

Summer Hostess -by- Lucy Poate Stebbins

CHAPTER XXVIII

Humtleigh's voice completely restored Leslie to sanity. Whoever had been unscrupulous and disloyal, it wasn't she and she had been a simpleton to believe it. He did not speak again for several minutes while he moved restlessly about the cave collecting firewood, always checking his watch with such caution that the light never fell upon the child's returned face. Presently a warm little blaze brightened the darkness. "May as well be comfortable while we stay," he observed. "It's damp for the baby without a fire."

Looking Ahead with Hal Bohaker

Spring, so the poets say, is the season when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. That may be. But Spring affects many other people in a very different way. To most home owners, for instance, Spring means house-cleaning-time — time to put one's personal affairs in order — to take stock of oneself. This year, when giving yourself and your possessions the annual going-over, don't overlook your private papers, especially your life insurance. Circumstances may have changed since they were last reviewed; someone whom you named a beneficiary may have died; a policy purchased with a particular intention in mind may no longer be required for that reason, but for another; the insurance you considered adequate a year or more ago may now fall far short of meeting actual requirements as you see them today. Here is where I may be able to be of service to you. It is a part of my job to solve problems like these almost every day, and I will be very glad to discuss them with you, in strictest confidence. Call or write me if you have any questions on matters connected with Life Insurance.

WOMEN OF THE ISLAND!

In her great hour of need, Canada needs the strong action of her women to face victoriously her crucial problems. A higher percentage among you than among the women of any province have seen their husbands, their sons, their brothers or their sweethearts leave their native Island for the grim duties of war.

You know that your men in uniform have endured more hardship than would have been necessary because of the weak-kneed and shabby manpower policy of the King government. Can you entrust to that same government the future of those same men when they return to civilian life?

If Mr. King could play politics with your husbands, your sons, your brothers and your sweethearts when it was a matter of life and death, will he not play politics with them also in the post-war period?

If Mr. King could break faith with them in a period of great upheaval, do you believe that he will not break faith with them again, again and again in this critical post-war period?

Their future is in YOUR hands REMEMBER!
