In the federal dry army has failed to pass the honesty test designed to keep crooks out of the prohibition service.

Examinations conducted during the past twenty-eight months have resulted in the ousting of eighty-five undesirables from the rank and file of the prohibition service and the elimination of more than 500 others from the list of candidates for dry positions. These agents and applicants have been eliminated for cause because of their failure to pass character investigations conducted by the civil service commission. Addition of the eighty-five veterans to the long list of dry agents fired for delinquency, misconduct or graft brings the nine-year total since the Volstead Act was passed well above the 1200-mark.

LEAVE FOR CANADA

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, Aug. 3.—High Commissioner Larkin who is going to the Hague as Canada's representative at the reparations conference was at Waterloo Station this morning to see Mrs. Larkin and Miss Larkin off to Canada. The Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, and the Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery and their parties were on the same train. Churchill's son looks forward to achieving one of the dreams of his life in Canada, that is to follow the track of General Wolfe up the St. Lawrence, to climb the Heights of Abraham, where Wolfe climbed them and then to stand on the historic battlefield where the destiny of Canada was decided. Mr. Churchill will stay a day in Montreal and then go to Ottawa and Toronto. Mr. Amery goes straight out west and will be climbing the Rockies. He will not reach Ottawa until October.

Admission prices to motion picture theatres in Sofia, Bulgaria, now range from three to 14 cents.

BRILLIANT FAMILY—It is interesting to note that in the recent matriculation examinations Miss Margaret Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Black of this city, led the city in the entrance examinations and also made the highest marks in history for the Province. In this connection it might be said that her sister, Dorothy, led in grade 6 work in West Kent School this year and her brother, Harold, led in grade 7 work. Miss Margaret also led in grade 10 and won the Governor General's medal. This is quite a feat for one family, and the young people are to be warmly congratulated.

KING ATTENDS TO BUSINESS

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Aug. 5.—Because of continued good progress the King had been able to transact business personally during the past few days and has spent several hours at his desk dealing with matters previously handled by his secretary, although he has not been outside Buckingham Palace since his last operation. This was said largely to be due to unsuitable weather. It is now thought the King will be able to make the journey to Sandringham Palace within the next two weeks in order to carry out his original plans of spending the summer at Norfolk.

Institutes Convention

The Annual District Convention comprising Mount Stewart, Savage Harbour, Fanningbrook, Donaldston, Donnelley's Road and Stanhope Institutes, was held in the Mount Stewart Hall, July 29th, 1929. A good attendance of delegates from four of the Institutes attended the first session, which was held at 3.30 p. m.
Mrs. Fred McDonald of Mt. Stewart, assisted by Mrs. Ross Pigott, Mt. Stewart and Mrs. Morrison, Savage Harbour, presided.
The meeting was opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by repeating the Creed of the Institute in unison.
Mrs. James Atkins read an address of welcome to the visiting delegates which was fittingly responded to by Mrs. N. McCormick of Savage Harbour. Miss Isobel Jay, Fanningbrook, entertained the audience with a very humorous reading.
Papers outlining the work of the several Institutes were read by Miss Tillie Coult, Donaldston, Miss Marion McDonald, Savage Harbour, Miss Jeanette McDonald, Mount Stewart. These papers showed a marked increase in the amount of work carried on as compared to that of last year.
Mrs. A. B. Martin, Mount Stewart, was appointed president, and Miss Marion McDonald, Savage Harbour, secretary of the Convention for the coming year.
Questions and difficulties were brought up by means of the "Question Box." These questions were satisfactorily explained by Miss Schurman, the supervisor.
A very helpful talk, concerning problems that confront us in our daily work, was given by Miss Schurman. She also expressed a desire that each institute write a short, concise paragraph concerning the program of each month's meetings and forward it to the paper for publication.
Mrs. Ross Pigott read a letter from Mrs. McDonald in which she expressed regrets for not being able to attend the Convention. In her letter Mrs. McDonald endeavoured to explain questions relating to the Dalton Sanatorium which heretofore had not been understood.
The last feature of the programme was a "Salad Making" by Miss McPhail. I'm sure many of the delegates returned home with many useful and practical ideas in connection with this line of cooking.
The meeting was then adjourned, and a very appetizing lunch was served to the delegates and an enjoyable hour was spent.
The evening session which began at 8 o'clock, was attended by a large number of delegates and visitors, and the following program was successfully carried out:
Chorus: O Canada.
Recitation: For He was Scotch and so was She, by Margaret Martin.
Reading: "A cutting from the Prisoner of Zenda," by Mrs. Charmon.
Solo: The Cat Came Back, by Miss Violet Aitken.
Reading: Her First Ride in an Automobile, by Miss Bessie McLeod. Address on Public Health by Dr. McDonald.
Mrs. Morrison, Savage Harbour, moved that a vote of thanks be tendered Dr. McDonald for his splendid address, seconded by Mrs. McKaskill.
A vote of thanks to Miss Schurman and Miss McPhail was moved by Mrs. McKay, seconded by Mrs. Ross Pigott.
Chorus: Island Hymn.
The meeting was brought to a close by singing God Save the King.

At Rotary

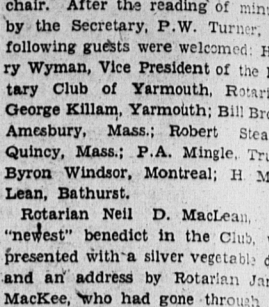

The monthly meeting of the Rotary Club was held yesterday afternoon in the Oddfellows Hall with the President, James A. MacMillan in the chair. After the reading of minutes by the Secretary, P.W. Turner, the following guests were welcomed: Harry Wyman, Vice President of the Rotary Club of Yarmouth, Rotarians George Killam, Yarmouth; Bill Brown Amesbury, Mass.; Robert Stearns, Quincy, Mass.; P.A. Mingle, Truro; Byron Windsor, Montreal; H. MacLean, Bathurst.
Rotarian Neil D. MacLean, the "newest" benedict in the Club, was presented with a silver vegetable dish and an address by Rotarian James MacKee, who had gone through the same ordeal at a recent meeting.
Rotarian MacKee out of his extended experience, gave Mr. MacLean much valuable advice on his launching forth into the matrimonial sea.
The President made fitting reference to the death of the late Hon. P. J. Nash, who made his last public appearance as a speaker at the Rotary Club this spring. Mr. MacMillan stated that the Rotarians had sent a wreath for his funeral.
It was announced that the New Glasgow Rotary Club is having an excursion to Charlottetown next Wednesday by the Hochelaga. As the visit is purely unofficial, the visitors do not expect that the Rotary Club will give any official recognition of their coming. The President, however, announced that it might be well for individual Rotarians to be at the wharf with their cars when the steamer arrives.
The holding of a Rotary picnic this year was left in the hands of J. J. Leightizer, J.R. MacKee, and Neil D. MacLean.
Regret was expressed at the illness of M.G. MacNeill, and Heath McIntyre, who are both in the hospital.
The speaker of the day was Rev. Dr. Vincent, Pastor of the Baptist Church, who took as his subject "The Country's Greatest Asset," basing his remarks on the first six verses of the 27th chapter of Luke, where reference is made to the widow's mite. Dr. Vincent declared the greatest asset of any country is not its institutions, buildings, organizations, but its good people who recognize their duty to God and to their fellow men. He spoke of the influence of good people in the upbuilding of any nation stating that if Christ had taught no other truth than the value of human personality, his life would have been worth while. No man is really good unless he fully recognizes his responsibility to God. He then related an incident in the life of W. Jennings Bryan, who sacrificed his chances of securing a nomination on one occasion because he refused to eliminate a dry plank in his platform.

WHEN MOSQUITOES ATTACK HOOPER EXTENSIVE CAMPAIGN IS STARTED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Mosquitoes have been getting away with assault and murder in the vicinity of the White House for several years and then they picked on President Hoover.
An investigation was started. Experts of the public health service were called. Surveys have been completed with the assistance of many government departments. They have disclosed catch basins of stagnant water that are potential grounds for extensive breeding of mosquitoes. An oil spray is being applied.
Lieut.-Commander Joel T. Boone, the president's personal physician, who suffered an attack of malaria in Hayti in 1916, and a recurrence of the illness here in 1920, has taken a lead in the crusade against mosquitoes.
Dr. W.F. Draper, assistant surgeon general of the public health service, has been granted two sanitary ex-
