—MR. FRANK LAFFERTY is Guardian Agent in Summerside. His office phone is 26.

—RAILWAY APPOINTMENT.—Mr. W. H. Slackford, Freight Clerk, Summerside, has been appointed assistant station agent at Summerside replacing Mr. T. B. Grady, who has been appointed agent.

—FINE CATCH.—Mr. David Casely some time ago caught one of those speckled beauties, for which P. E. Island is famous. It was sixteen inches long and tipped the scales at exactly two pounds.—K.

—HARVESTING.—The farmers in the vicinity of Tignish are busily engaged in gathering in their harvest. They report a very good crop of oats, but the wheat is rather poor in some localities.—T.

—EDITH WEBSTER for some years in charge of the Millinery Department of B. Myers, Glace Bay, N. S., has recently joined the Millinery Department of R. T. HOLMAN LIMITED, Summerside. This lady has made a thorough study of the Millinery business, has visited American openings, and comes to Summerside highly recommended. The staff of Holman's Millinery Department is increased each season in order to handle the large annual increase in the volume of business, and their patrons will appreciate the latest addition to staff.

—DIVIDEND 119 PER CENT.—That the fox industry is one of the best paying investments in the age and that the people of Kensington are not behind other parts of the Island in taking advantage of this fact, was shown yesterday afternoon. At 2 o'clock the annual meeting of the Prospect Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd., was convened with a fair attendance of shareholders present.

—SHIPMENT OF GEES.—Mr. Howard Jones shipped by the Empress yesterday morning from Summerside 1200 geese, the first shipment this season, and will have a shipment of about the same size twice a week for the next four weeks.

—POST OFFICE REPAIRS.—The new post office at Tignish is nearing completion. It is a handsome structure and adds considerably to the appearance of the town, but the effect is neutralized by the appearance of the sidewalks. A vesting might imagine from their neglected condition that Tignish is in a state of decided retrogression. But this is not so. On the contrary it is one of the busiest little towns on the Island. As far as drunkenness and disorderly conduct is concerned it has undergone almost a complete metamorphosis. It was never, however, as bad as represented the Saturday night "celebrations" having been much exaggerated. The disorder was caused in no case by the inhabitants but by a few "rowdyish rascals" in an attempt to bring them selves before the public eye. These unwelcome visitors have fortunately disappeared or been metamorphosed also, and now Tignish is a quiet and free from rowdyism and drunkenness as any town or village of its size on the Island. All that is needed now is a little improvement in its appearance. Most of the citizens are of the opinion that the sidewalks are sadly in need of repairs but most of them are waiting for some philanthropist to finance it. There are not many philanthropists in this mercenary age but Tignish can happily boast of two or three at least. However, they have always been so responsive when asked to help a good cause that it would not be fair to appeal to them on this occasion. It is therefore up to the citizens to raise the necessary funds by some social function or if that does not meet with approval, why does not some one (Senator Murphy or Drs. Johnston or McBride for instance) open a "subscription list"?—T.

An Unparalleled Showing of Coats In New and Exclusive Styles for Fall

It is not because our styles for Fall and Winter are so enticing that we are so anxious to have you see them.

It is because such a display as we have ready to submit now is the very grandest and most effective advertising we can do from a prestige standpoint.

We want the women of this community to know that this is the foremost shop on P. E. Island from a standpoint of ready-to-wear fashion efficiency, and our present Showing will impress that on sight.

We know you'll appreciate the smartness of our gowns, coats, waists, etc., and you will realize how moderately they are priced.

The prices on our new Fall Coats read like this: $4.50, $5.50, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50 to $24.75.

FEW FALL MILLINERY STYLES AS SHOWN BY HOLMAN'S LIMITED

At this season women are intensely interested in Millinery fashions for Fall and Winter. They wish to know what is to be worn how it will be worn and the effects that are possible. Realizing this fact R. T. Holman Limited have made an exhaustive study of the different Millinery markets and have carefully gone through their stock with the prime object of supplying just the information so much desired. The display of Millinery shown by Messrs. Holmans at the present time gives a comprehensive idea of the coming season's fashions, but the following facts gleaned from their exposition of new styles will give a partial idea into the completeness of the stock. A marked leaning toward velvet in the development of the Fall hat is shown, and not only is the dull velvet a strong leader, but panne, or antique, as it was formerly called, is also well favored. Entire hats made up of velvet or in combination with plush or silk fabrics are promptly featured. Plush, especially that of the hatters' or very fine quality, is noted in the development of the high priced merchandise, with heavy pile or the long napped variety being employed to make up the cheaper class of goods. In children's hats especially this is the case, where the hat is developed entirely of velvet and made with the soft putted crown and high tam ruche forming a part of the brim. A simple trim in the shape of a lace butterfly completes a stunning model. Fancy feathers have run the gamut of imagination, which includes quill effects and wing fancies, that are of much benefit to the designers. Wing bands are made up of tiny mercury shaped affairs, and encircle the base of the crown or are used in pairs, which are set lightly on the brim edge or top crown of the hat. Quills are infinite in variety—ostrich and others of eccentric shape taking first rank. Spanish or bronze coque are to the fore and are developed in high effects, resembling a palm tree, with stem of pastel feathers. Military pom-poms of coque are also freely used. Plumes made into the hat itself must be dark, with bits long aigrette and fancy pom-pom effects are popular. All of the fashionable colors are embodied in these fancy effects. Gaura and paradise are still the leading factors, but the extremely high cost, together with the scarcity, will make them prohibitive in many cases. New ideas in spraying or making up paradise and gours into fancy effects have developed this season. The "Panellon" or butterfly has indeed taken a flying leap into fashion, and is at the present a dominant feature of fashion. The fabrics of which these trimmings are developed York and the leading Canadian fabrics are not limited, since those of ribbon centres. These are all fully exposed and lace even of the plumage embodied in HOLMAN'S showing of the velvet bird vie with each other Millinery. 1515.

100 AMERICANS ARE REBELS' PRISONERS.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 14.—One hundred Americans, including a number of women and children refugees from Torreón, are reported to have fallen into the hands of the rebels while proceeding overland to Saltillo. The authorities at Saltillo decline to take the responsibility of sending a force to their rescue, fearing, they say, that the rebels might commit atrocities upon the refugees, which would possibly otherwise be avoided. The report comes from an official source at Saltillo, but has not been confirmed. The American Embassy has been advised and has called upon the Mexican Foreign Office to investigate the matter and do whatever is possible to relieve the Americans should the report prove true. Senor Gamboa, the Foreign Minister, has had no advices further than the communication from the Embassy. He expressed regret but added that it was no more than might be expected as the result of the "neutrality policy" of the United States, which had hampered the administration in proceeding with a strong hand against rebels and bandits.

O. M. AUERBACH ACQUITTED ON THE CHARGE OF MURDER

HERSHEY, Mich., Sept. 13.—Oscar M. Auerbach, college graduate and Chicago business man, was, late yesterday, acquitted of the charge of murdering his former business partner, Harry Fisher. The circuit judge instructed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty. It was Auerbach's second trial, the first resulting in his conviction.
