Why So Cheap

It is often asked why the Independent Order of Foresters can give Life Insurance so cheap compared with the Commercial Companies.

Combining the business part with the Lodge System is the cheaf reason. Look after the interests of 246.000 members and securing 35 000 new ones cost the I. O. F. $4.00 for each new member.

It cost one of the best Companies $214.00 for each new policy issued, and they only head one fifth the old ones to look after that the I.O.F. head. See the difference.

—The little two year old son of Mrs. William Yeo, Line Road, last weekdrank some poison. A doctor was quickly called and restoratives used and at present the little fellow is none the worse of his experience.

—Through an error in taking by phone the heading on H. A. Compton's ad appeared incorrectly in Saturday's paper. It should have read "To the Electors of The Town of Summerside" and appears thus today.

—Albert Haney of Long River lost a valuable horse through the ice at Long River last week. It appears that his son was driving the horse with a load of mussel mud and coming to an opening the force of the sleigh drove the horse under the ice and before it was cleared away the horse was drowned.

—J. Kier Ramsay of Port Hill on Feb. 21 in Grand River hall delivered his popular lecture an Abraham Lincon. The hall was packed to the doors, and the large audience was intensely pleased with the lecture. Mrs. Hubert Philips of Tyne Valley gave two very fine solos in her usual good style.

—Among the pictures at Fairyland tonight in Summerside are Terrible Ted, a film full of adventure; Hanky Panky Cards, a splendid comedy; A life for a life, a military melo drama, besides the Pearl Fisher's Dream, which is a special reel which will delight everyone who sees it. —A children's carnival will be held in the Crystal Rink, Summerside, on Wednesday the 26th inst, from 7.30 till 9 o'clock. After that hour promenaders may skate. Admission 15 cents. 2-24d2i.

—John M. Arsenault of Richmond who a few weeks ago, had the misfortune of falling on the ice and breaking his thigh, is getting around nicely. Mr. Arsenault has been rather unfortunate having had his leg broken a few years ago, and about fifteen years ago was kicked on the head by a horse and his skull fractured of which the Doctor was obliged to remove a square inch.

—Tonight besides the usual pictures Fairyland in Summerside will put on the Pearl Fisher's Dream, a colored film, which surpasses in beauty anything shown here. It reveals in vivid reality the mysteries of the ocean bed, with its strange inhabitants and how they treat the Pearl Fisher when he visits them in a dream. This film was shown several nights in Charlottetown and was the subject of great praise. The story is fascinating and interesting. Don't forget that tonight Fairyland shows three whole reels, six pictures and no extra charge.
