Budget Debate Is Concluded In N. B.

FREDERICTON, May 3 - (CP) - The budget debate ended in the New Brunswick Legislature today on a vote of co-operation between Government and opposition parties.

Introduced yesterday by opposition leader Hugh Mackay, an amendment to a motion that the Government should remain in office where they will have to keep considerable forces with long lines of communication than that the Allies should weaken their defenses in other quarters by attempting to wage a major campaign when their own communications with Norway are more difficult than those of the Germans.

From the long-range point of view it may well be more to the advantage of the Allies that the Germans should remain in Norway where they will have to keep considerable forces with long lines of communication than that the Allies should weaken their defenses in other quarters by attempting to wage a major campaign when their own communications with Norway are more difficult than those of the Germans.

Cardigan Head And Vicinity

Mrs. James McNeil, Lorne Valley, was a recent visitor to Mt. Stewart.

Mr. John Mustard, M. L. A., has returned to his home Cardigan Head.

Miss Rita Gornley returned to her home in Stanhope Road on Thursday evening after spending the past six months visiting among friends and relatives in Boston and other parts of U. S. A.

Miss Helena Cullen, 48 Road, was a recent visitor to the City.

The warm showers of rain on Thursday afternoon were welcomed not only by farmers, but it was just what the May flower buds needed to help them blossom into fragrant flowers. We now see patches of green grass here and there in the fields. The sheep no doubt are aware of this and hurriedly stray about the meadows to snatch a bit here and there before the boy will hardly wait for the first nibble of fresh green grass.

Miss Proctor, Hunter River, spent the past week visiting at 48 Road the guest of Miss Helena Cullen.

Mr. John T. Corcoran, Cardigan Head, drove to Montague on Thursday and reported the road to be in very good condition and before they can hardly wait for the first nibble of fresh green grass.

Mr. John Power, Ellitvale, was a visitor to Cardigan on Thursday.

One of the very ambitious young farmers of the vicinity of Cardigan has already started his spring work in the fields by doing a day's ploughing without any difficulty, and found the land quite firm and dry.

Miss Gladys McNeil, Lorne Valley has accepted a position at Mt. Stewart and her departure morning to take up her duties.

Mr. Patrick Lafferty met with a very serious loss on Wednesday evening when his dwelling house was burned to the ground by fire.

Many friends are sorry to learn that Mr. Gerald McDonald, postmaster at Cardigan is a patient in the Kings County Hospital, all wish him a speedy recovery.

Reverend Owen Hughes, Montague, motored to Cardigan Head on Friday.

Mr. Murdoch McDonald, Lorne Valley recently purchased a very time driving horse.

Mr. John T. Divine, Peakes, motored to the city Thursday via the St. Peter's road and had no difficulty in making the return trip carrying a load of freight.

Mr. Harold Dumphy, Vernon River, was a visitor to Cardigan Head during the past week.

blue moon. Yet you expect the average doctor to offend a good patient or client by refusing him a "script" when he asks for it. Don't you really think it is high time that people such as you were getting down to hard, basic realities?

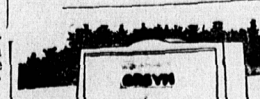

Today, anyone, drunk or sober, can purchase intoxicating liquor at a vendor shop provided that he has the "script."

But under the proposed legislation, the man who desires to procure himself a few bottles of ale, will have to purchase a permit (this answers the Prohibition charge of "free" beer) and he will have to be sober, not only when he buys the ale, but also when he buys the beer. He will also have to be twenty-one years of age or over.

If, by getting drunk (and some people do persist in getting drunk) he abuses his privilege, his permit will be revoked and it will be "just too bad" for the person who procures such an individual ale or wine on his own permit.

Therefore, despite your admonition as to my ultimate destination, I remain favourable to the new proposed legislation.

I am, Sir, etc. J. C. LEWIS, Alberton.

A Lasting Tribute

Although an increase in cost is in effect we have the most beautiful stock of Native and Imported Granite and Vermont Marble on hand which were bought before the increase. When this stock is depleted there will be an increase of 11 per cent being the American Exchange.

We have no agents therefore save from $10.00 to $50.00 on each Monument by coming to the Monumental Works or phoning 1386 when transportation will cheerfully be provided on request.

"Private Detective" Gay Whodunit Comedy At The Capitol

"Private Detective," Warner Bros. exciting melodrama opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday with Jane Wyman, Dick Foran and Maxie "Adonis" Rosenblum in the starring roles.

Returning to the type of detective role she portrayed in "Torchy Plays with Dynamite," Jane Wyman uses all her ingenuity to prevent boy friend, Dick Foran, from arresting the wrong man in the picture's puzzling murder mystery.

Rosenblum contributes his usual share of laughs as Foran's assistant and demonstrates his fighting ability when he and his boss rescue Miss Wyman after she has been kidnapped by the murder gang.

Gloria Dickson is cast as a blonde divorcee, whose ex-husband has been murdered, and she and her boy friend, John Ridgely, are accused of the crime. Of course, Foran immediately wants to clap them both into jail, but is he able to give the police the alibi evidence she has secured against the murder gang.

Then, Miss Dickson and John Ridgely are free to go where their hearts desire and Foran and Jane Wyman prepare to go before the preacher and live a life of eternal bliss.

Other familiar faces in the cast include: Morgan Conway, John Edgerton, Joe Crehan, William Davidson, Vera Lewis, Selma Jackson, Earl Dwire and little Henry Blair.

"The Private Lives Of Elizabeth And Essex" At The Prince Edward

"The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex," the new Warner Bros. Technicolor production starring Bette Davis and Errol Flynn opened yesterday at the Prince Edward.

Bette Davis, of course, is cast as the self-willed, vain and dominating Queen Elizabeth, torn between her love of England and its people and her overwhelming love for the handsome and dashing young Earl of Essex. Flynn as Essex has precisely the type of role in which he has endeared himself to audiences the world over—that of a handsome, swash-buckling hero, as victorious in love as he is in war. But his victory over Elizabeth is short-lived in the film; for loving, him, she sends him to the executioner's block because she realizes that if England is to live, Essex must die. Played against the spectacular background of the pomp and pageantry of the Elizabethan court, the love story in which the film is focused.

The brilliant supporting cast for the two stars includes: Olivia de Havilland, Donald Crisp, Vincent Price, Henry Stephenson, Alan Hale, Ralph Forbes, Henry Daniell, James Stephenson, Nanette Fabray, Robert Warwick and Leo G. Carroll.
