MARRIED LIFE IN JAILS?

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Married life in jail would be a good thing, a criminologist said today.

Very often a good sponge has to be thrown away because it has got dirty. Try cleaning it in the following way. Soak the sponge for twenty-four hours in a strong solution of salt and water.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

THE RIVERS OF WATERS

I am the mighty river,—with my many brothers, we await man's domination to fulfill our destiny.

Fed by the sun, as ordained, with rain and glacier snow, from mountain range to ocean unceasing we flow.

Men waste their lives and substance seeking strife, and sterile gold while all the real values to human lives are doled.

"THE SEA IS HIS AND HE MADE IT"

By Canon A. P. Shaford A company of Christian philosophers discussed the greatest text in the Bible.

character to meet their varying needs. Yet with the constancy of the sea He abides in patience forever.

"THANK GOD EVERY MORNING"

By Charles Kingsley "Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that which must be done whether you like it or not.

THE BRITISH ARMY AND SOBRIETY

"Every General Officer who has commanded troops in war, or led an army into the field in the last twenty-five years will tell you that the best fighting army is the sober army.

In the 22 days in Canada, Mr. Killip, reached about 47000 people with his warning against reckless driving and especially against driving after drinking.

There are stores of health in the waters of the sea, and there restore their strength. The sun draws the sea up into the air and then by a strange process carries it into refreshing rain to fall upon the thirsty soil.

There was a time when people talked of "the separating seas," but that phrase has become obsolete and meaningless.
