

A Sour Stomach

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour Temper.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills.

the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being properly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying creating gases which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues" but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestive like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are pepsin, diastase and Hydrochloric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolute necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick of Lawrence, Mass. says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active club door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use."

"From the time I was 22 when I graduated from school with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal."

I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day sometimes was alarmed by irregularly and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

the Robert Reford Co., and handed THE GUARDIAN by Mr. Horace Harnard, who has spent considerable time in setting forth why a steamer should call at this port, will be of interest.

As stated in our very full telegram to you of 17th, we were very anxious to give this business a trial, believing as we then said, that although money might be lost in commencing same, that a fair business could be developed by a regular and satisfactory service, and we so called Messrs. Donaldson. They, however, (from cable received today) seem to think that the loss might be very heavy and that it is too late this season to experiment without something positive as to actual freight steamer could count upon.

Should the Government wish to take up the matter of a regular service from Prince Edward Island next season with permission for steamers to call at Sydney and other ports for cargo, if not sufficient obtainable at Prince Edward Island, we will have great pleasure in doing our best to bring such about, and think negotiation should be commenced soon as possible as British shipowners arrange business for their steamers as far ahead as possible; and should Cold Storage or Cool Air Chambers be a necessary part of such steamer's outfit, the work on such would have to be undertaken during the winter.

In considering this Prince Edward Island business the Government will have to consider that steamers undertaking it will require at the beginning at least, to take considerable risk of obtaining cargo, (and would therefore require a fair subsidy, say $500 per trip.) Prince Edward Island could not certainly provide full cargoes at first neither (so far as we are informed) full decksloads of cattle or sheep, consequently, a considerable proportion of the deck space would likely be lost each voyage, and not receiving full cargoes at one port, the Steamer would come under heavy expenses in having to go to possibly to two or three ports to complete loading, pay port charges, pilotage at each, also extra insurance, besides consuming considerable more time on the voyage, than if she loaded altogether at one port.

We will be very pleased to hear from you in connection with this matter and regret non result of our mutual efforts up to the present.

Yours truly, THE ROBERT REFORM CO. LIMITED, (Signed) Robert Reford, President.

A Big Crop of Oranges.

Florida was formerly a large factor in the orange supply to the continent, but a sudden dip in the temperature one winter some four or five years ago practically wiped out the industry by killing thousands of trees.

The possibility of another such visitation was so discouraging that no one felt like making a fresh start. Gradually, however, courage returned, especially in the southern part of the State, with the result that this year it is calculated the growers will have 1,500,000 boxes to sell. The first shipments were made last week.

WARTS ARE UNSIGHTLY. That is the reason no one is clamoring for a few more warts—make them fashionable and a remedy to grow warts would quickly be made a financial success.

TEE ROYAL WELCOME

Colonial Colors All Along the Route

PLEASURES OF TRIP

Recounted by the Duke—Colonial Address to King Edward.

DUKE AND DUCHESS WARMLY CHEERED.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—(Special).—The Royal train left Portsmouth to the strains of naval bands and cheered by thousands.

At the railway station here immense crowds greeted and cheered the Duke and Duchess.

COLONIAL COLORS ALONG THE ROUTE. The route from the station to Marlborough House was profusely decorated in colonial colors.

DUKE RECOUNTS THE TRIP'S PLEASURES. The Colonial Agents presented an address at the station and the Duke dilated on the enjoyment they had derived from their trip and on the gladness of seeing again their native land.

ADDRESS TO KING AND HIS REPLY. An address was also presented to the King, who handed a written reply, thanking them for the welcome to the Duke and Duchess and for the splendid reception they received in the Colonies.

The King also referred to the devotion and patriotism of the Colonies in sending troops to Africa.

All the Royal Party rode in open carriages.

THE KING'S HEALTH. London, October 31.—The Lancet to-day says it has official authority to announce that the recent rumors regarding the health of King Edward are entirely without truth or foundation, and that he is in good health and has undergone no operation whatever.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE. A new Brunswick Man About to be Operated on for Appendicitis—A Narrow Escape.

ST. MARY'S, N. B., Nov. 4.—What came nearly being a fearful blunder happened here a short time ago.

Thomas Harrison thought from his painful symptom he had Appendicitis. He was being treated for it, indeed the surgical operation which is supposed to be the only successful treatment for Appendicitis had been suggested. He really had Stone in the Bladder.

Mr. Harrison says:— "About this time an anxious friend advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and by the time I had finished the first box I passed a stone of unusual size which is now in the doctor's possession.

"I began at once to feel better and you may judge of my gratitude for my escape thus promptly and safely. Having taken only three boxes I am happy to state I am absolutely cured with no sign of the return of my old trouble."
