Italian Planes Clear Way For Italian Offensive; Sanctions Are Discussed

Italy Determined On Military Campaign.

AKSUM TAKEN COPTIC CLERICS AND CHIEFTAIN SUBMIT IS REPORT.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
ROME, Oct. 15.—Italian government spokesmen said tonight Italy would keep her course in Africa regardless of League of Nations sanctions and would fight "even a European war" if compelled.
These declarations — in which the spokesmen, however, declined to predict war in Europe — came after a day in which the Holy City of Aksum, called the spiritual rock of the Ethiopian Empire, was occupied peacefully by the Second Italian Army Corps under General Pietro Maravigna, and in which Italian war correspondents in the Omager Setit region of Ethiopia, near the border of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, reported the surrender of Ethiopian chieftains and their tribes.
Official spokesmen here appeared confident the rest of the world "would eventually come to the Italian point of view." Sanctions against Italy, they said, might be annoying, but Italy will submit to them.

Embargo Upon War Material Is Planned

(By Joseph E. Sharkey, Associated Press Foreign Staff)
GENEVA, Oct. 15.—Sanctions against Italy assumed a form designed by League leaders tonight to strike a mortal blow at the capacity of Premier Mussolini to make war.
A League of Nations economic sub-committee, mapping the first stage of an economic boycott, began to draw up a list of essential key products which League countries will be asked to deny Italy.
These materials are things Mussolini will need to manufacture munitions and other implements of war. Although he has factories of his own, he is largely dependent upon foreign countries for the materials.
League leaders said they believed if an embargo upon their exportation to Italy is really water-tight, the effects on Italy's capacity to continue the war will soon be seen.
The list includes such things as zinc, aluminum, manganese, lead, iron ore, tungsten and nickel.
Several delegates raised the important question of what will be the attitude of countries who are not members of the League when the embargo on key products is actually put into force. Thus the committee is anxious concerning the policy to be pursued by the United States, Germany, Japan and Brazil.
While the economic sub-committee was at work, another group met to press the placing of financial sanctions against Italy, approved yesterday by the League as a whole.
Statistics were presented to the economic body to show that Germany and the United States export more to Italy by a wide margin than any other countries.
The British give importance to the deterrent effect upon Italy of a policy of "buy nothing from Italy," or a policy of destroying Italy's exportations.
"Today's action is merely a curtain raiser," said Anthony Eden, Britain's minister for League affairs, as he emerged from the meeting.

Makale Believed Objective Of Fascists.

HARAR DESERTED POPULACE SEEKS SHELTER IN THE NEARBY HILLS.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 15.—Italian bombing planes swooped over strategic sections of Ethiopia today while Emperor Haile Selassie rallied his wild tribesmen to the defence of the Empire.
Bombs were dropped by Fascist planes on Alaji, near Makale, and on troops at Makale, 60 miles south of Aduwa, an official communique said. It asserted there were no casualties. Ethiopians also announced scouting planes had passed over Gota, on the railroad to Djibouti, French Somaliland, between Dire-dawa and Awash.
This aerial activity indicated the Italians were preparing to strike at the strategic town of Makale and at the railroad, Ethiopia's only outlet to the sea.
A shipment of 30,000 foreign rifles arrived at Jijiga today, following upon the action of the League of Nations in lifting an embargo against this country.

SPECULATION RIFERRE CABINET

Ten Liberal Cabinet Veterans Returned In Monday's Landslide.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—A week or 10 days from now Canada will have a new government, an administration headed by Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King whose Liberal party was swept into office Monday with the biggest majority in Canadian political history.
Premier Bennett, whose Conservative forces were beaten all along the election front, will step aside for Mr. King but there will be the usual delay of a few days while the incoming cabinet is selected. The switch will be made at the new Prime Minister's convenience.
With one doubtful seat to hear from, the Liberals have 168 seats in a House of 245. In addition, there are four Independent Liberals and two Liberal-Progressives who probably will lend support to the new administration, bringing the government forces to the unprecedented total of 174. There will be so many Liberals in the new House that the whips will be forced to take some of the desks on the opposition side of the House.

THIRD TIME IN OFFICE

It will be the third time Mr. King has entered the Prime Minister's office. His first term of office started in 1921, the first time the Liberals had been in office since 1911. The second time was in 1926, the Meighen shadow government having held office a few months that year. His third term will start in a few days.
The new Prime Minister's immediate job is to form a cabinet. For the first time in his political life, his majority will be large enough to assure an equal voice to all sections of the country in the Liberal caucus. He has large groups from the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario and the West, something he never had before when most of his followers came from one section of the country, changing election by election.
Two courses are open to Mr. King in selecting his cabinet. He could re-appoint 10 ministers who held office under him before or he could introduce new blood, younger men among his veterans of the past. The 10 cabinet veterans who returned to parliament yesterday were Hon.

Island Musician Miners Are Is Winner Of Barricaded Competition In Pits

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEWPORT, Monmouthshire, England, Oct. 15.—(C. P. Havas)— Twenty-five hundred Welsh coal miners were barricaded in their pits tonight as the government moved to prevent the strike at Monmouthshire developing into a complete tie-up of Britain's coal industry.
Armed police patrols at all Monmouthshire pitheads were extended to nearby railroad bridges when striking miners threatened to dynamite the bridges to stop trains bringing strike-broken last Saturday at the Nine Mile Point colliery, where about 70 miners refused, when their work was ended, to return to the surface as a protest against the hiring of non-union labor by the Ocean Coal Company, owners of the mine.
Mr. MacNutt, who was a student of Dr. Healy Whelan, vice-principal of the Toronto Conservatory of music, named his composition "Take Me To A Green Isle," which is set to a lyric by Harry Foster, a friend who resides in Mr. MacNutt's home town, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Mrs. Lillian J. Edward, Winnipeg, chairman of the musical committee of the chapter, informed Mr. MacNutt the song would be used in fall concert work in Winnipeg.
Mr. MacNutt recently won a scholarship in composition at the Toronto Conservatory, his fifth in as many years.—Toronto Exchange.

Island Student Successful In Medical Exams

MONTREAL, Oct. 15.—The registrar of the Medical Council of Canada tonight announced that 29 physicians had become licensees of the Council following examinations recently held in Montreal and Winnipeg.

SWINE SHOW AND SALE YESTERDAY

The lowly hog came into his own yesterday at the ninth annual Swine Show and Sale when $60.00 was received as top price for a prize boar, and $41.00 for a female.
S. C. Stewart & Son, Dunstaffnage figured largely in the prize winners carrying off the first prize for males and third, fourth and fifth prize for females. Frank McAulay, Scuris, carried off the first and second prize for sows while George L. Boswell, Frenchfort, won 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 9th, in the male class. A full list of the prize winners is given below.
The show and sale, which was under the auspices of the Prince Edward Island Swine Growers Association, from the standpoint of enthusiasm and results can be classed among the best held here. The sixties originated the show yesterday. They also expressed the opinion that the interest shown and the prices paid reflect the general condition of the swine industry and the trend towards mixed live stock farming.
One of the conditions of the exhibition is that all animals shown must be offered at auction. The entire lot sold yesterday amid brisk bidding. The great majority of the animals went back to various

Hauptmann Granted Right To Appeal

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 15.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann blocked immediate fixing of a new date for his execution today by obtaining from New Jersey's highest court permission to appeal his conviction to the Supreme Court of the United States.
One of Hauptmann's attorneys, Egbert Rosecrans, was given 30 days by the Court of Errors and Appeals in which to petition the Supreme Court to review the case. Meantime all proceedings in the New Jersey courts were stayed.
If the appeal is not perfected within the stipulated period, the record of the case will be forwarded immediately to Justice Thomas W. Trenhard, the trial judge, who will set a new date for carrying out the death sentence he imposed last February.

Prepared to Fight

Asserting "we know we are a poor people," one spokesman said it necessary "we are prepared to fight."
He added, "if necessary the people will strip their ring fingers to help."
Unofficial discussions of a possible settlement of the East African war brought from government spokesmen the assertion that Italy is making no offer of terms to halt the campaign. The program in Africa, they said, is a military one, of protecting the frontiers of Italy's African colonies.
An official version of a broadcast from Asmara, Eritrea, said General Maravigna was warmly received yesterday in Aksum "by Coptic clerics and local chieftains alike" at ceremonies in which the Abuna Theophilus, high priest of the Ethiopian Coptic Christian Church, surrendered the key of the city to General Emilio de Bono, commander of the Italian colonial forces.
The official radio report said, "the Abuna Bishop himself, informed General de Bono it was an honor and privilege for the Coptic Church leaders to place the Holy City in Italian hands."
