12.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—Advertisers are requested to send in their copy so as to reach the Guardian office by 11.00 A.M., the day previous to insertion, otherwise insertion will be delayed a day.

ILL IN OTTAWA—A lady friend here will regret to hear that Mr. James T. Cumming, of New Glasgow, N.S., C.N.R. director, has been quite seriously ill with influenza for the past two weeks in Ottawa.

FALSE ALARM—The firemen were called about 4.30 yesterday afternoon for a fire at Williams' Conservatory, Upper Prince St. It appears that a bonfire was mistaken for a fire in the Conservatory and the alarm sent in. The engine returned to the station without being used.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of John H. Gill was held on Saturday afternoon from his late residence, 85 Kent Street, to York Cemetery, service at the house and grave being conducted by Reverend Dr. E. Ramsay, the latter service being held at 1.30 p.m. Burial was at 2.30 p.m. The casket bearers were: Messrs. J. MacKenzie, Wm. MacKenzie, Wm. MacKenzie, Frank Currie, Geo. Keefe and Frank Bell.

RETURNS FROM FAIR—Mr. Earl Ings, Bunbury, returned last evening from Toronto where he was in attendance at the Royal Winter Fair. The herds shown by the various exhibitors amounting to some forty head in all were brought home yesterday. Among the exhibits from this province were cattle from the farms of J. Walter Jones, Bunbury; Ings and Son, Mount Herbert; H. J. Kennedy, Southport; Falconwood Farm; Stanley Colwell, New Haven; Colby Lewis, Free town and R. A. Proffit, Free town.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CHURCHES.—The number of Church Notices has increased to such an extent that The Guardian cannot afford any longer to carry them without making a small charge. On and after December 1, therefore, all Church Notices will be charged at the rate of one cent per word with a minimum of 25¢ per insertion. Will Ministers and Church Officials, please govern themselves accordingly. 3788.

POLICE COURT—A case of unlawful possession of liquor adjudged from Monday was heard and further adjourned until today. A woman charged with unlawful possession of liquor was fined $200 and costs or three months. A breach of the Customs Act case was dismissed. A woman charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $5 and costs or 10 days. A woman appearing in connection with the recent shoplifting at the Metropolitan Stores was given a suspended sentence for six months.

TRIDUUM OFFENS—The Triduum which is being conducted at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, in preparation for the feast of the Immaculate Conception, opened last evening at 7.30. After recitation of the Rosary, Rev. Father Mayer, C.S.S.R., who is conducting the Triduum, preached an inspiring sermon on the Immaculate Conception, after which Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Father O'Hara, C.S.S.R. The services will be nightly until Friday, when the Triduum will be brought to a close.

APPRAISAL BEGUN—Mr. L. W. Fricke, Montreal, who has been appointed as appraiser in connection with the Maritime Electric and Power Co., is in the city and began his work yesterday morning. Yesterday he held a normal meeting of the Board of Directors of the Maritime Electric Co., and Mr. H. M. Taylor, engineer, of the Edward J. O'Leary Co., who is assisting in the work. It is expected that Mr. Fricke will be occupied here in preliminary survey work for at least a week after which he will return to Montreal and compile his report which will then be filed at the Utility's Commission office and be available to those interested.

PERSONALS
Mr. Albert Paquet and daughter left for Boston Saturday on a visit.

Rev. G. A. Christie, York, is on a business visit to Halifax.

Mr. Wm. Vesey, York, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Andrew Walsh has returned to the City, after a pleasant visit to Pleasant Grove.

The illness of Mr. Harry Roberts, Grand Tracadie, is regretted by his many friends.

The condition of Miss Joan Mahan, Pleasant Grove, shows no improvement.

Annual Meeting Ringwood W.I.

The annual meeting of the Ringwood Women's Institute was held at the home of the President on the evening of Nov. 30th. There was a small attendance. The President, Mrs. M. J. Dolan, presided, and the meeting opened with the Club Women's Creed. After roll call the minutes of last annual meeting were read and the members present paid annual dues. There followed reports of the various committees and the election of officers. The last year's officers were re-elected, as follows: President, M. J. Dolan; Vice President, M. J. Herbert; Secretary, Mrs. John McDougall; Directors, Mrs. Ernest Currie and Miss Austine Mutch; Auditors, Mrs. Mahler, and Mrs. Augustus McDonald. It was moved and seconded that $10. be subscribed to the Provincial Sanatorium, and that the Institute go ahead with their efforts regarding repairs to Elliott Hall. It was decided to purchase some furniture for the school, and the necessities for the Christmas treat. A small sum was realized from a grab bag which caused much merriment and to be repeated at the next meeting. After a sumptuous repast of a social hour was enjoyed with excellent music rendered by Mr. Cornelius Dolan, and the meeting closed, the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Mutch.
