MOUNT ROYAL HAS REACHED QUEENSTOWN

After A Month At Sea And Believed To Be Lost Tronble With Her Boilers Compelled Her Return Eastward—Her 300 Passengers And 100 Crew All Well

QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 7.—The overdue steamer Mount Royal steamed slowly into Queenstown today and the news of her safety was received with gladness in shipping circles.

She was first definitely sighted off Old Head of Kinsale, 15 miles west of this port early today.

She battled with heavy weather for a fortnight until Christmas eve when serious trouble with her boilers developed.

PRISONER THOMAS DAVID ON HIS TRAIL

Seemed Stupid Pleased Not Guilty. His Counsel Claim He Is Insane

FREDERICTON, Jan. 7.—(Special)—At 8.45 this afternoon the grand jury returned a true bill in the case of the Crown against Thomas David, charged with murder.

The prisoner when brought into court seemed stupid. At the request of a constable he moved his hat and when asked if he was guilty or not he simply moved his hands.

THE VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION IN ONTARIO

In Nearly One Hundred Contests The "Dry" Bylaw Was Adopted In Twenty-Three And Had An Insufficient Majority In Eighteen.

TORONTO, Jan. 7.(Special)—The net result of the local option voting yesterday in nearly one hundred Ontario municipalities so far as the returns have been received is that license will be cut off in twenty three municipalities, eleven of these being either towns or incorporated villages. A majority of votes was polled for the by law in 18 other municipalities, eight being towns or incorporated villages, but as the vote for local option did not reach 60 percent of the total vote polled the bylaw was defeated. A majority of votes was cast against the bylaw in twenty-five places of which 15 are towns or incorporated villages. The campaign was vigorously fought out on both sides.

TELEGRAPHERS MAY ONGE MORE TIE THINGS UP

Operators Are Said to be Secretly Planning Second Big Strike.

CHICAGO, Jan.—Secret plans to recognize the commercial telegraphers with a view to calling another strike on the eve of the Republican national convention, which meets here next June, came to light yesterday. Organizers are now at work repairing the breaches in the ranks, caused by the strike of a few months ago.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

TORONTO, Jan. 7, 1908.—That the financial stringency had not retarded the progress of the strong Canadian life assurance companies is evidenced by the statement just issued by the Imperial Life Assurance Company of Canada. During the year 1907 this progressive institution increased its policies in force to over $21,300,000, its assets to over $3,800,000, and its cash income to over $925,000.
