A colt created quite a little excitement, and made a considerable racket yesterday by galloping through the market house.

THE vampire man came over by boat last evening. He will probably do the Ch'town exhibition. Don't you think so?

A WOMAN who came over on the Northumberland last evening was considerably under the influence of New Brunswick root beer.

SIXTEEN carloads of live stock, etc., passed through on the accommodation yesterday morning to Charlottetown for the Exhibition.

A CONTINGENT of salvationists came on the boat last night. They were met on the wharf by some of their fellow members with a brass band.

WE have now in stock and arriving from the orchards weekly choice lot apples. Send along your orders if you want a good article. Leonard Morris.

Now that the analysis of the water from our town wells has arrived, and the water is pronounced suspicious what is the board of health and town council going to do about it? Something should be done and that at once.

WE would call the attention of the police officers to the crowd of loafers who obstruct the sidewalk and make a nuisance of themselves generally at the street lamp on the Catholic chapel corner. They should be made to take a walk.

YESTERDAY afternoon one of the town workmen was geathering up the waste paper on Water street. There is no need of such quantities being blown about the town and greater care should be taken by the storekeepers and others in regard to the throwing of refuse into the streets.

THE Presbyterian church annex, which will be used for the Sunday school, and also for the meetings of the societies connected with the church, will be opened with formal exercises Sunday afternoon, further particulars of which will appear in a later issue.

MR. Jos F. Arsenault, of Wellington, and Miss Gertie Cormier, of Sackville, were married in the latter town yesterday morning They came over on the Northumberland last evening and went to Charlottetown where they will spend their honeymoon.

ON exhibition day three young men from the country took their best girls down to a hotel on Water street, and when the dinner gong sounded they went into the dining room, leaving the girls to shift for themselves. The proprietor of the hotel tumbled, and he invited the young ladies to have dinner. They accepted with thanks, and were taken in and put directly opposite their miserly swains. The feelings of the latter can better be imagined than described.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR AT BIDEFORD.—A correspondent at Bideford sends the following to the GUARDIAN: A large number of people assembled at the Methodist Church, Bideford, Wednesday, 21st inst., to witness the marriage of Mr. Frank England and Miss Emma Cannon. Miss Jane Sharpe, of Kensington, was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Beecher Williams, of Bideford, attended the groom. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white lawn, and the bridesmaid wore white cashmere, each carrying a bouquet of snowdrops. The wedding march was played by Miss Edith England. After the ceremony the happy pair, accompanied by a large number of friends, went to the home of the bride, where they assisted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cannon, in celebrating their golden wedding. The Rev. Mr. Estey made a short speech, congratulating the worthy couple on their long life of wedded bliss, which proved that marriage was not a failure. Recitations and singing by the guests also made the time pass pleasantly. The presents, both to the newly married bride and the bride of half a century, were both numerous and costly, among which were many golden tokens suggestive of the occasion.

A Philosophical Family.

Amelia has pimples, and sores on the head
From humors internal her nose has grown red;
She's a bile on her neck that's as big as a bell,
But in other respects she is doing quite well.
And pa has dispepsia, malaria and gout;
His hands with salt-rheum are all broken out;
He is prone to rheumatics that make his legs swell,
But in other respects he is doing quite well.
And ma has night sweats and a troublesome cough,
That all of our doctors don't seem to drive off;
She wakes ev'ry night and coughs quite a spell,
But in other respects she is doing quite well.

There is nothing like philosophy to help one bear the ills of life, but in the case of this family what is most needed is a good supply of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical discovery. It would cleanse Amelia's blood, cure pa's ailments, and check ma's cough. The "Golden Medical Discovery," by its action on the liver, cleanses the system of impurities. It cures humors, ulcers, boils, scrofula, salt-rheum, erysipelas, and all kinds of sores and swellings. The only guranteed blood-purifier.

The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers, to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and prevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain, yours truly,

Preferential Trade.

Preferential trade properly consists in giving the preference to Burdock Blood Bitters when seeking for a cure for constipation, dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, jaundice, scrofula, poisonous humors, bad blood, rheumatism or kidney complaints. It is the true cure, and has cured cases which have resisted all other treatment.
