Jimmy Evans Scores Another Big Success

At The Prince Edward Last Night When He Presented "Mixed and Muddled," to a Large Audience.

A large and appreciative audience again greeted Jimmy Evans and his clever company of dancers, singers and musical artists, last night at the Prince Edward "Mixed and Muddled" was the change bill presented last night, and this evening's entertainment was the Schottische, danced by the dark sisters also the Sailor's Horn being due little Miss Mary whose selections on the violin are of a high class order, and humorous impersonations together with "Jimmy" kept the audience on the "laugh wagon" throughout. The finale, "My Dwellish Century Girl," which by the way was written and produced by Mr. Joe Devine, was something novel and admirably presented, the applause continuing long after the curtain came down. This performance will be repeated tomorrow afternoon and evening. It might be mentioned that the Matinees will not commence until 2.15 in the afternoon, in order to give the school children plenty of time to get comfortably seated before the performance starts.

Bank of Nova Scotia Moves to Quarters In New Building

Yesterday the handsome new Bank of Nova Scotia building, corner of Great George and Grafton Streets, was opened for business. This building, the construction of which was started on June 6th, is a valuable addition to the architecture of the city. It is of the modern Renaissance style, solidly built, throughout with a frontage of 45 ft. on Grafton St. and 98 ft. on Great George St. It is faced on the street frontages with selected pressed brick of buff color trimmed with limestone, the broad base course being superimposed on a high course of granite at the grade line.

Heroically Rescued Boy From Drowning

ST. JOHN, Feb. 27.—Young Charles Fenwick was saved from drowning by 16 year old Roy Beckett, in the icy waters of Marble Cove at the north end on Saturday morning. When Danville broke through the ice, Beckett who had been playing hockey near by leaped in after him without stopping to take off his skates. From his training received at the city swimming school his rescuer was able to float on his back and hold Danville up by the collar while a rope was effected by two men putting out in a boat. Both boys are none the worse from their exhaustive experience.

Chicago Shaken By Explosion of 30 Tons of Dynamite

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Chicago and dozens of its suburbs today found out just what caused the explosion which literally shook them to their foundations and caused a frenzy of excitement last night. Thirty tons of dynamite let go in a stone quarry on the southwest of the city shortly before nine o'clock and hundreds of thousands of alarmed residents went to bed not knowing just what had happened to shake them up. Damage to property has gone on rise to rumors and reports of concerted bombing squads, an earth quake falling meteor and disaster to some of the major manufacturing plants. For an hour after the blasts Chicago and its suburbs were in a state of confusion, shaking of buildings and noise of explosion, gave rise to reports that bombings were occurring simultaneously in many parts of the city. In spite of the large area affected by the blast only one man was seriously injured, although scores were cut by glass and shaken or bruised. Albert Kendle, the injured man was operating a crane some distance from the explosion and sustained a broken arm.
