RULING REJECTED BY C. P. R.

Wages of Clerks and Other Company Insists Reduction in Employees.

MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—The Canadian Pacific Railway has declined to accept the recent ruling of a conciliation board that there should be no reduction at present in the wages of clerks, checkers, freight handlers, baggage men and certain other grades of men employed by the company. The Deputy Minister of Labor has been asked to this effect.

BRIDE'S DISCOVERIES

That Harold's mother cooked things differently. That theatres have balconies. That every day is wash day. That excursions are a foolish expenditure of money. That installment furniture is all cracked up to be. That engagement suitcases sometimes have flaws in them. That credit men are the most obstinate things. That Harold plans to spend their vacation at home.

Crippled Airman Writes In Courageous Spirit

An interesting little booklet of poems, entitled "Looking Up," by Jimmy Howcroft, an English airman who sustained a fracture of the spine during the war and has been lying helpless in a London hospital for over four and a half years has been received by The Guardian. The verses which were dictated to his nurse by the author, show a very courageous and cheerful spirit. We quote one: "I flew! Upward climbing to the engine's roar. The clay is dead, but still the soul can soar. Imprisoned here, as by some earth in higher life, my soul shall soar again." Howcroft now lives at Liphook, England, in a cottage in comfort, largely owing to the tangible result of the sale of the first edition of his book. He is keen on starting a poultry farm and is looking for further sales to start him in this business. This second edition, much augmented, revised and with a photograph frontispiece, can be obtained from the author, address Little Forest Cottage, Liphook, Hants; for 2 shillings 6 pence, post free.

The Definition of An Amateur and the Agreement Athletes Sign. The agreement athletes must sign before they can compete in amateur sports in the Maritime Provinces covers a multitude of sins and is better known in sporting circles as the "Famous Document," being intended, as keen observers know, to clean up what was regarded as a complicated and unwholesome mess in amateur ranks in the Maritimes. The agreement required a great deal of explanation caused a lot of discussion and threw a bomb into sporting circles, the chaotic condition lasting for some months. The enforcement of the agreement threatened at one time to cause a serious split in amateurism in the Maritimes, discrimination being charged by many strong organizations. Local athletes and organizations were much concerned as it threatened to hit some of their pretty hard, but normal conditions finally resulted and today affairs are running fairly smoothly.

They fail to see an optometrist at once, and go on using their eyes as formerly, suffering from acute headaches and pain round the eyes. They do not realize that they require the aid of spectacles if they are to avoid very serious eye trouble. Be prepared to encounter defective eyesight as you grow older, and visit a good optometrist periodically, whether your eyes are hurting you or not.
