THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

It pays to buy in this province

(From yesterday's Evening Guardian) SMELT FISHING.—The smelt fishing, especially during the high tides of the past week, has been very abundant. The price also has been remunerative.—R.

TO ENTERTAIN.—The Rustico Glee Club are preparing for a concert in Rustico Hall. Mr. Jerry Doucette or Rusticoville and Mr. John Gallant of Rustico, the head leaders, are about to start practicing.—R.

MILD WINTER.—An instance of the mild winter P. E. Island is having so far was to be seen Saturday when a farmer was busy ploughing with one horse at Scotch Port. This speaks well for the Garden Province.—S.

HARD WINTER IN THE WEST.—Mr. Frank Byrns, Siderford, who has been residing in the west for the last number of years arrived home last week on a visit, he reports times very slack in the west this winter, worse than has been for a long time, thousands of people being out of work and cannot get anything to do.—S.

QUICK TRIP.—Mr. Arthur Coffin, Mt. Stewart, is delivering mail on the Rural Route to Dromore, etc., to the satisfaction of all concerned. Mr. Coffin makes remarkable good time, making the round trip of twenty-three miles in three and one half hours. No one supposes he has a remarkably good time on these rough roads.—L.

AN ACCIDENT.—His friends will regret to learn that Mr. Peter Dwyer Mt. Stewart, met with a very painful accident on Sunday morning last. Mr. Dwyer was getting into the wagon to go to church when the horse started unexpectedly, throwing him on the frozen ground with such force that his shoulder was severely fractured. Dr. Toombs set the fractured limb but Mr. Dwyer will be unable to work for some weeks.—L.

ROUTELEDGE-EVANS WEDDING.—The marriage was quietly solemnized in St. Paul's church at high noon on Thursday, Rev. Canon Hill officiating, of Julia M. Evans of Regina and Archie Wilson Routeledge, son of Dr. Routeledge of Dashwood, Ontario says the Regina Leader. The bride, who was about to be a becoming traveller in blue serge with blue plush hat trimmed with amethyst plumes and rose amethyst, and the groom's gift black fox fur, was attended by Miss Ruth Campbell, who also wore a blue tailored suit, and a modish brown plush hat with touches of orange. Mr. George Wells performed the duties of best man. Many beautiful and useful gifts testified to the popularity of the young couple. Following the ceremony, the wedding party drove to the apartment in the Black Block, which are ready to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Routeledge upon their return from their honeymoon, and there a delicious luncheon was served. The bride and groom left at 2.20 for a short trip West. The above young ladies have relatives in P. E. Island.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—The hall of St. Joseph's Convent was crowded to the doors last night when an enjoyable literary recital was given there by the advanced class of the Convent School, about thirty in number. "An Hour with Longfellow," the title of the recital, was inscribed in gold letters on three prettily decorated fan-ettes hung in the hall. A synopsis of the life of Longfellow was given the performers, reciting selections from this great poet's work and also rendering in fine voice some of his songs. A feature of the entertainment which brought forth loud and well merited applause was the vocal solo "The Song and the Arrow" exquisitely rendered by Miss Jean Garnham. The chorus "I stood on the Bridge at Midnight" was also and excellent rendition. In their recitations the pupils excelled, their clear enunciation reflecting the splendid and painstaking training bestowed on them by the good sisters of St. Joseph's. Among the clergy present were His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, Rev. Dr. J. G. McLellan, Rev. Fathers Plus MacDonald, E. McQuaid, Duffy, Charlottetown, J. Gallant and Fortin of St. Anastasia's College, G. B. MacDonald of Kirkora and Theodore Gallant of Sturgeon.

FURS, FURS, FURS.
The popular black fur in annual effect, so much worn in the American cities, has had in a wide range at Patons from $15 to $50. Black wolf,coon, sable, imitation black fox, etc. Also about 20 pieces of Persian lamb, handsome muffs and neck pieces selling at one-quarter off. Think it over for Christmas gift giving. From yesterday's Evening Guardian) EEL FISHING.—As the ice is making on the streams the people of North Rustico are preparing their fishing apparatus for eel fishing which promises to be abundant.—R.

HANDSOME CALENDAR.—The Guardian has received a very dainty calendar from Messrs Monbourquette and Macnab, proprietors of the well known King George Hotel, Sydney.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—The engagement is announced in San Francisco of Miss Alice Graham Abrams, daughter of Judge and Mrs Abrams, to Mr. W. G. Wright of Edmonton, son of the late John Wright, Cherry Valley.

A COLD BATH.—A few days ago while Mr. C. McDonald, Mt. Stewart, was crossing The Hillsborough from his own place to St. Andrews, on the ice he broke through, and was obliged to wade ashore doing the work of an ice-breaker as he proceeded. Fortunately for Mr. McDonald, he had crossed the channel where the water is deepest, before the ice proved too weak to carry any more than two hundred pounds. Needless to say, he is not now at least, very enthusiastic over swimming in December.—L.
