Mrs. Nell MacLeod, of Summerside, who will deliver this address will, as everybody knows, make this an interesting and educational feature. 9719-10-30-31.

—FORMER ISLANDER PASSES—Mr. Alex. P. Jamieson of Summerside received the sad news this week of the death of his sister, Mrs. Lillian Pittman of Denver, Mass., who was found dead in her bed on Sunday, October, 25th. She had apparently passed away in her sleep. She was about seventy years of age. Mrs. Pittman was the daughter of the late Robert Jamieson of New Annan, where she lived as a girl and will be remembered by old friends there. Her last visit to her old home was made about twenty years ago. Most of her married life was spent in the United States. Since her husband's death she has resided with her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton, with whom she was living at the time of her death. Besides Mrs. Hamilton one other daughter, Mrs. Brown, is left to mourn also four brothers, Frank of Brighton, Mass; Bruce of Newton, Mass.; Henry and Alexander of Summerside, to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.—S

—S'IDE BOY STARS—Mr. Fred Moore, eldest son of Capt. L. A. Moore and Mrs. Moore, was the star player in last weeks rugby, when King's College, Halifax, defeated the Nova Scotia Technical College team 9-3. Fred, who is an all round athlete and has distinguished himself on many occasions since going to King's College, made a sensational run of fifty yards for a touchdown outsprinting the entire Tech team. A report of the game has already appeared in the Guardian but unfortunately the Canadian Press dispatch listed Fred as a Charlottetown boy. Some of his friends think that if Fred is going to figure in the highlights of sport this winter, that he should let the reporters at Halifax know that there is such a place as Summerside on the map.—S

by "Names of Allied Leaders in the Great War," Lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Leo McDonald. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

The ladies served a dainty lunch before the party broke up.—S —BIRTHDAY PARTY—Miss Guelda Gaudet of Summerside was the guest of honor at a select dinner party at the Clifton Hotel on Tuesday evening, which was given by her girl friends in honor of her birthday. Later in the evening about sixty five guests were invited to a dance at the Capitol Grill Room. In addition to the regular orchestra, local talent furnished music for the "Lancers." A dainty lunch with ice cream and a birthday cake was served after the dance. Miss Gaudet was the recipient of many lovely birthday gifts.—S

—FUNERAL OF MRS. DAVID ROGERS—The remains of Mrs. David Rogers arrived on Wednesday evening at Summerside and were taken to H. A. Compton's undertaking parlours. On Thursday morning they were taken to St. John's Church, St. Eleonors, where the impressive service for the dead was conducted by Ven. Achdeacon White. The remains were tenderly laid to rest beside those of her late husband, in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pall bearers were, Mayor Lidstone, L. A. B. Home, J. F. Arnett, W. A. Stewart, L. A. Moore and H. M. Baker.—S

—BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Cairns of Summerside were host and hostess on Tuesday evening to the residents of Wilmot Valley when they called to extend their best wishes to Miss Helen Cairns, whose marriage is to take place on November 4th. There were about 125 guests, including a number from Summerside. The living room was tastefully arranged with autumn flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Clark MacQuarrie escorted the bride-to-be to the seat of honor to the strains of the Wedding March played by Verna MacQuarrie. A dainty basket trimmed in blue and white contained many lovely gifts, which were opened by Miss Jean Curtis and Miss Marion MacQuarrie. The humorous verses attached were read by Mrs. Darius Hogg and Miss Katherine Clark. After all the presents had been opened and admired, Miss Cairns
