THE Y. M. C. A. acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a handsome set of the works of Alexander Dumas from Dr. J. H. Ayers. The set which consists of nine volumes is handsomely bound and makes a valuable addition to the library.

THE service at York Sunday evening was much appreciated, especially the singing by Mrs. W. H. McCormick, Yopfield, Mass. Mrs. McCormick is summing at Union and is the eldest daughter of Rev. I. Murray Melish who is well known on the Island.

PUBLIC meeting in connection with Principal Teachers Association in this evening in the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 8 o'clock. Dr. McKay of Halifax will speak also Dr. Anderson over others. Music instrumental and vocal. Reading and recitations. Admission 15 cents.

THE largest number of passengers ever coming to the City at one time—over 350 in all—crossed from Picton by the Princess last night. The afternoon trains to the City were also filled and the express in the evening brought over 400 passengers. The hotels are crowded and many private houses are taxed to their utmost to accommodate the visitors.

OPERA HOUSE.—"The Golden Plough" was given a fine representation at the Opera House last night by the Boston Comedy Company, and Miss Grey again gave her great rendition of Grace Royal. She was well supported by the whole company, and the piece was well staged. Mr. Webber's troupe are all clever and capable. Vinnicombe's orchestra played some fine musical selections between the acts. To-night's performance will be the powerful English drama, "Tempted, Tried and True."

JOHN HUGHES, who was serving a term of imprisonment for violation of the Prohibition Act was yesterday evening set at liberty by an order of the Lieutenant Governor. A petition was presented to His Honor signed by a number of citizens asking for Hughes' release on the ground that continuation of his imprisonment would result in serious detriment to his health. The petition was supported by a certificate from Dr. Kelly stating that Hughes was suffering from a serious affection of the heart which might end fatally unless he was liberated.

SEE our new tooth powder, the largest and handsomest package ever sold at the price 25c. It's just as good as it looks too, makes the teeth pearly white, perfumes the breath and hardens the gums—"The Two Macs," Macdonald & MacKinnon, Druggists, Cor. Gt. Geo. and Kent Streets.

International Stock Food is a big favorite with stock owners. Every day we hear words of praise for it. It's a great tonic. Aids digestion, increases assimilation, thereby producing flesh. Gives wonderful results if fed to horses, cows pigs and poultry. Price of 150 feeds 50c. Macdonald & MacKinnon, Druggists, Corner Great George and Kent Streets.

THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

W. B. BOWNESS crossed to Shediac yesterday with 13 horses.

E. H. LOUGH crossed to Moncton yesterday. He will return tonight.

JAMES McDONALD's drugstore Samme side has been connected by telephone.

New Broadcloth $3 per yard—that is what will make you an elegant costume. We can give you one Ready-Made for $19.85, made from that Fine Black Broadcloth.—McGougan & Wright.

THE first shipment of oysters this season, went forward by express on the Northumberland yesterday morning for Montreal. The lot consisted of nine barrels shipped by A. C. Craswell, North St. Eleanor's and though a small number is pretty good work for one shipper considering that the fishing season only opened at sunrise yesterday, and the oysters had to be fished, culled, packed into barrels and hauled about five miles to Summerside. The weather yesterday being ideal for oyster fishing, it may be expected that several large shipments will be made today.

THE marriage takes place at eight o'clock this evening at the residence of J. H. and Mrs. Brown, Moncton, N. B. of their daughter Miss L. Blanche Brown to H. Franklin Compton, of Sydney, formerly of Summerside. In this happy event R. S. Squarebriggs, Summerside, supports the groom, while the maid of honor is Miss Grace Brown, sister of the bride. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. David Hutchison, pastor of the First Baptist church, Moncton. A large number of guests will take part in the wedding festivities and many friends will join in wishing the happy couple much joy. Mr. and Mrs. Compton will come to Summerside tomorrow evening and a reception will be given them on Friday evening at the residence of the groom's parents, H. A. and Mrs. Compton where the host and hostess will be pleased to meet and welcome all Frank's friends who may wish to join the occasion.
