Canadian Sings For Royalty

BANFF, Alta., May 29—(CP)—The Queen stood on a balcony in the Banff Springs Hotel last night to listen to Frances James, Montreal-born soprano, sing a simple Scottish air.

During the informal dinner attended by members of the royal suite, the Queen left the table and walked to the balcony overhanging the Mount Stephen room where Miss James was singing in the after-dinner musical program.

The song Her Majesty heard was "O Can Ye Sew Cushions," arranged by Colin Taylor. The Queen remained to listen to a second selection, "Depuis Le Jour."

As an encore, Miss James sang another Scottish song, "The Spinning Wheel", for the Queen.

Spanish Fruit Helps Lighten Food Shortage

BERLIN, May 30—(AP)—Oranges in seemingly plentiful quantities brightened Berlin tables tonight after many months of indibility to get more than one or two, if any, because of the Nazi government's food conservation policy.

The appearance of the big boxes of the Spanish fruit in stores eased a burden for housewives and prompted many questions as to why oranges suddenly became plentiful. The customary answer given in streets was that Spanish Nationalist Leader General Franco was paying off part of his "war debt" to Germany in that way.

Otherwise, German supplies of food and raw material are practically on a wartime footing. Food hoarding has been undertaken on a gigantic scale by the German state. Canneries are putting up meats, vegetables and fruits as reserves against the possibility of war.

Benzine, copper, nickel, textiles and dozens of other commodities essential for the conduct of war are also being stored.

The food shortage experienced by the average citizen does not mean, however, that the country as such is so badly off. It reflects the scale on which the state is accumulating stocks for the army to live on.

Leaders Gain On Montreal Mart

MONTREAL, May 30—(CP)—Stock market leaders ventured forward as much as a point today although lacking the guidance of Wall Street, closed for Memorial Day.

Price Brothers moved up 3-4 in paper buying while St. Lawrence Corporation, common and preferred advanced 1-4 each. Brazilian Montreal Power, and Shawinigan were fractional gainers in the utility group.

RECALLS

by Mr. Pattullo at the British Columbia legislative building here today:

I wish to thank you most sincerely for the kind and loyal sentiments to which your address, on behalf of the Government and people of British Columbia, gives expression, and to assure you that the Queen and I are deeply touched by the warmth of the welcome we have received in this province.

Here in your delightful capital it is gratifying to be reminded that its name honours the memory of my illustrious great-grandmother, Queen Victoria, and that the name of the province itself was chosen by her more than a century ago.

Impressive Contribution

The people of British Columbia are blessed with rich and varied resources, and their efforts, inspired by the courage and enterprise of those who came before them, have made an impressive contribution to this great Dominion and to the British Commonwealth of nations

The Queen and I, in our journey through British Columbia have much enjoyed its scenic beauties and we regret that time does not permit us to extend our visit to other portions of the province.

May Divine Providence continue to bless and prosper the people of British Columbia.

Trotting Honors Headed For New York State

(By The Canadian Press)

GOSHEN, N. Y., May 30—New York State appears to have a stranglehold on trotting honors this year with Dunbar W. Bostwick's Nibble Hanover favorite for the Kentucky Derby's counterpart in trotting, the Hambletonian stake and E. Roland Harriman's Edgar Hoover, an $8,100 colt which looks like tops among the juvenile sulky-pullers.

Out of 235 horses entered in Goshen's first Grand Circuit meeting the week of July 4, more than half are owned by New York State sportsmen. And the unlucky number of 13 out of the 45 three-year-olds eligible for the Hambletonian here in August also are in the stables of Empire State owners.

Boyne, seven-year-old gelding owned by Bostwick, is another New Yorker scheduled to upset the invading rivals. Pat O'Connell of Cleveland, now training here for the Grand Circuit, considers Bostwick and Boyne the toughest nut he and his Kelly have to crack when they meet here on Independence Day.

Nibble Hanover, although his training was set back by a wet track, is reported by trainer Harry Whitney and by his 32-year-old timer, who works him more often than Whitney, to be in better form than last fall. Then he won the junior Kentucky Futurity in 2.02¼ to become top favorite in the winter books for the 13th Hambletonian.

PAINFUL TO BEND A JOINT

Hospital Case of Rheumatism

The value of perseverance with Kruschen, in the treatment of some cases of rheumatism, is proved by this man's experience. He says:—

"I was abroad for over seven years. When I returned I began to suffer from rheumatic pains—particularly in the feet and arms, and I was eventually taken into hospital, unable to move without groaning with pain. When I left the hospital after two months, I was somewhat better. I was recommended to take Kruschen Salts, have taken them continuously, and until now I am entirely free from pains. I would not be without my Kruschen Salts for anything."—M.B.

Two of the salts in Kruschen are effectual solvents of uric acid the excess of which is decidedly injurious. They swiftly dull the sharp edges of the painful crystals—the cause of pain and stiffness—and convert them into a harmless solution, which is then expelled through the natural channels.

Pownal

Mothers Day was fittingly observed in the Pownal Church, the pastor taking as his text, Kings 2:19. And Solomon caused a seat to be set for the kings mother and she sat on his right hand. The flowers were very beautiful carnations in pink and white and vases of trailing arbutus adorned the pulpit. The lilies on the table were from Mr. J. W. Smith, Midland, Ontario in memory of his mother and his Sunday School teacher Mrs. J. A. Moore and another lovely potted plant from Mr. J. A. Moore in memory of his wife. Mr. Jack Hermon and Mrs. Nat McKinnon sang a duet in keeping with the theme.

The many friends of Mr. James Mitchell of Village Green are hoping for his speedy recovery to health again.

Mrs. Frank Jones entertained the members of the Institute at her home on Friday evening. Miss Lila Jenkins who attended Y. P. U. conference at York reported a pleasant and profitable time.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pownal Auxiliary of the United Church was held at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Moore and notwithstanding the showers that were supposed to help along the Mayflowers, seventeen found their way to the meeting, besides four little cherubs—rose buds of promise—Some so tiny as to be carried in mother's arms, while the others walked demurely by her side, importance beaming in their happy faces, for were they not "going to the missionary meeting", there to get first and lasting impressions of the importance of the work. The president, Miss Joyce Lane presided. Mrs. Earl Ballam was the leader. A solo by Miss Mabel Inman and a duet by Mrs. Carver and Miss Lane were much enjoyed. At this meeting the importance of stewardship was emphasized. Readings along that line were given by Mrs. W. Brehaut and Mrs. Calvin Wood. The Bible reading was taken by Mrs. Jack Herman. A new programme committee was appointed for the next six months. A very fine article "Friendship Corner" was given by Miss Will Ings, showing how the long arm of the community friendship secretary is capable of reaching from east to west, in this wonderful work. Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Ross were asked to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. W. A. Thompson whose girlhood days were spent in Pownal Village and where her husband the late Rev. W. A. Thompson was at one time principal of the Pownal school. The offering for the day amounted to twelve dollars. Three invitations were extended for the June meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. George Carver. A delectable lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant evening spent by all. For the aroma of the tea that "comes fresh from the gardens" was wafted to where the chauffeurs were waiting, and they also come and had a cup of the beverage which "cheers but not inebriates."

A very fine entertainment was given to an appreciative audience on Thursday night in the Pownal Hall. Two interesting plays, "On the Dotted Line" and "Mother Goes on Strike" were timely, instructive and well acted. Rev. Mr. Ross was chairman. The following is the programme. Selections by Mount Herbert Orchestra; Play "On the Dotted Line"; Solo by Russel Downe; Duet, by Edison Smith and Mrs. Nat McKinnon; Harmonica duet by Coady brothers; Intermission and sale of candy. Selections by Mount Herbert Orchestra; Solo by Miss Evelyn Wood; Duet by the Downe Sisters; Play "Mother Goes on Strike"; Closing National Anthem Miss Isabel Ings and Mrs. N. McKinnon were accompanists. (Patriot please copy).

MRS. EMMA AHEARN

There peacefully passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on May 4th, after a lingering illness, Mrs Emma Ahearn in the 74th year of her age. About a year ago she contracted a serious malady from which she never recovered and despite the fact that she had the best of medical skill and kind nursing she gradually grew weaker until death came to relieve her of her sufferings and she passed away on the above mentioned date. She had the tender nursing of the good Sisters of that institution and received the last Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member, from the hands of the Rev. Bernard Gillis, who prepared her soul for that eternal reward which is promised to all who faithfully love and serve Him here on earth. Her remains were conveyed from Hennessey's Undertaking Parlors by express to the home of her brother Chas. Dunn of Elmsdale from whose home her funeral took place on Saturday morning to the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Wm. V. MacDonald, who performed the last sad rites at the grave and all that was mortal of this most estimable lady was tenderly laid to rest to await a glorious resurrection May her soul rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her.

BANFF, Alta., May 29—(CP)—The King and Queen left two gifts behind them in return for their hospitable, informal stay at Banff Springs hotel this weekend.

Before leaving the hotel to attend the Anglican Church service which preceded the automobile drive to Field to rejoin the royal train, they summoned Miss S. C. Congdn, head housekeeper, and R. M. Deyell, hotel manager, to the royal suite.

The Queen presented the housekeeper with a rough-silver compact marked with a crown in red enamel. Miss Congden, who has served many distinguished guests in her long hotel experience but never a King and Queen, was charmed with her gift and the kindness of the royal couple.

"I didn't expect a handshake but they both insisted on shaking hands with me and the Queen told me to use the compact every day, not to keep it for best," she said.

Mr. Deyell's gift was a pair of blue enamel cuff links, with G. R. engraved on them in red enamel. As the royal car prepared to depart for church Mr. Deyell took his wife and four-year-old daughter, dressed in a Scottish plaid costume, to bid the King and Queen farewell.

The father held Roberta Jane up to see Their Majesties, who smiled at her and shook hands.

their own until they leave for Vancouver and the start of the return trip east at 10 a. m. P. S. T., 3 P. M. ADT) tomorrow.

In all except the downtown sections of the long royal route the cheers given Their Majesties by grown-ups seemed restrained because in most places the sidewalks were not deeply crowded.

But school children everywhere yelled their greeting in a wave of cheering that could be heard a full block before Their Majesties arrived and still echoed when the last of the long string of cars in the procession had passed

Bleachers erected along the route were practically empty as they have been in other cities of the tour. Those who erected them must have lost thousands of dollars.

Their Majesties had bright sunshine for their visit to Vancouver Island although the wind was chilly. For a few minutes in the early afternoon a rainshower fell.

At the city hall, their first stop after leaving Government House where they spent the night, the royal couple received a civic welcome, met members of the city council and their wives and the reeves of nearby Oak Bay, Saanichton and Esquimalt, signed the city's golden book and presented Mayor Andrew McGavin with their picture.

They then rode to the Legislature where they were presented with an address from the province and the King handed Premier Pattullo a written reply in which His Majesty said he and the Queen were deeply touched by the warmth of their reception in British Columbia.

They received 111 persons, including members of the Legislature and their wives, the King wearing his uniform of an Admiral of the Fleet and the Queen an orchid afternoon gown, the first long gown she has worn in Canada to a noon parliamentary function.

Their majesties rested for 40 minutes at the Empress Hotel before attending the luncheon where they were served breast of pheasant and mountain trout, brought here from Seattle because it is illegal to catch them in British Columbia at this time of the year.

Premier Pattullo sat between Their Majesties in the great dining room of the hotel which was decorated impressively with flowers.

Vancouver and Victoria have outdone the rest of Canada in floral decorations for Their Majesties' visit because so many blooms are available here at this season.

During the tour today children scattered flowers before Their Majesties.

As they arrived at the Beacon Hill Park football field for the presentation of the color, naval ratings lined roads leading to the field.

Their Majesties looked out over the Strait of Juan de Fuca and could see Washington State's majestic Olympic Mountains 18 miles away.

After bestowing of the blessing, His Majesty stepped up to the piled drums and presented the color while the band played "Rule Britannia." The men gave the royal salute as an officer lowered the color toward the King.

MR. LEMUEL CROCKETT

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown of Lemuel Crockett, York, after an illness of about six weeks.

His wife, nee Hettie Duck, Pleasant Grove, predeceased him almost two years ago.

Mr. Crockett was a native of York, P. E. I., and during his life of 78 years, he resided there, where he was a successful farmer, a good neighbor and a highly respected citizen.

He was the son of the late George Crockett and Eliza Tamlin. Out of a family of nine surviving him is one sister Mrs. Herbert Lewis, York, one brother Waldron, Vancouver, B. C., and one daughter, Pearl, West Roxbury, Mass., who was with her father during his last illness and his death.

The funeral was held from York Church on May 1st where, despite the bad condition of the roads, many friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tribute of respect and sympathy. Rev. J. A. Nicholson, York, conducted the service. The pall bearers were, Messrs. Hamilton Brown, Milton Veasay, Wesley Matthews, George Watts, William Watts, Elby Hardy.

two British statutes, hitherto applicable to Canada, and makes no important change in the law apart from bringing it up to date.

Replying to Mr. Heaps, who suggested a German spy ring operated from Montreal and that foreign propagandists were stirring up racial hatred in Canada, Mr. Lapointe said the government knew all about such activities.

Several times, he said, it had advised the representatives of foreign governments their duties did not include an interest in naturalized Canadian citizens who had formerly been nationals of their countries.

The Minister also issued a warning that the naturalization certificates of persons who spread objectionable propaganda could and would be cancelled. Where a certificate was revoked and the individual committed an offence under the Official Secrets Act or the criminal code he would be liable to deportation.

Rapid Progress

The House made rapid progress with legislation today, cleaning up all major measures except amendments to the Election Act dealing with publicity for campaign funds and the central mortgage bank bill which is under review in the banking committee. It then turned to estimates and passed most of Resources Minister Crerar's estimate for the Indian affairs and immigration branches along with a block of Transport Minister Howe's estimates.

Social Credit members who were expected to continue their session-long opposition to a government bill authorizing the borrowing of $750,000.00 for refunding and general purposes were silent and the bill passed through the committee stage and received third reading.

The bill to create a salt fish board, reported from committee of the whole yesterday, received third reading and a bill re-enacting and revising the gold clauses act in order to fortify it against possible attacks in the courts received second reading and passed through committee of the whole.

British diplomatic circles hoped the new assurances given Moscow would erase Russia's past criticism of Britain's counter-proposals for an Anglo-French-Russian pact.
