SOURIS.
THE SEASON FOR Coughs and Colds
 is at hand and everybody is liable to catch them. Of course you may get some home-made candy, a box of cough drops, have mother make some six-needle tea with a stick of licorice in it, rub on some skunk oil and turpentine, take a dose of kerosene, and if a little fat you may ask your neighbor what he used, etc. These remedies may be right to use at times and under certain conditions. But if they fail to give relief, why do you go on experimenting when you can get almost instant relief with my Compound Syrup of White Pine with Eucalyptol and Honey.

 which is scientifically prepared, absolutely harmless to even the smallest child, and every bottle of which is guaranteed. Give it a trial. Your money back if not satisfactory.

The telephone wire, which has been set up across the river ice during the winter connecting Charlottetown with southern sections will be taken down today. Henceforth, till the new bridge is completed, those telephoning to the south sections will have to do so by way of Carleton Place as the Company do not see their way out to lay another cable for the short time till the completion of the bridge.

On Wednesday night March 30th, Elliott Division No. 224, Sons of Temperance met at their Hall and elected their officers for the coming year and transacted all other sessional business, after which the following program was taken part in:

- Instrumental Duets—M. Lean Bros.
- Recitation.—Florrie Smith.
- Reading.—Ebel Alchorn.
- Address.—Society and its Members, D. C. McKinnon.

The program being exhausted a number of the sisters assumed a house wife appearance and after the male members were arranged along the wall, coffee and cake were served in a very fraternal manner. Then came a full and candid being conducted in a cheery and jovial style. A vote of thanks was tendered the lady members for their kindess and the meeting came to a close by singing the closing ode, after which all started for home feeling satisfied that it is a good thing to be a good Son of Temperance.

On the occasion of his departure from Crapanui School, Thomas E. Street was waited on by his pupils, who in token of their appreciation of his services presented him with a beautiful toilet folding mirror and an elegantly mounted perfume bottle accompanied by the following address:

DEAR TEACHER, "I revolve in my mind as scholars of Crapanui School to offer you a slight token of our esteem and regard on this the occasion of your departure. We are not now addressing you as our teacher, but as our dear friend and very much our helper. The little gift we offer you is of small intrinsic value, but it is rich in love, gratitude, and respect. Please accept it, and with it our trust that you will ever be as happy as you have made ours." Mr. Street acknowledged the gift in suitable terms, dwelling on the happy relations that had always existed between them as teacher and pupil, and acknowledging them ever so with the path of rectitude and virtue. It is understood, he intends leaving in the near future for Western Canada where The Guardian trusts he may meet with the success which diligence and in equity always command. His going abroad will mean socially a great loss to the community in which he resided.

At 10 on Wednesday, March 30th, the home of John and Mrs. Durand, Marzate, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their daughter, Patricia, was united in matrimony to John Laird, formerly of Crapanui, but for some years a C. P. R. official in Western Canada. The bride was beautifully attired in white silk tulle with abiding and insertion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Young B. A. in the presence of about twenty-five invited guests. After congratulations and the serving of a substantial dinner the afternoon was spent in pleasant conversation and music. Mr. and Mrs. Laird were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents, including a silver scallop dish and address from the Marzate Auxiliary of which the bride was a faithful member, and a cheque for $2.00 from the groom's mother, besides several smaller cheques and bills amounting in all to $30. After stating "God be with you till we meet again," most of the guests drove to Kensington where the newly-married couple, having said good-bye, departed on the evening train for their future home in Moose Jaw, Ass., in Ontario where they intend remaining over Sunday, the guests of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. S. McPhail. Their many friends wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.

LATEST advices received at the I. C. R. offices from Point du Chene are to the effect that Northumberland Straits are still badly blocked with ice and that the opening of navigation is still very far off. Last spring the steamer Northumberland made her first trip from Summerside to Point du Chene on April 15th, and the steamer Princess crossed from Charlottetown to Picton about the same time. It is now thought that the summer steamers will not be able to cross until fully two weeks later than last year, judging from the present condition of the ice.

Prominent Clergymen Endorse The Wonderful Spring Medicine.

Rev. J. L. Leshman, Argus, Ont., says: "I have always found Paine's Celery Compound an excellent nerve tonic, and have frequently recommended it to persons suffering from nervous debility and sleeplessness. I believe it to be a most powerful medicine. It also purifies the blood and revives the system. Give it a fair trial and it will in these cases be found helpful."

Rev. J. P. Rioux, Montreal, Que., says: "I am fully convinced both by personal experience and by the statements of many parishioners interested to my care, that the celebrated medicine, Paine's Celery Compound, deserves a high recommendation. I therefore willingly endorse the testimonials already given in its behalf."
