

GIVING UP ARMS

2,000 Rifles Surrendered in Pretoria

MAFEKING'S WOUNDED.

Strathcona's With Buller - Good Work by Mounted Rifles.

BOYS GIVING UP ARMS.

LONDON, June 19.—(Special).—No important developments mark the progress of the British in the Transvaal.

Lord Roberts reports over 2,000 stands of arms were given up since the occupation of Pretoria.

These will be utilized by the rescued British prisoners, numbering 140 officers and 3,000 men.

MAFEKING'S SICK AND WOUNDED.

The first batch of Mafeking's sick and wounded reached the Hospital at Bloemfontein on the 15th.

STRATHCONA'S WITH BULLER.

OTTAWA, June 19.—(Special).—A cable received to-day shows that the Strathcona Horse are with Gen. Buller in the movement inward to the Transvaal from Natal.

MOUNTED RIFLES DO GOOD WORK.

TORONTO, June 19.—(Special).—The Globe publishes specials to-day from correspondents with the Mounted Rifles showing they reached Kroonstadt, May 13th, after seven days of hard marching and continuous fighting, a squadron under Forrester Walker, being among the first British troops to enter the town.

MUCKY CANADIAN FEATS.

Among the plucky feats by the Canadians was swimming of Veit River by Lieuts. Borden and Turner with five men who put forty Boers to flight. Lieuts. Taylor, Van Straubenzel and Crosby were in tight places several times. Two battalions started again for Pretoria on May 18th.

HANDS CRACKED WITH SALT RHEUM

Mr. James McIsaacs, 24 Elgin St., Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I suffered with salt rheum for upwards of ten years the skin on my hands cracking and breaking so as to make them useless. After trying all sorts of remedies in vain, I became discouraged and thought my sufferings would never end. Last spring I used Dr. Chase's Ointment and in a short time was perfectly cured." Dr. Chase's Ointment is of unparalleled merit as a cure for all itching skin disease, all druggists.

CONVENT CLOSING

Large Audience Present Last Night.

THE PRIZES AWARDED

Hall Prettily Decorated. - Excellent Program Rendered.

The spacious audience-room of Notre Dame Convent was comfortably filled last evening with an eager and expectant audience, the occasion being the closing concert, for which that institution is noted. The hall was prettily draped with red, white and blue and plentifully decorated with Union Jacks. At eight o'clock the curtain lifted and revealed a pretty scene—row after row of bright looking girls, each ready to do her part in the entertainment. It is needless to say the musical selections were rendered in good style. Where all was so well done it were invidious to particularize. Special mention must however, be made of the drill exercises. One, the rose drill by a number of the smaller girls and another by larger girls each carrying a flag, the last mentioned especially being very well executed. Space forbids us going further into detail suffice it to say that the large audience went expecting something grand and were in no wise disappointed. The valedictory was read by Miss Nellie Morgan after which an address was delivered by His Lordship Bishop McDonald. Addresses were made by Dr. Anderson, Prof. Caven and others. The proceedings were brought to a close with the National Anthem. Following is the special prize list:

Warships anchor in the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, off Taku forts, but gunboats can navigate the Pei Ho river to Tien-tsin, operated by British railway men and a British marine force is now driving the Boxers away from the line of the railway, which they are repairing as they advance from Tien-tsin to Peking.

THE TAKU FORTS CAPTURED

By Allied Fleets After a Severe Fight of Seven Hours

NO TIDINGS FROM THE EUROPEANS IN PEKIN

All Quiet at Shanghai—Promise not to Disturb English Settlements there—Dowager Degrades Defeated Generals—Salisbury Advises Chinese Missionaries not to be Over Zealous—It leads to Martyrdom and other Troubles.

LONDON, June 19.—(Special).—No news has been received here of the relief of the Legations at Peking.

There are all kinds of rumors afloat, but there is no official confirmation of the return of Admiral Seymour to Tien Tsin.

Details of the capture of the Taku forts on Sunday show the fleet of the powers engaged consisted of the Algerian, (British) Yorktown (American) and one each of Russian, German and Japanese warships. The British and American ships were hotly shelled and suffered damage from the heavy guns of the forts.

The Chinese opened fire, but after seven hours the forts were blown to pieces and the garrison driven out at the bayonets point, the allied land force being mainly 10,000 Russians. Europeans killed were 21; wounded 57.

ALL QUIET AT SHANGHAI. Shanghai despatches state that the Viceroy of Woo Sung is reported to have assured the consuls that the foreign settlements of Shanghai will not be attacked.

THE DOWAGER DEGRADES HER GENERALS. The Dowager Empress is greatly concerned over the capture of the Taku forts and that a wholesale degradation of Chinese generals has taken place.

LORD SALISBURY SPEAKS. All accounts agree situation is very critical.

Lord Salisbury speaking at a meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel to-day in reference to China said though the prisoners slaughtered had been Christians they were not murdered because the Chinese disliked their religion.

It was because the belief prevailed that missionary work was merely an instrument by which foreign Governments achieved their objects.

OVER ZEALOUS MISSIONARIES. While this belief was incorrect Lord Salisbury advised the missionaries not to be over zealous, as it led to martyrdom and caused the death of soldiers and sailors sent to avenge the outrages.

Another Liquor Cure. This is taken from Self-Culture Magazine.

For some reason as yet unknown, or at least to me unexplained or defectly diagnosed, a regular diet of bananas will take away and destroy all desire for intoxicating liquors, and this to such a degree that it may be called "the temperance plant."

"HUNGER IS THE BEST SAUCE." Yet some people are never hungry. What ever they eat has to be forced down. There is, of course, something wrong with these people. By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time they are given an appetite and then they enjoy eating and food nourishes them. If you find your appetite failing, just try a bottle of Hood's. It is a true stomach tonic and every dose does good.

The best laxative cathartic is Hood's Pills.
