Canadian Pacific

Many favourable comments are being expressed in press and public upon the inauguration of the improved Canadian Pacific summer train service between Montreal and the Maritime Provinces, particularly in reference to the double daily service each way every day in the week, and Sundays too.
Never before in the history of railroading have such exceptional facilities been provided for taking proper care of the passenger traffic over Canadian Pacific tracks between St. John and Montreal, and vice versa. The trains themselves, in the matter of equipment and constructive art, are the last word in the master builders' ingenuity. Patent sleepers with electric lighted berths, scientific ventilation—in fact, every modern conceivable contrivance for comfort and luxury. High grade coaches, and luxurious diners; everything of the best, plus Canadian Pacific courtesy and efficiency. The schedules of the expresses are fast and regular, and patrons of the direct short route are assured that "time" is a permanent feature with every adequate regard for safety. Passenger traffic originating in St. John has the choice of trains leaving at 4 p. m. or 7:45 p. m. Atlantic time, the former being due in Montreal at 7:20 a. m. making direct close connections with the "Canadian" for Toronto, Chicago, etc., also Ottawa Traffic directed via St. John which originates in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and points in New Brunswick (West of St. John, is taken care of on the 7:45 p. m. train, also passengers from Nova Scotia, etc., via Bay of Fundy service. This train is due at Montreal at 11:35 a. m. At Montreal both trains from the East connect with Canada's most famous train, The Trans-Canada Limited, leaving at 5 p. m. and completing the run to Vancouver in ninety-two hours, and the only change is from track to track in the depot in Montreal.
Toronto to Vancouver eighty eight hours, Montreal to Winnipeg forty one hours, fifteen minutes.
Coming East, the first train arrives in St. John at 6:30 p. m. making direct connections with Nova Scotia, via Digby, and points East of St. John via Canadian National system. The second express arrives in St. John at 1:00 noon making close connections with C.
N. R. train for the East.
The establishment of this new Canadian Pacific double service each way seven days in the week provides a wonderful link in the link in travel between the Lower Provinces, Quebec and the West, in fact, between all points East with all points West, the importance of which is apparent, and must appeal to all classes of travel, and at the same time marks a new era along lines of national development and commercial prosperity.

A NOTED BOND THIEF SURRENDERS TO POLICE

Accompanied by His Actress Wife He Gives Himself Up. Was Master Mind in $5,000,000 Bond Thefts.

(Union Press Special.)
NEW YORK, May 15.—Nicky Arnstein, long sought in connection with theft of large sums of bonds from Wall Street brokerage houses today surrendered to Assistant District Attorney John T.
Dooling, Arnstein accompanied by his actress wife, Fannie Bryces, put in their appearance at the District Attorney's office this morning.
They posed for photographers before entering Dooling's office. Arnstein refused to make any statement. Arnstein was alleged to have been the master mind in the whole series of bond thefts from Wall Street firms. The total amount of bonds stolen will run close to $5,000,000, officials estimated.

ties here today announced they had been looking for W. Graham Browne, the Montreal broker who killed himself after being arrested on a charge of stealing $500,000 worth of bonds. Browne was suspected of disposing of large quantities of stolen securities and they had been looking for him for some time. John T. Dooling, Assistant District Attorney in charge of the prosecution of the bond theft cases announced.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT ZION CHURCH

Zion Church yesterday observed the seventh anniversary of its building. There were very large congregations at both services.
The preacher in the morning was Rev. Dr. Kent of Halifax who delivered a decidedly able sermon. In the evening, the pastor, Rev. G. C. Taylor by his sermon dealt with the history of Zion Church from the time when it was started by the original small body of citizens who gathered in the room over Adam Murray's and from which gathering began the movement which resulted in the building of old Zion Church.
The original building was framed in Pictou County, N. S., by the Fraser Brothers of that place and was put together here under the direction of these men who came to Charlottetown and became educators in the church taking a deep interest in its welfare. The congregation continued to grow year by year until the time came when it was found necessary to further extend in order to provide accommodation with the result that the present fine edifice was constructed.
The measurements of the site upon which the building stands are 85 feet on Grafton Street and 139 feet on Prince. Mr. C. B.
Chapell was the Architect. The style of the building is Gothic, the walls are of Annapolis brick and the trimmings of Nova Scotia grey-stone. The walls of the tower are carried up square to a height of sixty feet.
The main body of the building extends 124 feet on Prince Street and 76 feet on Grafton Street. This, in the interior arrangement, is divided into two parts, the upper Prince Street end being used for the Sabbath School and the main part facing Grafton and Prince Streets for the auditorium. The two are connected by wide folding doors, so that, should occasion require it, the whole building can be thrown into one, giving a total seating accommodation for nearly 1500 people.
The main auditorium is almost square, elevated floor, ready access to the seats being furnished by five aisles. There are three entrances, one from the tower on the corner, one from Prince Street, and a third from Grafton Street.
This main floor auditorium has a seating capacity of 800, but on the Prince Street side of the auditorium there is a balcony in the form of a horseshoe seating 200 additional.
The ceiling of the auditorium has been given a nave and aisle treatment, the nave part being 44 feet wide and 40 feet high from the floor in its central portion all done in wood.
Rev. Alexander Falconer, the first regular pastor of Zion Church, was inducted in 1862, and continued to do very efficient work until 1870, when he demitted this charge. The congregation then announced the late Rev. Robert Douglas, Mr. Falconer's last charge was Prince Street Church, Pictou. Some years ago he was made a D. D. He retired from the active ministry in March, 1908. Only a short time ago he was called to the upper sanctuary.
One son, Robert, born in Charlottetown, is now President of Toronto University. Another son is Professor of New Testament Exegesis in Pine Hill College, Halifax. The handsome communion table and chairs are the gift of the family in memory of their father.
Rev. John A. McLeod, who succeeded Mr. Falconer, was inducted in 1871, and resigned in the spring

The Present Zion Church.

Then came the present pastor, Rev. Mr. Taylor who supplied during Mr. Strathie's illness and who as a workman that needed not to be ashamed, and holds the estimate of citizens generally.
A strange coincidence may be noted in connection with the first and last pastors of old Zion Church.
Rev. A. Falconer was the first pastor of old Zion Church, Rev. Geo.
C. Taylor the last. Mr. Falconer's last charge was Prince Street Church, Pictou, and it was also Mr. Taylor's first charge.
The musical portion of yesterday's anniversary services was of a high order; a feature of the morning was a quartette by the Messrs. Gillis and McKinnon and Bennet and in the evening a solo
"The Holy City" by Mr. Arthur Bruce.
