DR. JAMES McDONALD has many interesting things to tell about Western Canada from a tour through which he returned a few days ago. The doctor spent six weeks in his tour and visited the principal cities and farming sections in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan. At Indian Head, Sas. he met John Crockett who recently left Carleton. Mr. Crockett has a half section of excellent land and is well pleased with the prospect in his first year but he has a fine crop. At this point the Government Experimental Farm is located and its influence is being very widely felt. At Regina he met H. O. Craswell, formerly of St. Eleanor. Mr. Craswell has a hotel in Regina and is doing a good business. His farm at Lake Centre, 60 miles out, is a splendid one with a magnificent crop this season. In Regina he also saw J. W. Craswell, some years ago a clerk in the employ of McGougan & Wright, Summerside. He owns a large general furnishing and clothing store and is doing a successful business. Here also J. Heber Haslam, former Islander, owns colossal properties in land, building, offices, &c. and is regarded as one of the wealthiest men in the city. At Calgary the doctor encountered a veritable colony of Prince Edward Islanders, all of whom he reports as doing well. Among those whom he met were R. E. Sobey, who is still in the painting business and all the work he and his twenty employees can attend to; Doctors Harry and Frank Wright, brothers, dentists, with a splendid practice and one of the best dental offices in Canada; W. S. Green formerly of Summerside, book-keeper for a large hardware firm, who also has a fine home; W. H. Waugh, formerly employed by the Mechanics' Mfg. Co. Summerside, head book-keeper for a large hardware firm. Mr. Waugh owns considerable real estate and a handsome new residence. J. B. C. Baker formerly representing The Guardian at Summerside, is book-keeper for P. Burns & Co., meat dealers, also dealing in real estate, owns several promising town lots and is still a favorite with both sexes; Mr. Forsyth, formerly in the employ of R. T. Holman, runs a successful piano and organ business, has purchased a home and owns good property on Main Street, which has very much increased in value on account of recent railway movements; E. Crockett, son of John Crockett, Carleton, is ticket agent in the C. P. R. office has a good position and is a popular young man; Harry Silliphant, Linus Deegan, J. Mullins, D. MacNeill, Summerside, and Austin McInnis of Earncliffe, are all recent arrivals and all in good positions. At Wetaskawin the doctor met another colony of successful Islanders, among them Louis Montgomery, formerly Summerside's Chief of Fire Department, his younger brother and Charles McMurdo. These young men are about opening up a general furnishing establishment under the name of McMurdo and Montgomery Brothers. Charles Egan runs a successful book and stationary store. Dr. A. W. McKay, dentist, John Christopher, formerly of R. T. Holman's, Frank Beariste, Massey-Harris agent, Herman G. Murphy, H. A. Higgs, druggist and a number of others are all doing well and upholding the honor of their native province. (Other places visited and people met will be noticed in a future issue.)
