Daily Lenten Meditations

Our Besetting Faults By E. E. Kellert, M. A.

Every age has its own besetting faults; but one that is common to all is blindness to these faults and a keen eye for those of other ages. Ours are not those of the Victorians, and we view the Victorian defects with special distaste.

But I have a shrewd suspicion that the historians of the next century may be inclined to judge us with a little more severity than that with which we judge ourselves, and censure in the very complacency with which we have blamed our predecessors. Why this sense of superiority they may say.

It is by no means certain that the improvements brought about in the next half-century will be comparable with those achieved by our grandfathers in the fifty years between 1830 and 1880; and such advances as may be made will have to be made by those earlier advances which, it cannot be denied, religion, and to social life, was mainly responsible.

Read the newspapers of the thirties, and note the ferocity with which the editor of the Morning Chronicle assailed the "filthy Times," and the equal vigour with which the "Thunderer" retorted. Turn then to the news columns, and, accustomed as you may be to the scordiness of to-day, look at the descriptions of public hangings, remembering that nearly all these executions were for trifling offences, for which to-day a week's imprisonment or even a binding-over might be a sufficient penalty.

Or take down J. L. and B. Hammond's Village Labourer, and see in what a state of misery that poor creature lived, and how savagely he was repressed if he made the slightest effort to mend his condition.

There is enough room for improvement still, God knows. But that there is equally certain. And, if you impartially inquire, you will be compelled to own that it is and women often mistaken, sometimes precipitate, but religious, and, while steadily pursuing the service of man, faithfully and honestly worshipping God.

LEGISLATURE IN COMMITTEE YESTERDAY

Provincial Legislature, March 23. The House met at 3:20 p.m. No questions.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of the Most Rev. Joseph Anthony O'Sullivan, Bishop of Charlottetown, for an Act to vest certain lands on Township No. 42 in Kings County in the Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation of the Diocese of Charlottetown, in accordance therewith was received and read.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Allen the House went into committee with Mr. Wright in the chair on an Act to further amend the Summerside Incorporation Act, 1903.

The bill authorizes the borrowing of a sum not exceeding $55,000 for the purpose of paying back overdrafts, contracted in respect to street and other permanent work construction; terms of the borrowing to be for fifteen years at a rate not exceeding 5 percent.

Mr. Linkletter suggested extending the borrowing period to twenty five years and moved an amendment to that effect.

Mr. Linkletter said this objection "verifies to the country what we have never often said, that we are just a parcel of 'yes-yes' men; that we never raised our voice against so-and-so in the House. We did our business in the caucus but in those meetings we are not a parcel of 'yes-yes' men; to which the committee agreed.

Mr. Linkletter authorized and approved the expenditure for the work mentioned in clause 1.

On this point Mr. Acorn said that since the work had been done, it was not necessary for the Legislature to authorize it.

Hon. Mr. Allen claimed that as the Government had been asked to authorize the town to borrow money to pay for work performed, it should also approve or authorize the work itself.

Premier Campbell said that in dealing with the bills of municipal corporations the petitioning Town Council must be taken as a town whom they are constitutionally elected to represent. Subject to that, the Legislature exercised control and had the responsibility of seeing that the legislation did not impose proper restrictions or obligations on the residents of other sections.

Mr. Acorn said it was evident that the town of Summerside had made an expenditure which was not justified and the question was whether the Legislature should sanction it by this provision.

Hon. Mr. Allen maintained that the paying of the Main Street was not only justifiable but should be authorized.

Mrs. W. M. Brehaut, 1st Vice-President, Mrs. H. H. Horne, 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. J. J. Morris, Sec., Mrs. M. A. Farmer. The following executive was appointed: Mrs. W. J. MacMillan, Mrs. J. A. Mark, Mrs. J. A. MacMillan, Mrs. A. Pickard, Mrs. R. Joy Holman. The meeting then adjourned.

Accused Convicted By Finger-print Evidence At Souris

Vincent Cheverie of Souris, was sentenced to six months hard labor at the Georgetown Jail Wednesday case was under the jurisdiction of the case of finger print evidence.

Last fall on September 13, a quantity of butter was stolen from a Royal Canadian Mounted Constable under suspicion. Entry to the one under suspicion was made through a window and subsequent examination revealed a finger print.

The finger print was taken at Ottawa but did not correspond with any on record there.

Last December Vincent Cheverie was arrested for a violation of the Excise Act and his finger printing thiorities there classified Cheverie's finger prints and found them identical with those taken from the window of the Souris creamery.

As a result a breaking and entering charge was laid against Cheverie by the Health of the Souris Detachment of the R. C. M. P.

Cheverie elected a speedy trial and Wednesday appeared before Magistrate Mellish, who found him guilty. R. R. Bell, Charlottetown, a large, Charlottetown, for the Crown.

Among the witnesses called for the prosecution was Staff Sergeant J. D. Graham, Ottawa, finger print expert of the R. C. M. P. Criminal Investigation Department. He said the imprint of the finger on the window pane was definitely that of the accused with the result Cheverie was found guilty.
